Christians,Michael Traber,1997-01-28 This volume is designed to revolutionize the field of communication by identifying a broad ethical theory which transcends the world of mass media practice to reveal a more humane and responsible code of values The contributors representing a diverse range of intercultural perspectives defend the possibility of universal moral imperatives such as justice reciprocity and human dignity Through an examination of the values in which their cultures are grounded they provide a short list of ethical principles which form the common ground from which to view contemporary issues in the media interpersonal communication mediation and conflict resolution Objectivity in Journalism Steven Maras,2013-04-03 Objectivity in journalism is a key topic for debate in media communication and journalism studies and has been the subject of intensive historical and sociological research In the first study of its kind Steven Maras surveys the different viewpoints and perspectives on objectivity Going beyond a denunciation or defence of journalistic objectivity Maras critically examines the different scholarly and professional arguments made in the area Structured around key questions the book considers the origins and history of objectivity its philosophical influences the main objections and defences and questions of values politics and ethics This book examines debates around objectivity as a transnational norm focusing on the emergence of objectivity in the US while broadening out discussion to include developments around objectivity in the UK Australia Asia and other regions

Internationalizing Media Studies Daya Kishan Thussu, 2009-05-15 The explosion of transnational information flows made possible by new technologies and institutional changes economic political and legal has profoundly affected the study of global media At the same time the globalization of media combined with the globalization of higher education means that the research and teaching of the subject faces immediate and profound challenges not only as the subject of enquiry but also as the means by which researchers and students undertake their studies Edited by a leading scholar of global communication this collection of essays by internationally acclaimed scholars from around the world aims to stimulate a debate about the imperatives for internationalizing media studies by broadening its remit including innovative research methodologies taking account of regional and national specificities and pedagogic necessities warranted by the changing profile of students and researchers and the unprecedented growth of media in the non Western world Transnational in its perspectives Internationalizing Media Studies is a much needed guide to the internationalization of media and its study in a global context

Quagmires and Quandaries Ian Richards, 2005 Despite best intentions various codes of ethics and extensive public attention journalists are repeatedly seen to behave in ways that are less than edifying With refreshing candor and scholarly rigor Ian Richards journalist and academic examines the reasons why this particular profession is apparently so ethically challenged

Responsibility Richard L. Sartore, 2000-09-22 The writing focuses on the responsibility media has in today's society. Too frequently the accuracy, reliability and validity of media stories is questioned. As noted in the introduction, what is the public to believe and what guidelines are available to weigh what is or is not true. Solid factual reporting is freely mixed with opinions. It goes on to say that clearly the book is not designed as an unwarranted attack on conventional or tabloid reporting. Rather its goal is intended to stir public media awareness allowing readers to examine materials transmitted and absorbed. When we can isolate and categorize media substance then we can decide what is factual journalism and what's fiction. The writing focuses on the responsibility media has in today's society. Ética en los medios de comunicación

López Talavera, María del Mar, 2016-11-08 Hablar de ética en los medios de comunicación en un momento histórico de crisis moral de valores no resulta tarea sencilla por lo que es imprescindible subrayar la importancia y actualidad de una deontología en este ámbito. Hoy en día tanto estudiantes como profesionales de las ciencias de la información se enfrentan con problemas éticos que exigen tomar decisiones desde el punto de vista moral. Es lo que los anglosajones denominan making ethical decision. A tal efecto este libro aporta fundamentales contenidos y reflexiones para una correcta resolución de los dilemas éticos en el ejercicio profesional del periodismo y de la comunicación audiovisual. Se abordan temas de actualidad y aplicación práctica como son entre otros el tratamiento ético de informaciones sobre violencia y terrorismo, la publicidad engañosa e información subliminal, la ética de los anuncios televisivos, la influencia de la televisión en los niños, la ética del fotógrafo en prensa y los paparazzi, la deontología del tertulio radiofónico, la importancia de la calidad de los contenidos en televisión, la telebasura y la responsabilidad social del cineasta.

