Ethics Law And Aging Review Consumer Directed Care And The Older Person:

Focus on Consumer-directed Care and Older Persons Marshall B. Kapp, 2000 Chapters address the effects of the changes within health and long term care delivery and financing as they evolve from a regulatory command and control paradigm to a combination of models in which the individual patient consumer is more empowered to make personal choices

Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 11 Marshall B. Kapp, 2005-09-01 We are now engaged in a movement that de-emphasizes the reliance on institutional forms of long term care for disabled persons needing ongoing daily living assistance and converges on the use of non institutional service providers and residential settings In this latest edition of Ethics Law and Aging Review Kapp and ten expert contributors help us examine the forces and potential for changing the long term care industry both positively and negatively and address this paradigm shift from the impersonal public psychiatric institutions of the 1960s and 1970s to the present day assisted living environments that have been fueled by economic social political and legal forces Most importantly this volume identifies obstacles to change and enlightens service providers advocates and key policy makers to the pitfalls that can largely interfere with positive outcomes as a result of long term care deinstitutionalization Topics explored include Community based alternatives for older adults with serious mental illness Failing consumer directed alternatives to nursing homes Ethics of Medicare privatization

Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 7 Marshall B. Kapp, 2001-09-24 Health care and human service professionals often experience anxiety about potential adverse legal repercussions for actions taken or not taken in the course of caring for patients or clients In this volume professionally distinguished and diverse authors discuss both the real and perceived legal liability context within which health and human service delivery to older persons takes place The benefits and costs of litigious legislative and regulatory interventions on the quality of care and the quality of life for recipients of geriatric services is evaluated Most important chapters present suggestions for ways to effectively reduce or manage legal risks and anxieties while improving patient care This volume fills a gap in the literature by providing careful and accurate analysis of legal issues rarely translated into practical and useful advice for health care and human service professionals The Encyclopedia of SAGE Handbook of Social Gerontology Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, 2010-08-13 This SAGE Handbook integrates basic research on social dimensions of aging. It presents programmatic applications of research in areas not often seen in Handbooks including imprisonment, technology and aging, urban society, aged and elderly migration. The authors constitute a Who's Who of international gerontology and the focus on globalization and aging is unique among Handbooks today. This Handbook should be in the library of every social gerontologist. Vern L. Bengtson, Professor of Gerontology, University of Southern California. This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern, including chapters by international scholars from Asia, Australasia, Europe and North America. It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field, drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines. The Handbook is organized into five parts, each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing. Disciplinary overviews, summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology. Social relationships and social differences explores areas like social inequality, gender, religion, inter-generational ties, social networks and friendships. Individual characteristics and change in later life examines different aspects of individual aging, including self and identity, cognitive processes and bio-social interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging. Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations. Topics include ageing and development, ageing in a global context, migration and cross-cultural perspectives on grandparenthood. Policy issues covering policy concerns such as long-term care, technology and older people, end-of-life issues, work and retirement and the politics of old age. This will be essential reading for all students, researchers and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe.
