Ethnic Preference And Public Policy In Developing States:

Ethnic Preference and Public Policy in Developing States Neil Nevitte, Charles Henry Kennedy, 1986 Ethnic Diversity and Public Policy C. Young, 2016-07-27 In recent years the saliency of conflicts pitting different ethnic racial and religious groups against one another has increased dramatically The world of nation states is much more diverse than previously realized only a small number of the 185 independent countries are truly homogeneous With the end of the cold war the relative importance of ethnic conflicts as a threat to international peace and stability is far greater An international set of scholars collaborate in this volume to explore policy alternatives which can contribute towards the accommodation of cultural diversity Issues In Public Policy And Administration In Malaysia: An Institutional Analysis Abdillah Noh, Nadia H Yashaiya, 2022-03-23 This book argues that there is nothing inherently stable persistent or enduring about institutions By examining the various issues facing the Malaysian bureaucracy and adopting an institutional analysis this book brings the point that institutions are disposed to change because they are fraught with tension due to the quality of institutions Using various examples it explains that such tension and change dynamics can come from institutional resources the manner in which resources are distributed to different actors the varying power configurations among institutional actors and the larger political economic and social environment that institutions operate in Accordingly in examining the various concerns of the Malaysian bureaucracy this book highlights the typologies of institutional change and the inherent tension over resources that exist among actors that makes reform attempts at times potentially problematic but not impossible New concerns in public policy and governance that are yet to be discussed widely in the Malaysian public administration literature are raised including issues on collaborative governance public service motivation and representative bureaucracy The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dibia, 2001 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations The Thomas Sowell Reader Thomas Sowell, 2011-10-04 These selections from the many writings of Thomas Sowell over a period of a half century cover social economic cultural legal educational and political issues The sources range from Dr Sowell's letters books newspaper columns and articles in both scholarly journals and popular magazines The topics range from late talking children to tax cuts for the rich baseball race war the role of judges medical care and the rhetoric of politicians These topics are dealt with by sometimes drawing on history sometimes drawing on economics and sometimes drawing on a sense of humour Affirmative Action, Ethnicity and Conflict

Edmund Terence Gomez, Ralph Premdas, In recent years a number of countries have introduced affirmative action programmes in order to put right historical injustices and economic inequalities involving ethnic communities This book examines affirmative action programmes in a range of countries around the world It discusses how such programmes came about and how they have been implemented and examines their effectiveness Throughout it explores how far affirmative action programmes reinforce ethnic identities and thereby contribute to division and conflict The countries covered are India the United States South Africa Northern Ireland Brazil Malaysia and Fiji Affirmative Action Around the World Thomas Sowell, 2004-01-01 The Constitution of Empire offers a constitutional and historical survey of American territorial expansion from the founding era to the present day The authors describe the Constitution's design for territorial acquisition and governance and examine the ways in which practice over the past two hundred years has diverged from that original vision Noting that most of America's territorial acquisitions including the Louisiana Purchase the Alaska Purchase and the territory acquired after the Mexican American and Spanish American Wars resulted from treaties the authors elaborate a Jeffersonian based theory of the federal treaty power and assess American territorial acquisitions from this perspective They find that at least one American acquisition of territory and many of the basic institutions of territorial governance have no constitutional foundation and they explore the often strange paths that constitutional law has travelled to permit such deviations from the Constitution's original meaning Pluralism in "old Societies and New States" Aryn B. Sajoo, 1994 This study examines the basis of pluralism within Islam ASEAN's largest single socio cultural milieu It also assesses the professed and actual extent to which pluralism has been engaged in Muslim majority Indonesia and Malaysia An overview of pluralist trends and prospects within ASEAN against prevailing transitions in East Asia is also presented Friends of the Court Ian Brodie, 2012-02-01 In the first book length study of interest group litigation in Canada Friends of the Court traces the Canadian Supreme Court's ever changing relationship with interest groups since the 1970s After explaining how the Court was pressured to welcome more interest groups in the late 1980s Brodie introduces a new theory of political status describing how the Court privileges certain groups over others By uncovering the role of the state in encouraging and facilitating litigation this book challenges the idea that interest group litigation in Canada is a grassroots phenomenon Conflict Resolution in Africa Francis M. Deng, I. William Zartman, 2011-07-01 While dramatic changes are taking place on the international scene and among the major powers Africa continues to suffer from a multitude of violent conflicts The toll of these conflicts is monumental in terms of war damage to productivity scarce resources diverted to armaments and military organizations and the resulting insecurity displacement and destruction At the same time Africans in response to internal demands as well as to international changes have begun to focus their attention and energies on these problems and are trying innovative ways to resolve differences by nonviolent means The outcomes of these attempts have urgent and complex implications for the future of the continent with respect to human rights principles of democracy and economic development In this book African European and U S experts examine these important issues and the prospects for conflict management and resolution in Africa They review the scholarship in resolution in light of international changes now taking place Addressing the undying internal causes of conflict they question whether global events will promote peace or threaten to unleash even more conflict The authors focus their analysis on the issues involved in African conflicts and examine the areas in need of the most dramatic changes They offer specific recommendations for dealing with current problems but caution that unless policymakers confront the security situation in Africa further destruction to national unity and political and economic stability is imminent Case studies and themes for further long term research are recommended

