Ethics Of Nature A Map:

Ethics of Nature Angelika Krebs,1999 Is nature s value only instrumental value for human beings or does nature also have intrinsic value Can traditional anthropocentrism be defended or must we move to a new physiocentric moral position This study develops a critical taxonomy or map of thirteen arguments for the conservation of nature It defends the moral intrinsic value of sentient animals but not of nonsentient nature The arguments are phrased in a simple plastic and concise language

The New Nature of Maps J. B. Harley,2002-10-03 In these essays the author draws on ideas in art history literature philosophy and the study of visual culture to subvert the traditional positivist model of cartography and replace it with one grounded in an iconological and semiotic theory of the nature of maps

Nature Ethics Marti Kheel,2008 In Nature Ethics An Ecofeminist Perspective Marti Kheel explores the underlying worldview of nature ethics offering an alternative ecofeminist approach Seeking to heal the divisions between the seemingly disparate movements and philosophies of feminism animal advocacy environmental ethics and holistic health Kheel proposes an ecofeminist philosophy that underscores the importance of empathy and care for individual beings as well as larger wholes

Nature, Space and the Sacred S. Bergmann,H. Bedford-Strohm,2016-12-05 Nature Space and the Sacred offers the first investigative mapping of a new and highly significant agenda the spatial interactions between religion nature and culture In this ground breaking work different concepts of religion theology space and place and their internal relations are discussed in an impressive range of approaches Weaving together a diversity of perspectives this book presents an innovative and truly transdisciplinary environmental science Its broad range offers a rich exchange of insights methods and theoretical engagements

