Ethics and Representation Claire Colebrook, 1999 Ethics and Representation provides a critique and overview of contemporary post structuralist theory Exploring the Kantian and phenomenological background of Derrida Deleuze Foucault and Irigaray this book raises some key questions and issues in critical theory These questions are looked at from a number of angles including the notion of point of view and perspective the critique of anthropologism from Kant to Deleuze and the relation between representation and modernity This is an original contribution to ethical and critical theory which situates poststructuralism in its philosophical background and in the sustained problematic of the enlightenment      The Ethics of Representation in Literature, Art, and Journalism Caroline Rooney, Rita Sakr, 2013-11-07 This transnational collection of essays interviews and creative pieces on the 1982 Siege of Beirut explores literary representations of the siege by a diverse set of writers alongside journalism and other media including film and art The book investigates and promotes an awareness of an ethics of representation on questions of extreme emotional investment comparing representations of the siege to representations of other traumatic events visiting responses from those of different cultural backgrounds to the same event and considering implications with respect to comparative approaches Chapters explore how literature journalism and art contribute to overcoming the dangers of forgetting and denial memorial excess and fundamentalism the radicalization of violence and the complete breakdown of trust on international levels asking how they challenge geopolitical intellectual and psychological states of siege and instead promote awareness acknowledgement mourning and justice across divided communities The book extends the use of postcolonial methodologies affiliated with history international relations and psychoanalysis memory trauma to Middle Eastern studies and visits the siege's effect on different forms of memory and memorialization selective memory trauma gaps and fissures in historical accounts recording of eyewitness reports and artistic re imaginings and realizations of alternative archives      The Bodies of Others José A. Sánchez, 2022-02-24 Available in English for the first time The Bodies of Others investigates through a series of close readings of several theatrical and film productions in Europe and South America the relationship between representation including theatrical representation and ethics defined as an ongoing relational negotiation as opposed to a set of universal moral laws The main concepts are exposed through a comparative analysis of historical processes political actions and artistic works from different periods Thus the dialogue between the film La carrosse d'or by Jean Renoir 1952 and Rosa Cuchillo by Yuyachkani 2006 serves to address the problem of the multiple meanings of representation The dialogue between the play El Se or Gal ndez by Eduardo Pavlovsky 1973 the performance The Conquest of America by Las Yeguas del Apocalipsis 1989 and the novel 2666 2004 by Roberto Bola o allows the concept of an ethic of the body to be addressed Other key concepts such as identity care cruelty violence memory and testimony are considered through investigation of work such as Angelica Liddel s theatre pieces Rabi Mrou and Lina Majdalanie s performances Albertina Carri Basilio Mart n Patino and Apichatpong Weerasethakul s films and Mapa Teatro s trans disciplinary creations      Proposal for Research in Ethics of Representation Harvard Law School, 1953      Ethics of Family Representation , 2007      Ethics of representation in novels by George Eliot, Thomas Hardy and Joseph Conrad Rachel Hollander, 2004      Speaking for Others Wendy Salkin, 2024-07-09 In Speaking for Others political philosopher Wendy Salkin develops the first systematic conceptual and moral analysis of informal political representation Salkin argues that informal representation can be a political lifeline particularly for oppressed and marginalized groups that are denied representation in formal political institutions Yet informal political representatives exert outsized influence over the ways these groups interests are understood by the public without the represented having much recourse to hold them accountable And many informal political representatives are selected not by the groups they represent but by outsiders sticking these groups with representatives they would not choose but cannot shake The role of informal political representatives is therefore fraught with moral questions What exactly are their duties and to whom are they owed Should they be members of the groups they represent When is informal representation permissible and when is it best avoided Speaking for Others explores the tensions central to this pervasive yet underexamined practice bringing light to both its perils and its promise      An Ethics of Representation Lauren Beth Goodman, 2005      Representation and Responsibility Bruce Jennings, Daniel Callahan, 1985-10-31      Gender, Religion and Diversity Ursula King, Tina Beattie, 2005-12-01 Gender Religion and Diversity provides an introduction to some of the most challenging perspectives in the contemporary study of gender and religion In recent years women s and gender studies have transformed the international study of religion through the use of interdisciplinary and cross cultural methodologies which have opened up new and highly controversial issues challenging previous paradigms and creating fresh fields of study As this book shows gender studies in religion raises new and difficult questions about the gendered nature of religious phenomena the relationship between power and knowledge the authority of religious texts and institutions and the involvement and responsibility of the researcher undertaking such studies as a gendered subject This book is the outcome of an international collaboration between a wide range of researchers from different countries and fields of religious studies The range and diversity of their contributions is the very strength of this book for it shows how gendering works in studying different religious materials whether foundational texts from the Bible or Koran philosophical ideas about truth essentialism history or symbolism the impact of French feminist thinkers such as Irigaray or Kristeva or again critical perspectives dealing with the impact of race gender and class on religion or by deconstructing religious data from a postcolonial critical standpoint or examining the impact of imperialism and orientalism on religion and gender

