Ethics Of Peace And War From State Security To World Community:

The Ethics of Peace and War Iain Attack, 2005 The ethics of peace and war is one of the central ethical issues in International Relations today This book looks at three key theories which have implications for the role of ethics in war and armed conflict cosmopolitanism internationalism and political realism It argues for the appropriateness of cosmopolitanism above the other two general theories with its emphasis on the equal worth of all human beings as the basis for a global moral community This ethical theory is shown to have a vital role to play in international politics in light of changing conceptions of peace and security the prevalence of internal over international wars and the increasing emphasis on international humanitarian intervention as a justification for the use of military force The book is divided into three parts after a general introduction to peace and war in world ethics there follow sections on International Politics and the Morality of Peace and War Ethical Approaches to Armed Conflict and Cosmopolitan Strategies A conclusion sums up the arguments This is a topical book suitable for a range of courses in Philosophy Politics Peace Studies and International Relations Key Features Evaluates the relevance of the theory of cosmopolitanism to the specific problems of war and armed conflict Examines two contrasting positions on the ethics of war and armed conflict pacifism and just war theory Analyses contemporary issues and debates including postmodern and asymmetrical war and peace building and conflict prevention A central theme is the ambiguous role of the state in controlling and justifying the use of military force and in constructing a new cosmopolitan world order

War, Peace and Reconciliation Weber Theodore R, 2016-10-27 War Peace and Reconciliation invites Christians and their churches into a dialogue regarding how to think about war from a standpoint rooted in faith It asks how reconciliation which is central to Christian life and doctrine can engage with the realities of war without surrendering its fundamental affirmations Theodore Weber defines these realities politically by discussing the meanings of power peace as a particular organisation of power and the international system The study of war and politics is unavoidable as is engagement with reconciliation because all human activity exists in the context of the gracious work of God to renew and reconcile the fallen creation Weber's inquiry is theocentric and christocentric It culminates in a stirring call to churches to examine all their practices in the light of this perspective

Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition

The Morality of Defensive War Cécile Fabre, Seth Lazar, 2014-02-20 Most of us take it for granted that wars in defence of one's political community are the quintessential just wars Indeed while in recent years philosophers have subjected all of our other assumptions about just war theory to radical revision this principle has emerged largely unscathed But what underpins the morality of defensive war In this book leading moral and political philosophers both show the profoundly challenging nature of that question and advance novel answers to it The first part exposes the deep tension between the individualist foundations of much contemporary philosophy and plausible conclusions about the morality of defensive war The second part offers an individualist attempt to resolve that tension while the third seeks to justify defensive war by appeal to more collectivist values

The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing Ben Bradford, Beatrice Jauregui, Ian Loader, Jonny Steinberg, 2016-07-14 The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing examines and critically retraces the field of policing studies by posing and exploring a series of fundamental questions to do with the concept and institutions of policing and their relation to social and political life in today's globalized world The volume is structured in the following four parts Part One Lenses Part Two Social and Political Order Part Three Legacies Part Four Problems and Problematics By bringing new lines of vision and new voices to the social analysis of policing and by clearly demonstrating why policing matters the Handbook will be an essential tool for anyone in the field

The UN Secretary-General and Moral Authority Kent J. Kille, 2007-10-29 Once described by Trygve Lie as the most impossible job on earth the position of UN Secretary General is as frustratingly constrained as it is prestigious The Secretary General's ability to influence global affairs often depends on how the international community regards his moral authority In relation to such moral authority past office holders have drawn on their own ethics and religious backgrounds as diverse as Lutheranism Catholicism Buddhism and Coptic Christianity to guide the role that they played in addressing the UN's goals in the international arena such as the maintenance of international peace and security and the promotion of human rights In The UN Secretary General and Moral Authority contributors provide case studies of all seven former secretaries general establishing a much needed comparative survey of each office holder's personal religious and moral values. From Trygve Lie's forbearance during the UN's turbulent formative years to the Nobel committee's awarding Kofi Annan and the United Nations the prize for peace in 2001, the case studies all follow the same format: first detailing the environmental and experiential factors that forged these men's ethical frameworks, then analyzing how their inner code engaged with the duties of office and the global events particular to their terms. Balanced and unbiased in its approach, this study provides valuable insight into how religious and moral leadership functions in the realm of international relations and how the promotion of ethical values works to diffuse international tensions and improve the quality of human life around the world.

