Not By a Long Shot T.D. Thornton, 2007-08-05 The great myth of horse racing is that the game is the regal and royal Sport of Kings It isn't Not by a long shot Anyone who doubts this need look no further than Suffolk Downs a once proud racecourse graced in its glory years by boisterous throngs and champions such as Seabiscuit Now the blue collar East Boston track is one of many that have fallen on hard times These days Sufferin Downs is where grizzled Thoroughbreds come to end their careers hopeful young jockeys aspire against daunting odds to begin them and diehard fans cheer curse and gamble on the entire fascinating spectacle These bit players are not just cogs of a single struggling horse track They are the unseen supporting cast for a 15 billion betting industry In fifteen years as a racing reporter and press box personality T D Thornton gained access to remote corners of racetrack life off limits to the general public He got to know the raucously Runyonesque characters and the quirky personalities of the horses he learned the tricks of the trade from trainers owners and jockeys he witnessed the tragedies and small triumphs of racing lives lived below the radar One recent season he finally decided to write it all down Not by a Long Shot is a deeply textured portrait of an industry where even the best in the business lose 75 percent of the time Ethnic Nationalism and Democratic Consolidation Jonah I. Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies A World of Regions Peter J. Katzenstein, 2015-11-16 Observing the dramatic shift in world politics since the end of the Cold War Peter J Katzenstein argues that regions have become critical to contemporary world politics This view is in stark contrast to those who focus on the purportedly stubborn persistence of the nation state or the inevitable march of globalization In detailed studies of technology and foreign investment domestic and international security and cultural diplomacy and popular culture Katzenstein examines the changing regional dynamics of Europe and Asia which are linked to the United States through Germany and Japan Regions Katzenstein contends are interacting closely with an American imperium that combines territorial and non territorial powers Katzenstein argues that globalization and internationalization create open or porous regions Regions may provide solutions to the contradictions between states and markets security and insecurity nationalism and cosmopolitanism Embedded in the American imperium regions are now central to world politics Making the Body

Beautiful Sander L. Gilman, 2021-12-07 Nose reconstructions have been common in India for centuries South Korea Brazil and Israel have become international centers for procedures ranging from eyelid restructuring to buttock lifts and tummy tucks Argentina has the highest rate of silicone implants in the world Around the globe aesthetic surgery has become a cultural and medical fixture Sander Gilman seeks to explain why by presenting the first systematic world history and cultural theory of aesthetic surgery Touching on subjects as diverse as getting a nose job as a sweet sixteen birthday present and the removal of male breasts in seventh century Alexandria Gilman argues that aesthetic surgery has such universal appeal because it helps people to pass to be seen as a member of a group with which they want to or need to identify Gilman begins by addressing basic questions about the history of aesthetic surgery What surgical procedures have been performed Which are considered aesthetic and why Who are the patients What is the place of aesthetic surgery in modern culture He then turns his attention to that focus of countless human anxieties the nose Gilman discusses how people have reshaped their noses to repair the ravages of war and disease principally syphilis to match prevailing ideas of beauty and to avoid association with negative images of the Jew the Irish the Oriental or the Black He examines how we have used aesthetic surgery on almost every conceivable part of the body to try to pass as younger stronger thinner and more erotic Gilman also explores some of the extremes of surgery as personal transformation discussing transgender surgery adult circumcision and foreskin restoration the enhancement of dueling scars and even a performance artist who had herself altered to resemble the Mona Lisa The book draws on an extraordinary range of sources Gilman is as comfortable discussing Nietzsche Yeats and Darwin as he is grisly medical details Michael Jackson and Barbra Streisand's decision to keep her own nose The book contains dozens of arresting images of people before during and after surgery This is a profound provocative and engaging study of how humans have sought to change their lives by transforming their bodies Cumulated Index Medicus, 1984