Ethics and Media Culture: Practices and Representations David Berry, 2013-08-22 Ethics and Media Culture straddles the practical and ethical issues of contention encountered by journalists The book's various contributors cover a diversity of issues and viewpoints attempting to broaden out the debates particularly in relation to Journalism Studies Cultural Studies Sociology of Culture and Communications Philosophy and History The debate concerning media ethics has intensified in recent years fuelled mainly by the standards of journalist and media practices The role of practitioners has taken centre stage as concerns over what constitutes ethical and therefore socially acceptable practice and behaviour by the public practitioners and intellectuals alike The discursive relationship between the production and consumption of information is central to the debate regarding moral conduct particularly in light of the commercialisation of the media Considering that media institutions operate in a climate of intense competition the value of information and its corresponding quality have begun to be critically assessed in terms of ethical understanding A degree of open endedness is maintained in discussions throughout this book which is intended to engage the reader with the issues raised and determine their own conclusions

Qualitative Research in Education Marilyn Lichtman, 2023-01-31 The fourth edition of this reader friendly book offers an accessible introduction to conducting qualitative research in education The text begins with an introduction to the history context and traditions of qualitative research and then walks readers step by step through the research process Lichtman outlines research planning and design as well as the methodologies techniques and strategies to help researchers make the best use of their qualitative investigation Throughout chapters touch on important issues that impact this research process such as ethics and subjectivity and making use of technology The fourth edition has been thoroughly revised and updated featuring new examples an increased focus on virtual and digital data collection and the latest approaches to qualitative research Written in a practical conversational style and full of real world scenarios drawn from across education this book is a practical compendium on qualitative research in education ideal for graduate and advanced undergraduate research methods courses and early career researchers alike Hear Marilyn discuss what inspired her to write this fourth edition and what readers can expect In this podcast episode of The Qualitative Report she discusses the various types of qualitative research and what

Societal Responsibility of Artificial Intelligence Jerome Beranger, 2021-06-29 The digital world is characterized by its immediacy its density of information and its omnipresence in contrast to the concrete world Significant changes will occur in our society as AI becomes integrated into many aspects of our lives This book focuses on this vision of universalization by dealing with the development and framework of AI applicable to all It develops a moral framework based on a neo Darwinian approach the concept of Ethics by Evolution to accompany AI by observing a certain number of requirements recommendations and rules at each stage of design implementation and use The societal responsibility of artificial intelligence is an essential step towards ethical eco responsible and trustworthy AI aiming to protect and serve people and the common good in a beneficial way

Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky, 2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations

Screening Economies Daniel Cuonz, Scott Loren, Jörg Metelmann, 2018-10-04 The relationship between economy finance and society has become opaque Quantum leaps in complexity and scale have turned this deeply interdependent web of relations into an area of incomprehensible abstraction And while the economization of life has come under widespread critique inquiry into the political potential of representational praxis is more crucial than ever This volume explores ethical aesthetic and ideological dimensions of economic representation redressing essential questions What are the roles of mass and new media How do the arts contribute to critical discourse on the global techno economic complex Collectively the contributions bring theoretical debate and artistic intervention into a rich exchange that includes but also exceeds the conventions of academic scholarship
