Ethical Analysis Of The Portrayal Of Abortion In American Fiction:

An Ethical Analysis of the Portrayal of Abortion in American Fiction Jeff Koloze, 2005 Religiously based ethical aspects of the abortion issue have not been addressed in literary criticism thus determining the ethical content of twentieth century American fiction concerning abortion will assist students of literature and those interested in this controversial issue Specifically the author identifies six ethical aspects of the abortion issue discussed in Judaism Catholicism and Protestantism The first ethical aspect concerns the lex talionis passage in Exodus Second the concepts of health and life are considered The study then examines whether the unborn child can be viewed as an aggressor against his or her mother Determining whether the unborn child possesses potential or actual life constitutes the fourth ethical aspect followed by the closely related categories of formed and unformed fetuses

American Shame Myra Mendible, 2016-03-29 Essays examining the role of shame as an American cultural practice and how public shaming enforces conformity and group coherence On any given day in America s news cycle stories and images of disgraced politicians and celebrities solicit our moral indignation their misdeeds fueling a lucrative economy of shame and scandal Shame is one of the most coercive painful and intriguing of human emotions Only in recent years has interest in shame extended beyond a focus on the subjective experience of this emotion and its psychological effects The essays collected here consider the role of shame as cultural practice and examine ways that public shaming practices enforce conformity and group coherence Addressing abortion mental illness suicide immigration and body image among other issues this volume calls attention to the ways shaming practices create and police social boundaries how shaming speech is endorsed judged or challenged by various groups and the distinct ways that shame is encoded and embodied in a nation that prides itself on individualism diversity and exceptionalism Examining shame through a prism of race sexuality ethnicity and gender these provocative essays offer a broader understanding of how America s discourse of shame helps to define its people as citizens spectators consumers and moral actors An eclectic anthology it offers the readers more than one argument and perspective which makes the volume itself lively and rich

William Faulkner John E. Bassett, 2009-05-22 Considered one of the great American authors of the 20th century William Faulkner 1897 1962 produced such enduring novels as The Sound and the Fury Light in August and As I Lay Dying as well as many short stories His works continue to be a source of interest to scholars and students of literature and the immense amount of criticism about the Nobel prize winner continues to grow Following his book Faulkner in the Eighties Scarecrow 1991 and two previous volumes published in 1972 and 1983 John E Bassett provides a comprehensive annotated listing of commentary in English on William Faulkner since the late 1980s This volume dedicates its sections to book length studies of Faulkner commentaries on individual novels and short works criticism covering multiple works biographical and bibliographical sources and other materials such as book reviews doctoral dissertations and brief commentaries This bibliography provides an organized and accessible list of all significant recent commentary on Faulkner and the annotations direct readers to those materials of most interest to them The information contained in this volume is beneficial for scholars and students of this author but also general readers of fiction who have a special interest in Faulkner

Resistant Reproductions Fran Bigman, 2024-03-29 Resistant Reproductions asks why narratives of pregnancy and abortion emerged in the early twentieth century and what kinds of stories these narratives conveyed Is it only once pregnancy becomes plannable that it becomes a story worth telling Abortion is often considered resistant and feminist while pregnancy is considered domestic and conventional How can readings of literary narratives challenge this reductive binary Resistant Reproductions the first book length study of both pregnancy and abortion in British culture addresses these questions by examining pregnancy narratives including abortion narratives in British fiction and film from 1907 to 1967 Fiction became a way for writers to explore what new possibilities of reproductive control would mean for the individual yet there was also much anxiety about who would have control individuals or the state While exploring intimate personal experiences of pregnancy and abortion Resistant Reproductions also asks how literary narratives used reproductive plots to address political issues of gender class and eugenics