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2,300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise. Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science, sociology, history, and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies, peace studies, and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect. Among the topics included are key conventions, international treaties and covenants, genocide, early warning signals, and forecasting risk, data bases, sanctions, peacekeeping missions, conflict resolution, the International Criminal Court, realpolitik, vis-à-vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention, key non-governmental agencies, key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues. In addition to the annotations, Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide, raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths, weaknesses, and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts.

Serve and Protect Tobias Winright, 2020-11-13 This collection of essays on policing and the use of force, while written over the course of the last twenty-five years, remains relevant and timely. Although issues in policing and questions about excessive force and brutality have been addressed by criminologists, sociologists, philosophers, and criminal justice ethicists, only a handful of theological ethicists treat this pressing matter. While the Christian moral tradition has a voluminous record of theological attention to violence and nonviolence, war and peace, there is a dearth of references to policing. And most considerations of criminal justice issues by Christians and their churches concentrate on prison reform or abolition and the death penalty, but not policing. These essays, authored by a theological ethicist possessing professional experience in law enforcement, seek to fill this curious gap. They offer a framework for moral reasoning concerning the justification for police use of force and the just application of such force, and they propose just policing as a model that is consonant with promoting a just peace in communities and society. In addition, they explore the implications of such an approach for wider international questions about just war, terrorism, the responsibility to protect, and post-war justice.

J.M. Coetzee and the Limits of Cosmopolitanism K.

Hallemeier,2013-11-07 Drawing on postcolonial and gender studies as well as affect theory the book interrogates cosmopolitan philosophies Through analysis of J M Coetzee s later fiction Hallemeier invites the re imagining of cosmopolitanism particularly as it is performed through the reading of literature

Religion, Conflict and Military Intervention Rosemary Durward,2016-04-08 For many years religion has been the neglected component of international relations and yet in an age of globalization and terrorism religious identity has become increasingly important in the lives of people in the West as well as the developing world The secularization thesis has been overtaken by an increased desire to understand how religious actors contribute to both conflict and the resolution of conflict This volume brings an exciting new perspective with fresh ideas and analyses of the events shaping conflict and conflict resolution today The book uniquely combines chapters highlighting Christian and Islamist theological approaches to understanding and interpreting conflict as well as case studies on the role of religion in US foreign policy and the Iraq war with religious perspectives on building peace once conflicts are resolved The volume provides an ideal starting point for anyone wishing to gain a deeper understanding of the religious character of conflict in the twenty first century and how such conflict could be resolved

Understanding Peace Michael Allen Fox,2013-11-12 Understanding Peace A Comprehensive Introduction fills the need for an original contemporary examination of peace that is challenging informative and empowering This well researched fully documented and highly accessible textbook moves beyond fixation on war to highlight the human capacity for nonviolent cooperation in everyday life and in conflict situations After deconstructing numerous ideas about war and explaining its heavy costs to humans animals and the environment discussion turns to evidence for the existence of peaceful societies Further topics include the role of nonviolence in history the nature of violence and aggression and the theory and practice of nonviolence The book offers two new moral arguments against war and concludes by defining peace carefully from different angles and then describing conditions for creating a culture of peace Understanding Peace brings a fresh philosophical perspective to discussions of peace and also addresses down to earth issues about effecting constructive change in a complex world The particular strength of Understanding Peace lies in its commitment to reflecting on and integrating material from many fields of knowledge This approach will appeal to a diverse audience of students and scholars in peace studies philosophy and the social sciences as well as to general interest readers

