Ethics And The Community Enquiry:

Tradition in the Ethics of Alasdair MacIntyre Christopher Stephen Lutz, 2009-01-01 Tradition in the Ethics of Alasdair MacIntyre presents a stimulating intellectual history and expertly reasoned defense of this towering figure in contemporary American philosophy Drawing on interviews and published works Christopher Lutz traces MacIntyre's philosophical development and refutes the criticisms of the major thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Thomas Nagel who have most vocally attacked him Permanently shifting the debate on MacIntyre's oeuvre Lutz convincingly demonstrates how MacIntyre's neo Aristotelian ethical thought provides an essential corrective to the contemporary discussions of relativism and ideology while successfully drawing on the objectivity of Thomistic natural law Education for Values:

Liberalism and Christian Ethics David Fergusson, 1998-11-26 This book explores some current issues on the borderland between moral philosophy and Christian theology Particular attention is paid to the issues at stake between liberals and communitarians and the dispute between realists non realists and quasi realists In the course of the discussion the writings of Alasdair MacIntyre George Lindbeck and Stanley Hauerwas are examined While sympathetic to many of the typical features of post liberalism the argument is critical at selected points in seeking to defend realism and accommodate some aspects of liberalism The position that emerges is more neo Barthian than post liberal In maintaining the distinctiveness of Christian ethics and community the book also seeks to acknowledge common moral ground held by those within and without the church The Language of Ethics and Community in Graham Greene's Fiction Paula Martín Salvan, 2016-04-29 A study of Graham Greene's fiction from the perspective of ethics and community focusing on the narrative pattern that emerges from the author's idiosyncratic use of keywords like peace despair compassion or commitment This book explores their potential for the textual articulation of narrative conflict and the dramatization of the ethical Art and Ethics in a

Material World Jennifer McMahon, 2013-11-26 In this book McMahon argues that a reading of Kant's body of work in the light of a pragmatist theory of meaning and language which arguably is a Kantian legacy leads one to put community reception ahead of individual reception in the order of aesthetic relations A core premise of the book is that neo pragmatism draws attention to an otherwise overlooked aspect of Kant's Critique of Aesthetic Judgment and this is the conception of community which it sets forth While offering an interpretation of Kant's aesthetic theory the book focuses on the implications of Kant's third critique for contemporary art McMahon draws upon Kant and his legacy in pragmatist theories of meaning and language to argue that aesthetic judgment is a version of moral judgment a way to cultivate attitudes conducive to community which plays a pivotal role in the evolution of language meaning and knowledge Philosophy and Community

Narrative Theology and Moral Theology Alexander Lucie-Smith, 2016-04-15 Moral thinking today finds itself stranded between the particular and the universal Alasdair MacIntyre's work on narrative discussed here along with that of Stanley Hauerwas and H T Engelhardt aims to undo the perceived damage done by the Enlightenment by returning to narrative and abandoning the illusion of a disembodied reason that claims to be able to give a coherent explanation for everything It is precisely this a theory that holds good for all cases that John Rawls proposed drawing on the heritage of Emmanuel Kant Who is right Must universality be abandoned Must we only think about morality in terms that are relative bound by space and time Alexander Lucie Smith attempts to answer these questions by examining the nature of narrative itself as well as the particular narratives of Rawls and St Augustine Bound and rooted as they are in history and personal experience narratives nevertheless strain at the limits imposed on them It is Lucie Smith's contention that each narrative that points to a lived morality exists against the background of an infinite horizon and thus it is that the particular and the rooted can also make us aware of the universal and unchanging

Animals and the Moral Community Gary Steiner,2008-09-15 Gary Steiner argues that ethologists and philosophers in the analytic and continental traditions have largely failed to advance an adequate explanation of animal behavior Critically engaging the positions of Marc Hauser Daniel Dennett Donald Davidson John Searle Martin Heidegger and Hans Georg Gadamer among others Steiner shows how the Western philosophical tradition has forced animals into human experiential categories in order to make sense of their cognitive abilities and moral status and how desperately we need a new approach to animal rights Steiner rejects the traditional assumption that a lack of formal rationality confers an inferior moral status on animals vis vis human beings Instead he offers an associationist view of animal cognition in which animals grasp and adapt to their environments without employing concepts or intentionality Steiner challenges the standard assumption of liberal individualism according to which humans have no obligations of justice toward animals Instead he advocates a cosmic holism that attributes a moral status to animals equivalent to that of people Arguing for a relationship of justice between humans and nature Steiner emphasizes our kinship with animals and the fundamental moral obligations entailed by this kinship