The Hemingway Review, 2006 American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Life and Learning XVII University Faculty for Life. Conference, 2008 Midamerica, 2007 The Politics of Transparency in Modern American Fiction Paula Martín Salván, Sascha Pöhlmann, 2024 A much needed contribution to and critique of debates in the newly emerging field of transparency studies from the perspective of American literary studies In the twenty first century transparency has become an ambiguous buzzword both in the public and the private realms e g Wikileaks and the Snowden affair social media This volume takes its cue from the emerging field of transparency studies recent scholarly work in sociology political theory and cultural studies that identifies a hegemonic rhetoric of transparency in public and political life While scholars in this new field routinely gesture toward literature as the realm where secrecy may be productive they rarely engage with literature directly and literary studies itself remains notably absent from their debates This collection of essays seeks to redress that state of affairs by focusing on literary texts written in an American cultural tradition steeped in the interplay between transparency and exposure fear and secrecy security and surveillance and information and disinformation The essays draw on authors ranging from Whitman James and Ellison to Pynchon Morrison and Eggers to argue that American literature complicates theoretical assumptions about transparency made in other disciplines They question the field s strong theoretical emphasis on present day technopolitical practices and discourses as the location of hegemonic discourse on transparency and instead historicize such phenomena and extend them to discursive spheres that have so far been neglected such as issues of sexuality and race Edited by Paula Martín Salván and Sascha Pöhlmann Contributors Tomasz Basiuk Jesus Blanco Hidalgo Cristina Chevere San Julia Faisst Michel Feith Julián Jimenez Heffernan Tiina Käläla Juan López de Luque Umberto Rossi Jelena Sesnić Toon Staes Julia Straub Alice Sundman

Woodress,2005 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year A Pastoral Intervention Model For Abortions In Mangaung Metroplitan City Moshe Montlha Musapelo,2020-04-30 Master s Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Theology Practical Theology course MTh in practical theology language English abstract This text looks at the issue of unwanted pregnancies and their termination from a theological perspective against the background of the Pregnancy Act 199 COTP and my pastoral concern The failing family planning program of the Department of Health has contributed to this moral controversy as some women use the termination of pregnancy as a birth control method The termination of pregnancy in South Africa has become a controversial issue affecting communities and the health professionals since the implementation of the Choice on the Termination of Pregnancy Act 199 COTP This Act has imposed a moral dilemma for many health professionals and for many contemplating abortions This has come about in that it provides for abortion on demand in the first trimester It has also caused many Christian pastors and other citizens great concern due to the rise in the number of abortions This study starts with a literature review to highlight the various facets and views surrounding the explosive issue of abortion on demand This opens the parameters within which this matter needs to be engaged Then the details of an empirical research conducted at three designated facilities of the Department of Health in Mangaung Metropolitan City are presented The health professionals that conduct abortions were interviewed as well as sixty clients that underwent this procedure under their service The research investigated both groups experience under COTP It explores not only the counselling side but also reasons for abortion and related emotions and concerns of both health workers and clients Further the research probes their religious views and church attachments if any and how they relate to this controversial issue Then the two main theological views on termination of pregnancy on demand are considered This part of the study seeks to arrive at a biblically normative position It considers the biblical worldview and the high view it places on human life It concludes that the pro life position Christian morals and moral regeneration and family planning should be central programs and are crucial in dealing with abortion on demand Finally there is a formulation of a pastoral intervention model for the pastors in the churches in Mangaung Metropolitan City with some attention to recommendations for the Department of Health American Doctoral Dissertations ,2001 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Between Ethics and Aesthetics Dorota Glowacka, Stephen Boos, 2012-02-01 This forum of current discussions of ethics and aesthetics addresses a cross section of disciplines including literary theory philosophy women s studies postcolonial theory art history Holocaust studies theology and others Contributors ranging from philosophers and literary critics to practicing artists and art curators answer such questions as In the age of the collapse of metaphysics what is the relation between philosophical reflection and art If we question the privilege accorded to the aesthetic can ethics alone offer a solution to the crisis of representation Is it possible and ethically viable to represent the other in speech and image What happens at the conjunction of aesthetics and politics Can one speak of aesthetic configurations of the space of community Are the concepts of ethics and aesthetics gendered and repressive of sexual difference Considering the many works that consider either ethics or aesthetics almost exclusively within the confines of particular disciplines this collection crosses the boundaries and continues the debate outside the rigid parameters of specialized discourses New Books on Women and Feminism, 2006 The Novel and the New Ethics Dorothy J. Hale, 2020-11-24 For a generation of contemporary Anglo American novelists the question Why write has been answered with a renewed will to believe in the ethical value of literature Dissatisfied with postmodernist parody and pastiche a broad array of novelist critics including J M Coetzee Toni Morrison Zadie Smith Gish Jen Ian McEwan and Jonathan Franzen champion the novel as the literary genre most qualified to illuminate individual ethical action and decision making within complex and diverse social worlds Key to this contemporary vision of the novel s ethical power is the task of knowing and being responsible to people different from oneself and so thoroughly have contemporary novelists devoted themselves to the ethics of otherness that this ethics frequently sets the terms for plot characterization and theme In The Novel and the New Ethics literary critic Dorothy J Hale investigates how the contemporary emphasis on literature s social relevance sparks a new ethical description of the novel s social value that is in fact rooted in the modernist notion of narrative form This new ethics of the contemporary moment has its origin in the new idea of novelistic form that Henry James inaugurated and which was consolidated through the modernist narrative experiments and was developed over the course of the twentieth century In Hale s reading the art of the novel becomes defined with increasing explicitness as an aesthetics of alterity made visible as a formalist ethics In fact it is this commitment to otherness as a narrative act which has conferred on the genre an artistic intensity and richness that extends to the novel s every word Introduction to Documentary, Third Edition Bill Nichols, 2017-03-27 The third edition of Bill Nichols s best selling text provides an up to date introduction to the most important issues in documentary history and criticism A new chapter I Want to Make a Documentary Where Do I Start guides readers through the steps of planning and preproduction and includes an example of a project proposal for a film that went on to win awards at major festivals Designed for students in any field that makes use of visual evidence and persuasive strategies Introduction to Documentary identifies the genre s distinguishing qualities and teaches the viewer how to read documentary film Each chapter takes up a discrete question from How did documentary filmmaking get started to Why are ethical issues central to documentary filmmaking Here Nichols has fully rewritten each chapter for greater clarity and ease of use including revised discussions of earlier films and new commentary on dozens of recent films from The Cove to The Act of Killing and from Gasland to Restrepo

