Julia Kristeva and Literary Theory Megan Becker-Leckrone, 2017-09-16 Engaged debate among feminist political and psychoanalytic thinkers has secured Julia Kristeva's status as one of the most formidable figures in twentieth century critical theory Nevertheless her precise relevance to the study of literature the extent to which her theory is specifically a literary theory can be hard for new readers to fathom This approachable volume explores Kristeva's definition of literature her methods for analyzing it and the theoretical ground on which those endeavors are based Megan Becker Leckrone argues that Kristeva's signature concepts such as abjection and intertextuality lose much of their force when readers extract them from the specific complex theoretical context in which Kristeva produces them Early chapters situate her theory in a broader conversation with Roland Barthes Sigmund Freud Jacques Lacan and others around the issues of reading textuality and subjectivity Subsequent chapters look at Kristeva's actual engagements with literary texts specifically her challenging highly performative reading of French novelist Louis Ferdinand Celine in Powers of Horror An Essay on Abjection and her career long preoccupation with James Joyce A final chapter of the book looks at the way contemporary literary critics have marshaled her ideas in re-reading the poetry of William Wordsworth while a helpful glossary identifies Kristeva's most pertinently literary theoretical concepts by way of synopses of the texts in which she presents them emerged as a theorist Kristeva has defended the project of the European avant gardes and has systematically attempted to reclaim their legacy in the new societal structures produced by a global spectacle dominated capitalism Understanding Kristeva Understanding Modernism brings together essays that take up the threads in Kristeva s analyses of the avant garde offering an appreciation of her overall contribution the intellectual and political horizon within which she has produced her seminal works as well as of the blind spots that need to be acknowledged in any contemporary examination of her insights As with other volumes in this series this volume is structured in three parts The first part provides new readings of key texts or central aspects in Kristeva s oeuvre The second part takes up the task of showing the impact of Kristeva s thought on the appreciation of modernist concerns and strategies in a variety of fields literature philosophy the visual arts and dance The third part is a glossary of some of Kristeva s key terms with each entry written by an expert contributor Julia Kristeva and Feminist Thought Birgit Schippers,2011-04-15 This book appraises the relationship between contemporary feminism and Julia Kristeva a major figure in Continental thought It addresses the conflicting range of feminist responses to Kristeva s key ideas and Kristeva s equally conflicting as well as ambiguous position vis a vis feminism Schippers argues that this complex relationship can only be understood by positioning Kristeva along the fissures and fault lines which run through feminism By attending to feminism s internal debates and disputes and addressing the philosophical commitments and attachments held by Kristeva s critics the book clarifies the diverse Kristeva reception within feminism and illuminates how her ideas trouble contemporary feminist thought And despite Kristeva s fundamental ambiguity towards all matters feminist Schippers makes a case for Kristeva s important contribution to a feminist project which is sympathetic towards her account of fluid subjectivity and her critique of identity politics In doing so the author advances the scholarly understanding of Kristeva and of contemporary feminist thought Writing Postcolonial France Fiona Barclay,2011-09-16 This book examines the way in which France has failed to come to terms with the end of its empire and is now haunted by the legacy of its colonial relationship with North Africa It examines the form assumed by the ghosts of the past in fiction from a range of genres travel writing detective fiction life writing historical fiction women s writing produced within metropolitan France and assesses whether moments of haunting may in fact open up possibilities for a renewed relational structure of cultural memory By viewing metropolitan France through the prism of its relationship with its former colonies in North Africa the book maps the complexities of contemporary France demonstrating an emerging postcoloniality within France itself

Literary Polemics Suzanne Guerlac,2000-02-01 During the 1960 s and 1970 s the eruption of theory was presented as an epistemic break reorganizing the field of questioning both prospectively and retrospectively In the forefront of this new movement was the influential journal Tel Quel which both canonized a body of preferred avant garde texts both literary and theoretical and nullified prominent figures from preceding generations In a broad remapping of French modernism this book shows how the milieu of Tel Quel transferred myths of the powers of literature inherited from Bataille Sartre Val ry and

Breton to theory in the process erasing the traces of these myths and their common ground The author analyzes cultural and theoretical positions pure art automatism engagement and transgression that structured the literary and critical field from the 1920 s to the 1950 s to show their strong impact on the formulation and elaboration of theoretical issues in more recent decades Focusing on the question of relations between poetry and action she reexamines these positions and uncovers proximities between them that significantly displace theoretical issues These proximities emerge when a philosophical subtext of Bergson antiphilosopher and nondialectical thinker is revealed to operate alongside the more obvious subtext of Hegel The discourse of Bergson shifts the category of action central to these literary polemics and revalues the visual register suggesting a reconsideration of Surrealism The book concludes by examining the ideological pressures associated with the eclipse of the discourse of Bergson as well as some of the effects of this erasure on our understanding of the modern as distinct from the postmodern

Philosophy and the Maternal Body Michelle Boulous Walker,2002-01-22 Philosophy and the Maternal Body gives a new voice to the mother and the maternal body which have often been viewed as silent within philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker clearly shows how some male theorists have appropriated maternity and suggests new ways of articulating the maternal body and women s experience of pregnancy and motherhood Toward a Politics of The (Im)Possible Anirban Das,2012-10 This book works at the intersection of two related yet different fields One is the heterogeneous feminist effort to question universal forms of knowing The second field follows from this conundrum how does one think of the body when s he speaks of embodiment Toward a Politics of the Im Possible engages the forefront of contemporary thought on the body while remaining mindful of the requirements of a feminist approach

Writing Size Zero Isabelle Meuret,2007 Like hysteria anorexia is a fin de si cle pathology which fascinates and has reached epidemic proportions at the turn of the millennium Parallel to the development of the phenomenon an important body of experiential texts has revealed its presence in various parts of the world While the medical discourse is still struggling with this conundrum literature gives way to different interpretations by revealing the interconnectedness between writing and starving Both signifying practices are experiences of the limit where fluxes of particles food words are in constant interaction Unlike most contemporary readings of anorexia this book offers an original insight into the creative process inherent to the pathology which the author calls Writing Size Zero Body of writing and writing of the body as found in western and post colonial texts delineate an in between space producing new epistemologies Through a close reading of the semiotics of self starvation the author debunks the myth of anorexia as a mental disease of the West and insists on the variety of expressions and figurations inherent to the pathology By providing a meaning to self starvation writing gives anorexia its ethics

Literature, theology and feminism Heather Walton,2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women s literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women s writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology

Language and Liberation Professor Kelly Oliver,1999-01-01 Gathers authors with different backgrounds and methods to advance feminist discussions of the relation between language and women s oppression suggesting promising new directions for further research

Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski,2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir s work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French