EU Missions and Peacebuilding Vladimir Kmec,2021-12-24 This book analyses the European Union s EU approach to peacebuilding in its Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP missions and explores how this approach impacts the EU s role in international conflict management Peacebuilding carried out through CSDP instruments has become central to the self conception of the EU as an actor in international conflict management EU missions and operations have for the most part been deployed to promote peacebuilding efforts in post conflict situations in particular through capacity building reforms and rebuilding of state structures This book focuses explicitly on the peacebuilding dimension of the CSDP while exploring why and how the EU has adopted peacebuilding in its

CSDP actions as a norm and a practice It analyses how peacebuilding in EU missions is conceptualised designed governed and implemented The book examines the extent to which EU missions and operations reflect a normative and practical commitment of the EU to peacebuilding that is to say the extent to which CSDP instruments have been shaped by international peacebuilding norms and EU foreign policy Drawing on empirical insights from decision and policymaking processes in Brussels as well as from missions in Mali and in Bosnia and Herzegovina this book offers critical perspectives on the EU's role as an international peacebuilding actor This book will be of much interest to students of European security EU policy peace and conflict studies security studies and international relations

Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II James Ciment, 2015-03-27 Thoroughly revised to include 25 conflicts not covered in the previous edition as well as expanded and updated information on previous coverage this illustrated reference presents descriptions and analyses of more than 170 significant post World War II conflicts around the globe Organized by region for ease of access Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II Second Edition provides clear in depth explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Including more than 180 detailed maps and 150 photos the set highlights the conflicts that dominate today's headlines and the events that changed the course of late twentieth century history

Modern Just War Theory Michael P. Farrell, 2013-06-20 Contributions to Illuminations A Scarecrow Press Series of Guides to Research in Religion provide students and scholars lay readers and clergy with a road map to research in key areas of religious study All commonly constructed with introductions to the topic and reviews of key thinkers concepts and events each volume includes surveys of the primary and secondary sources with critical evaluations of their places in the canon of thought and research on the topic Focusing primarily on the knowledge required by today's students and scholars each guide is a must have for any student of religion The twentieth century saw an explosion of wars and an accompanying explosion of literature on the morality of war Thinking among Christian clerics and scholars on the idea of just war shifted with developments on the battlefield Alternatives to just war theory such as pacifism and realism found new proponents in the published work of the neo Anabaptists and Niebhurians Meanwhile proponents of Christian just war theory had to address challenges from competing ideologies as well as those presented by the changing nature of warfare Modern Just War Theory A Guide to Research by scholar and librarian Michael Farrell serves as a manual for students and scholars studying Christian just war theory helping them navigate the wealth of just war literature produced in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Farrell's guide provides an introduction to the major developments of just war theory in the twentieth century including sections on how to research just war theory an overview of some of the most important theorists and developments of the twentieth century and discussions of key search terms and related topics Farrell then surveys and evaluates key primary and secondary sources for researchers on just war theory as well as related sources on Christian realism and the responses of just war theorists to proponents of pacifism and secular just war theories Modern Just War Theory will appeal to students and scholars of theology military history international law and Christian ethics      International Political Psychology Anna Cornelia Beyer, 2016-11-16 This book intends to harvest insights from the discipline of Psychology in its broad understanding for application to International Relations Although Psychology offers an abundance of theories that are useful for this purpose they have so far remained largely untapped In chapters on conflict hegemony terrorism mental health global consciousness and peace proposals Byer provides a synthesis of these two complimentary disciplines This innovative volume presents the first contribution to the new discipline of International Political Psychology      Cosmopolitan War Cécile Fabre, 2012-09-27 War is about individuals maiming and killing each other and yet it seems that it is also irreducibly collective as it is fought by groups of people and more often than not for the sake of communal values such as territorial integrity and national self determination Cécile Fabre articulates and defends an ethical account of war in which the individual as a moral and rational agent is the fundamental focus for concern and respect both as a combatant whose acts of killing need justifying and as a non combatant whose suffering also needs justifying She takes as her starting point a political morality to which the individual rather than the nation state is central namely cosmopolitanism According to cosmopolitanism individuals all matter equally irrespective of their membership in this or that political community Traditional war ethics already accepts this principle since it holds that unarmed civilians are illegitimate targets even though they belong to the enemy community However although the traditional account of whom we may kill in wars is broadly faithful to that principle the traditional account of why we may kill and of who may kill is not Cosmopolitan theorists for their part do not address the ethical issues raised by war in any depth Fabre's Cosmopolitan War seeks to fill this gap and defends its account of just and unjust wars by addressing the ethics of different kinds of war wars of national defence wars over scarce resources civil wars humanitarian intervention wars involving private military forces and asymmetrical wars      Human Rights Responsibilities in the Digital Age Jonathan Andrew, Frédéric Bernard, 2021-08-26 This book examines the tangled responsibilities of states companies and individuals surrounding human rights in the digital age Digital technologies have a huge impact for better and worse on human lives while they can clearly enhance some human rights they also facilitate a wide range of violations States are expected to implement efficient measures against powerful private companies but at the same time they are drawn to technologies that extend their own control over citizens Tech companies are increasingly asked to prevent violations committed online by their users yet many of their business models depend on the accumulation and exploitation of users personal data While civil society has a crucial part to play in upholding human rights it is also the case that individuals harm other individuals online All three stakeholders need to ensure that technology does not provoke the disintegration of human rights Bringing together experts from a range of disciplines including law international relations and journalism this book provides a detailed analysis of the impact of digital technologies on human rights which will be of interest to academics research students and professionals concerned by this issue      Building Sustainable Futures Luc Reychler, Julianne Funk