Mixed News Jay Black, 2013-12-02 This volume addresses some of the central issues of journalism today: the nature and needs of the individual versus the nature and needs of the broader society; theories of communitarianism versus Enlightenment liberalism; independence versus interdependence versus co-dependency; negative versus positive freedoms; Constitutional mandates versus marketplace mandates; universal ethical issues versus situational and/or professional values; traditional values versus information age values; ethics of management versus ethics of worker bees; commitment and compassion versus detachment and professional distance; conflicts of interest versus conflicted disinterest and talking to versus talking with. All of these issues are discussed within the framework of the frenetic field of daily journalism, a field that operates at a pace and under a set of professional standards that all but preclude careful systematic examinations of its own rituals and practices. The explorations presented here not only advance the enterprise but also help student and professional observers to work through some of the most perplexing dilemmas to have faced the news media and public in recent times This lively volume showcases the differing opinions of journalistic experts on this significant contemporary issue in public life Unlike previous books and monographs which have tended toward unbridled enthusiasm about public journalism and trade press articles which have tended toward pessimism this book offers strong voices on several sides of this complex debate To help inform the debate a series of voices journalistic interviews with practitioners and critics of public journalism is interspersed throughout the text At the end of each essay a series of quotes from a wide variety of sources In other words augments each chapter with ideas and insights that support and contradict the points used by each chapter author

Mediapolitik Lee Edwards, 2001 Drawing upon his lifelong study of politics and journalism political historian Lee Edwards offers the first scholarly examination of a powerful new phenomenon in world politics the mass media Edwards argues in his far ranging and innovative work that the media have become as important a factor in determining the course of international affairs and the future of nations as economic prosperity military strength natural resources and national will The author calls this vital new component of world politics mediapolitik He uses case studies from around the world to show how the mass media have influenced and even determined the outcome of major political acts such as the collapse of communism in Eastern and Central Europe the Tiananmen Square massacre in China the ousting of Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet and the political resurrection of South Africa's Nelson Mandela The author argues that these case studies show that the mass media can either enrich or enslave the human spirit depending upon their moral foundation If the media follow a liberal democratic model as in the United States and Western Europe they contribute to a free and just society If they follow an authoritarian model as in South Africa before Mandela or a totalitarian model as in Saddam Hussein's Iraq or Fidel Castro's Cuba they perpetuate the regime in power and deny the fruits of freedom and democracy to the people Edwards addresses the question of how responsibly the American media the most influential media in the world handle their enormous power Using the results obtained from his survey of 100 leading journalists as well as close analysis of major news stories of the last decade the author confirms the rampant cynicism of the American media and its deleterious effect on American politics and government The solution he suggests is that American journalists must practice moral responsibility and strengthen the liberal democratic model of mediapolitik around the world

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Lee Edwards is senior fellow at the Heritage Foundation and adjunct associate professor of politics at The Catholic University of America He is senior editor of The World magazine and author or editor of numerous books including The Collapse of Communism The Conservative Revolution The Power of Ideas The Heritage Foundation at 25 Years and Goldwater The Man Who Made a Revolution

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Mediapolitik is a broad gauged survey of what the mass media is and how it works around the world There is scarcely an issue or debate within media and media watching circles that Mr Edwards does not touch on and analyze with care and precision Reading Mediapolitik is the equivalent of at least a semester's worth of J School and more fun Washington Times Mediapolitik is superb a much needed comprehensive study of a crucial topic It is full of insight in its analysis and wisdom in its conclusions Peter W Rodman former Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs A revealing study of the mass media's impact on world politics You may not agree with all of his conclusions but Mediapolitik is well worth reading Hal Bruno former political director ABC News Edwards is a sterling advocate for more responsibility in journalism His cogent insights are always worthy of study and debate Stephen Hess The Brookings Institution author of The Little Book of Campaign Etiquette The author's case studies are valuable No one to my knowledge has presented such information and analysis in such a systematic fashion Prof Marvin Olasky Acton Institute A very plausible and reliable overview of the impact of changes in news and entertainment media on the politics of our world The