The Human Relationship to Nature Matthew R. Foster,2016-11-02 Growing alarm over the harm done by humans to the natural world and even to the viability of our own industrial civilization compels us to ask the deeper moral question What should be the human relationship to nature Matthew R Foster starts by assessing three contrasting patterns of moral reasoning the Progress Ethic that created the world we live in the biblically inspired Stewardship Ethic and the Connection Ethic based on scientific understanding of the interdependence of all natural entities Critical analysis reveals that none of these ethics is able to sustain the values it advocates due to two unsupportable presumptions that the norms of human morality are commensurate with the natural world and that the value of an entity is an intrinsic property Foster argues that in order for a future environmental ethic to be both logically coherent and environmentally constructive it must start from unconventional notions First because nature will never be commensurate with human moral reasoning non rational resources must be employed despite the risks involved Second value resides in the relationship of one entity to another and does not belong intrinsically to either in short value is foremost a verb rather than a noun Foster proposes a new paradigm attentive to the realm of value relations among all natural entities one which offers mediating opportunities between nature and morality In this new ethic there are no shoulds Rather moral responsibilities to the natural entities around us are elective placing us in an unfamiliar yet potentially liberating network of relationships This book will be of interest to scholars both instructors and students of environmental ethics philosophy religion and intellectual history and all who are concerned about the environmental challenges of our time     Political Mapping of Cyberspace Jeremy Crampton,2019-06-01 This book is about the politics of cyberspace It shows that cyberspace is no mere virtual reality but a rich geography of practices and power relations Using concepts and methods derived from the work of Michel Foucault Jeremy Crampton explores the construction of digital subjectivity web identity and authenticity as well as the nature and consequences of the digital divide between the connected and those abandoned in limbo He demonstrates that it is by processes of mapping that we understand cyberspace and in doing so delineates the critical role maps play in constructing cyberspace as an object of knowledge Maps he argues shape political thinking about cyberspace and he deploys in depth case studies of crime mapping security and geo surveillance to show how we map ourselves onto cyberspace inexorably and indelibly Clearly argued and vigorously written this book offers a powerful reinterpretation of cyberspace politics and contemporary life     Democracy and the Claims of Nature Ben A. Minteer,Bob Pepperman Taylor,2002 In Democracy and the Claims of Nature the leading thinkers in the fields of environmental political and social theory come together to discuss the tensions and sympathies of democratic ideals and environmental values The prominent contributors reflect upon where we stand in our understanding of the relationship between democracy and the claims of nature Democracy and the Claims of Nature bridges the gap between the often competing ideals of the two fields leading to a greater understanding of each for the other     Nature, Value, Duty Christopher J. Preston,Wayne Ouderkirk,2006-11-17 Gifford Lecturer and Templeton Prize winner Holmes Rolston III is widely known as the father of environmental ethics His writings range between natural philosophy and theology and include detailed presentations of an interlocking position that includes aesthetics value theory natural resource policy wilderness advocacy and sustainable development Nature Value and Duty Life on Earth with Holmes Rolston III is a collection of contemporary writings on the work of Holmes Rolston III The authors contributing to this volume are a mixture of senior scholars in environmental ethics and new voices in philosophy and in literature Together they provide an in depth evaluation of many of the topics discussed by Rolston They probe the strengths and weaknesses of his work and suggest valuable correctives Rolston himself in a detailed reply to each of his critics at the end of the volume reveals where some of these criticisms sting him the most and in the process provides one of the most detailed and articulate defenses of his position ever offered     Deep Mapping Lough Boora Sculpture Park Tim Collins,Reiko Goto Collins,2020-04-17 Lough Boora Sculpture Park has been developed on cutaway bogs The work reveals how art can help to rebuild a relationship between people place and non human others There is one more creative impulse an agency that is at the heart of this matter sphagnum peat moss We have collections of moss in glass jars filled with water next to our studio window Sphagnum grows noticeably taller and denser in this artificial environment I cannot believe the strength of such a flimsy thing it can rise above the water as it moves towards the light On any sunny day numerous small bubbles come out from the translucent leaves Tiny insects are swimming in and around the plants Bog lands are not wastelands Raised bogs are as monumental and significant as redwood forests Sphagnum is an extraordinary living thing It is small fragile but at the same time resilient never harmful Always close to water it is absorbent spongy to walk on Softness is the essence of the plant Art can be a response to small things Use your sensibility to listen to the breath of the bog Imagine the sight and sound as the spore capsules explode Feel the energy as the air is filled with an infinity of spores another cycle begins Reiko Goto Collins     Encyclopedia of Ethics Lawrence C. Becker,Charlotte B. Becker,2013-10-18 The editors working with a team of 325 renowned authorities in the field of ethics have revised expanded and updated this classic encyclopedia Along with the addition of 150 new entries all of the original articles have been newly peer reviewed and revised bibliographies have been updated throughout and the overall design of the work has been enhanced for easier access to cross references and other reference features New entries include Cheating Dirty hands Gay ethics Holocaust Journalism Political correctness and many more     Beyond Uncle Tom's Cabin Sylvia Mayer,Monika Mueller,2011-08-05 Ever since feminist scholarship began to reintroduce Harriet Beecher Stowe s writings to the American literary canon in the 1970s critical interest in her work has steadily increased Beyond Uncle Tom s Cabin The Writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe edited by Sylvia Mayer and Monika Mueller shows that during her long writing and publishing career Stowe was a highly prolific writer who targeted diverse audiences dealt with drastically changing economic commercial and cultural contexts and wrote in a diversity of genres     International Index to Periodicals ,1915 An author and subject index to publications in fields of anthropology archaeology and classical studies economics folklore geography history language and literature music philosophy political science religion and theology sociology and theatre arts     Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1920     Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1915 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries     The Voice of Public Theology Ted Peters,2022-11-07 Public theologians are already thundering like prophets at climate change and racial injustice But the gale force winds of natural science blow through society as well The public theologian should be on storm watch     Cumulated Index Medicus ,1990     Nature as Subject Eric Katz,1997 Written by one of the instrumental figures in environmental ethics Nature as Subject traces the development of an ethical policy that is centered not on human beings but on itself Katz applies this idea to contemporary environmental problems introducing themes of justice domination imperialism and the Holocaust This volume will stand as a foundational work for environmental scholars government and industry policy makers activists and students in advanced philosophy and environmental studies courses     Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1919     Nature Noel Castree,2005 Synthesizing complex theories debates and information on nature this text explores the ways in which nature has been studied emphasizing the relationships and differences between diverse branches of geography     Ecological Thought in German Literature and Culture Gabriele Duerbeck,Urte Stobbe,Hubert

Zapf, Evi Zemanek, 2017-10-16 The volume offers a survey of the contribution of German literature and culture to the evolution of ecological thought As the field of ecocritical theory and practice is rapidly expanding towards transnational and global dimensions it seems nevertheless necessary to consider the distinct manifestations of ecological thought in various cultures In this sense the volume demonstrates in twenty six essays from different disciplines how German literature philosophy art and science have contributed in unique ways to the emergence of ecological thought on national and transnational scale The volume maps the most important and characteristic of these developments both on a theoretical and on a textual analytical level It is structured in five parts ranging from proto ecological thought since early modern times part I to major theoretical approaches part II environmental history part III and ecocritical case studies part IV to ecological visions in different media and art forms part V The four editors have widely published and are actively involved in ecocritical literary and cultural studies The group of editors consists of two scholars of German literature and cultural studies Gabriele Duerbeck and Urte Stobbe both University of Vechta a scholar in German and comparative literature Evi Zemanek University of Freiburg as well as a scholar of Anglo American ecoliterature and ecocriticism Hubert Zapf All of them are involved in various projects and research networks on ecology and literature The contributors of the individual chapters likewise are all experts in their respective fields ranging from German literature history environmental studies art history music and art The book is a unique and readily accessible collection of essays that is of relevance not only for a German and continental European but for a worldwide audience