The State and Ethnic Politics in SouthEast Asia David Brown,2003-09-02 Ethnic tensions in Southeast Asia represent a clear threat to the future stability of the region David Brown s clear and systematic study outlines the patterns of ethnic politics in Burma Singapore Indonesia Malaysia Thailand The study considers the influence of the State on the formation of ethnic groups and investigates why some countries are more successful in managing their ethnic politics than others

The Weaknesses in the International Protection of Minority Rights Javaid Rehman,2021-10-05 The issue of minority rights continues to occupy a sensitive position in international law Historical as well as contemporary events show that the subject is also capable of engulfing the international community as a whole The contention of the present study is that international law is in itself a difficult medium for providing adequate rights for minorities and for effectively safeguarding those rights This volume analyses the weaknesses in the international protection of minority rights through a detailed examination of the practices and policies of Pakistan Thought provoking and original in its approach this volume will prove to be of enormous value to international human rights lawyers and to scholars engaged in the study of minority rights in South Asia and Pakistan

Public Enterprise at the Crossroads John Heath,2013-01-11 In many parts of the world public enterprise is in crisis Privatisation programmes are being widely touted as the solution to many of the problems of inefficiency and slow rates of growth associated with public enterprise This book discusses the underlying causes of those problems and critically examines some of the solutions that have been adopted Its geographical coverage is wide and it cuts across the political spectrum The experiences of countries in four continents are analysed in an attempt to shed light on current dilemmas Recurrent patterns are found problems are frequently seen to be political as much as economic and bureaucracy and administrative confusion is often found to be at the heart of poor financial performance Yet since political aims economic environment and administrative and managerial capabilities vary so widely universal solutions remain more difficult to define than universal problems

Sri Lanka and the Defeat of the LTTE K M de Silva,2012-10-01 In this comprehensive and authoritative study of terrorism in Sri Lanka K M de Silva turns the spotlight on the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam LTTE and its role in Sri Lanka s upheavals over the last few decades While tracing the emergence of this separatist group and the events that led to its recent collapse de Silva also seeks to explore the complex relationship between the so called moderates in Sri Lankan

Tamil politics and the Tamil terrorist groups What emerges is a layered portrait of the dynamics of Sri Lanka's political system Extensively researched and loaded with perceptive insights Sri Lanka and the Defeat of the LTTE is the most wide ranging analysis so far on the LTTE and its violent legacy Migrations And Cultures Thomas Sowell,2025-04-01 Most commentators look at the issue of immigration from the viewpoint of immediate politics In doing so they focus on only a piece of the issue and lose touch with the larger picture Now Thomas Sowell offers a sweeping historical and global look at a large number of migrations over a long period of time Migrations and Cultures shows the persistence of cultural traits in particular racial and ethnic groups and the role these groups' relocations play in redistributing skills knowledge and other forms of human capital answers the question What are the effects of disseminating the patterns of the particular set of skills attitudes and lifestyles each ethnic group has carried forth both for the immigrants and for the host countries in social as well as economic terms

Federalism in South Asia Mahendra Prasad Singh, Veena Kukreja,2014-08-07 This book is one of the first in depth and systematic studies on the functioning and aspiring federations of South Asia It examines how federal dynamics in India Pakistan Nepal and Sri Lanka are impinged on by the nature of their specific constitutions their societal political and cultural fabrics composition of power elites and ruling classes structures of political economy and market electoral and party systems mass media and information technology The authors offer a comparative analytical conceptual and theoretical framework to understand patterns and trends as also experiences of and possibilities for federalism in South Asia They highlight divergences and similarities successes and key challenges while indicating federalism's wider regional relevance in the discourse on democracy and governance The book concludes that the multicultural character of these societies beset with ethnic and regional conflicts separatist and military undercurrents makes federal political solutions the only viable route Providing a wealth of material this will deeply interest scholars students and teachers of comparative politics political science federal studies area studies as well as those interested in political structures and processes in South Asia

Rising India and Indian Communities in East Asia K Kesavapany, A Mani, P Ramasamy,2008 This edited volume containing thirty five chapters focuses on three main contemporary issues the phenomenon of new Indians in the past five decades the impact of rising India on settled Indian communities and the recent migrants By examining these interrelated aspects this study seeks to address questions like what does Rising India mean to Indian communities in East Asia How are members of Indian communities responding to India's rise Will India pay greater attention to people of

Nationalism, Ethnicity, and Identity Russell F. A Democratic South Africa? Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-04-28 A Democratic South Africa Constitutional Engineering in a Divided Society explores the formidable challenges of building a democratic system in a society as racially and ethnically divided as South Africa The book underscores the complexity of crafting institutions and processes that can foster inclusivity and stability in a deeply polarized setting South Africa's history of apartheid has left a legacy of distrust and ideological division with extreme political forces at both ends of the spectrum threatening the democratic experiment The author addresses critical questions of constitutional design minority rights protection and electoral systems emphasizing the necessity of innovative solutions to counter conflict and promote intergroup cooperation The study situates South Africa's democratization within a broader comparative context highlighting its potential as a case study for other divided societies It examines how democratic processes can transform relationships among political actors even in unpromising conditions By focusing on the interplay between constitutional processes and institutional design the book offers insights into how participation negotiation and decision making shape democratic outcomes Ultimately it presents South Africa as a quintessential challenge to democratic conflict management where success could provide valuable lessons for fostering democracy in similarly fragmented contexts This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991