Deckard, Kevin HR Villanueva, 2009-01-01 The overall theme of the 2008 IPRA Global Conference focuses on the interaction between economic development environmental change conflict prevention and peacebuilding efforts in the 21st century The challenge is to re search new futures This collaborative book project ultimately reflects the constant evolution of Peace Studies as it is reflected in its expanding areas of research and the institutional structures which provide the vertebrae so that the former can develop with greater depth continuity and sustainability This is the reason why HumanitarianNet has teamed up with IPRA to produce this collection of articles     Peace and Security in Indo-Pacific Asia Sorpong Peou, 2021-11-21 Peace and Security in Indo Pacific Asia is for the informed the interested and the engaged Sorpong Peou brings together the skills of the pedagogue with the knowledge of the scholar Dr David Dewitt University Professor Emeritus Senior Scholar York University Toronto Canada Peou s excellent book provides both the lay reader and the specialist with six important theoretical frameworks which should provide the basis for better appreciation of what a security community in Indo Pacific Asia means in our world today There are very few scholars who understand the region like Peou Dr W Andy Knight Professor of Political Science the University of Alberta Canada Sorpong Peou s extraordinary breadth of knowledge of both International Relations theory and the key trends in Indo Pacific Asia shines through in this authoritative analysis Dr Richard Stubbs Professor of Political Science McMaster University Canada A pedagogical approach of the textbook that is appreciated is how the author respectfully engages with the theories of IR and is not pushing an agenda of denouncing some theories and trying to persuade the reader of others We live in such polarizing times that it is truly refreshing to read scholarly work that avoids sensationalistic attacks on theories that have been debated for decades Each theory in this manuscript is explored on its own terms and the reader is encouraged to figure out where they stand on these enduring debates in the context of Indo Pacific security The approach will lead to compelling classroom discussions of the theories and the politics of the region This book is a must read for any student or observer of security trends in the region Dr Mark Williams Chair and Professor of Political Studies Vancouver Island University B C Canada     Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A.