Alzheimer's Disease, Media Representations and the Politics of Euthanasia Megan-Jane Johnstone, 2016-04-15 Drawing on extensive data including news media reports and commentaries documentaries courts and court reports films websites professional literature and government and non government agencies this book explores the Alzheimerisation of the euthanasia debate examining the shift in recent years in public attitudes towards the desirability and moral permissibility of euthanasia as an end of life solution for people living with the disease not just at its end stage but also at earlier stages With attention to media representations and public understandings of Alzheimer s disease Alzheimer s Disease Media Representations and the Politics of Euthanasia sheds light on the processes contributing to these changes in public opinion investigating the drivers of vexed political debate surrounding the issue and examining the manner in which both sides of the euthanasia debate mobilise support portray their opponents and make use of media technologies to frame the terms of discourse Paving the way for a greater level of intellectual honesty with regard to an issue carrying significant policy implications this book will be of interest to scholars of media and communication social movements and political communication and the sociology of health and medicine as well as researchers and professionals in the fields of palliative and end of life care

Representations of Death in Nineteenth-Century US Writing and Culture Ms Lucy Frank, 2013-04-28 From the famous deathbed scene of Harriet Beecher Stowe s Little Eva to Mark Twain s parodically morbid poetess Emmeline Grangerford a preoccupation with human finitude informs the texture of nineteenth century US writing This collection traces the vicissitudes of this cultural preoccupation with the subject of death and examines how mortality served paradoxically as a site on which identity and subjectivity were productively rethought Contributors from North America and the United Kingdom representing the fields of literature theatre history and American studies analyze the sexual social and epistemological boundaries implicit in nineteenth century America s obsession with death while also seeking to give a voice to the strategies by which these boundaries were interrogated and displaced Topics include race and gender based investigations into the textual representation of death imaginative constructions and re constructions of social practice with regard to loss and memorialisation and literary re conceptualisations of death forced by personal and national trauma
