Universal Declaration of Human Rights were all marked by the publication of volumes that celebrated achievements in the field of human rights. Many of these took a self-congratulatory line that emphasized progress on the protection of human rights ignoring the facts of torture, genocide, structural deprivation and the routine exclusion of some groups from political, economic and social participation. This book brings together some of the leading critics of the current project for universal human rights including Noam Chomsky and Johan Galtung as a counterweight to triumphalist approaches on the fiftieth anniversary of the Declaration.

Care Work Madonna Harrington Meyer, 2002-05-03 Care Work is a collection of original essays on the complexities of providing care. These essays emphasize how social policies intersect with gender, race and class to alternately compel women to perform care work and to constrain their ability to do so. Leading international scholars from a range of disciplines provide a groundbreaking analysis of the work of caring in the context of the family, the market and the welfare state.

Feminist Thought Rosemarie Tong, Tina Fernandes Botts, 2024-07-19 A classic resource on feminist theory, this updated sixth edition of Feminist Thought: A More Comprehensive Introduction offers a clear, comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory. This new edition explores in detail the wide spectrum of feminist thought from liberal feminism, radical feminism, Marxist and socialist feminisms, women of color feminisms, global, postcolonial and transnational feminisms to psychoanalytic feminism, care-focused and maternal-focused feminisms to ecofeminism, existentialist, poststructural and postmodern feminisms. The book also includes an expanded discussion of third wave, fourth wave and fifth wave feminisms plus much new material on intersectionality, LGBTQ issues, gender identities, sexual orientations and queer theory. Learning tools like end-of-chapter discussion questions and an enhanced up-to-date bibliography make Feminist Thought an essential resource for students and thinkers who want to understand the theoretical origins and complexities of contemporary feminist debates.

Child Care and Inequality Demie Kurz, Francesca M. Cancian, Andrew S. London, Rebecca Reviere, Mary Tuominen, 2022-02-22 Child Care and Inequality provides an in-depth investigation of carework for children and youth of all ages. This outstanding collection of original essays encourages us to rethink carework and to explore policies that address the needs of both care recipients and careworkers.

Applying Care Ethics to Business Maurice Hamington, Maureen Sander-Staudt, 2011-07-29 Applying Care Ethics to Business is a multidisciplinary collection of original essays that explores the intersection between the burgeoning field of care ethics and business. Care ethics is an approach to morality that emphasizes relational, particularist and affective dimensions of morality that evolved from feminist theory and today enjoys robust intellectual exploration. Care ethics emerged out of feminist theory in the 1980s and the greatest contribution to moral analysis among Women Studies scholars. Today feminists and non-feminist scholars are increasingly taking care ethics seriously. Applying care to the marketplace is a natural step in its maturity. Applying Care Ethics to Business is the first book-length analysis of business and economic cases and theories from the perspective of care theory. Furthermore, given economic turbulence and the resulting scrutiny of market practices, care ethics provides fresh and timely insight into ideal business values and commitments In many ways care ethics emphasis upon connection and cooperation as well as the growth and well being of the other make it appear to be the antithesis of the corporate character Nevertheless many contemporary theorists question if traditional moral approaches based on autonomous agents is adequate to address a shrinking and interconnected world particularly one that is marked by global markets Applying Care Ethics to Business offers a unique opportunity to rethink corporate responsibility and business ethics

Medicine and the Ethics of Care Diana Fritz Cates,Paul Lauritzen,2002-03-01 In these essays a diverse group of ethicists draw insights from both religious and feminist scholarship in order to propose creative new approaches to the ethics of medical care While traditional ethics emphasizes rules justice and fairness the contributors to this volume embrace an ethics of care which regards emotional engagement in the lives of others as basic to discerning what we ought to do on their behalf The essays reflect on the three related themes community narrative and emotion They argue for the need to understand patients and caregivers alike as moral agents who are embedded in multiple communities who seek to attain or promote healing partly through the medium of storytelling and who do so by cultivating good emotional habits A thought provoking contribution to a field that has long been dominated by an ethics of principle Medicine and the Ethics of Care will appeal to scholars and students who want to move beyond the constraints of that traditional approach Ethics in

Community-Based Elder Care Martha Holstein,2001-10-11 Caring for elders outside of institutions is the fastest growing sector of US health care Building on their research study at the Park Ridge Center editors Holstein and Mitzen together with a team of experts examine the complexities involved in developing an ethics for community based long term care They also challenge policymakers to make home care a more viable option for older people in need Chapters address many of the ethical and practical problems that arise in the care of older people with physical and mental disabilities including how to allocate scarce funds how to keep good caregivers how to balance concerns of autonomy risk and safety and worker stress The volume is an excellent resource for practitioners policymakers and students Women, Medicine, Ethics and the Law

Susan Sherwin,Barbara Parish,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 A collection of articles focused on women within a general study of medicine ethics and the law Topics covered include areas where the institutions of medicine ethics and the law intersect in women s reproductive and sexual lives the impact of legal policies and dominant ethical beliefs on many aspects of women s health and the health practices and policies of bioethics and health law The editors recognise that it is important not to lose sight of social differences other than gender such as race ethnicity class age sexuality religion level of physical and mental ability and family relationships In their approach they seek to consider the lives and experiences of women as primary Hence they focus on the question of how women s encounters with the health care system are structured by gender and other socially significant dimensions of their lives rather than the question of how women differ from the male norm Refugees and the Media Nasir Uddin,Delaware Arif,2024-07-17 Media and refugees rhetorically live together and practically complement each other Yet it involves plenty of hidden political agendas and ethical issues in the re presentation of refugees in media This collection raises questions Should the media stand by refugees or maintain deliberate neutrality Should the media dehumanize the refugees further in their humanitarian conditions Are the media entitled to publish photographs of refugees without informed consent Should the media stand by the state being responsible for generating refugee crisis or should the state be accountable for rendering its people refugees What effective roles can media play in redressing the refugee crisis in the world The book brings together scholars across disciplines and continents who reflect on the nexus between media and refugees in contexts around the world It engages in cutting edge methodological and theoretical discussions and challenges regarding the reciprocal engagement between media and refugees from both local and global perspectives
