P. W. Gathercole, David Lowenthal

Ethnology Of Easter Island:

Ethnology of Easter Island Alfred Métraux, 1940 Easter Island Alfred Métraux, 1971 Ethnology of Easter Island Alfred Métraux (ethnologue.), 1940 Notes on the Archeology and Ethnology of Easter Island Walter Hough, 1889

Rongorongo Steven R. Fischer, 1997 Rongorongo Easter Island's enigmatic script and Oceania's only known pre twentieth century writing system is here comprehensively documented for the first time The author tells the full history of rongorongo's exciting discovery and the many attempts at a decipherment Pre missionary traditions surrounding rongorongo are described from previously unpublished material Full transcriptions of all the 25 surviving rongorongo inscriptions are provided along with detailed photographs of nearly every incised artefact In over six years of full time research that took the author from St Petersburg to Easter Island a wholly new picture of the rongorongo phenomenon has emerged This book is the definitive study of one of the world's most fascinating and eloquent graphic achievements Easter Island's Silent Sentinels Kenneth Treister, Vargas Casanova Vargas, Claudio Cristino Ferrando, 2013-11-15 This richly illustrated book of the history culture and art of Easter Island is the first to examine in detail the island's vernacular architecture often overshadowed by its giant stone statues Ethnology of Easter Islands Alfred Métraux, 1971 Refocusing Ethnographic Museums through Oceanic Lenses Philipp Schorch, 2020-04-30 Refocusing Ethnographic Museums through Oceanic Lenses offers a collaborative ethnographic investigation of Indigenous museum practices in three Pacific museums located at the corners of the so called Polynesian triangle Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum Hawai'i Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa and Museo Antropológico Padre Sebastián Englert Rapa Nui Since their inception ethnographic museums have influenced academic and public imaginations of other cultural geographic regions and the often resulting Euro American projection of anthropological imaginations has come under intense pressure as seen in recent debates and conflicts around the Humboldt Forum in Berlin Germany At the same time post colonial renegotiations in former European and American colonies have initiated dramatic changes to anthropological approaches through Indigenous museum practices This book shapes a dialogue between Euro American myopia and Oceanic perspectives by offering historically informed ethnographic insights into Indigenous museum practices grounded in Indigenous epistemologies ontologies and cosmologies In doing so it employs Oceanic lenses that help to reframe Pacific collections in and the production of public understandings through ethnographic museums in Europe and the Americas By offering insights into Indigenous museologies across Oceania the coauthors seek to recalibrate ethnographic museums collections and practices through Indigenous Oceanic approaches and perspectives This in turn should assist any museum scholar and professional in rethinking and redoing their respective institutional settings intellectual frameworks and museum processes when dealing with Oceanic affairs and more broadly in doing the epistemic work needed to confront coloniality not only as a political problem or ethical obligation but as an epistemology as a politics of knowledge A noteworthy feature is the book's layered coauthorship and multi vocality drawing on a collaborative approach that has put the widespread philosophical commitment to dialogical inquiry into seldom practice by systematically co constituting ethnographic knowledge Further the book shapes an ethnographic kaleidoscope proposing the metaphor of the kaleidoscope as a way of encouraging fluid ethnographic engagements to avoid the impulse to solidify and enclose differences and remain open to changing ethnographic meanings positions performances and relationships The coauthors collaboratively mobilize Oceanic eyes bodies and sovereignties thus enacting an ethnographic kaleidoscopic process and effect aimed at refocusing ethnographic museums through Oceanic lenses Island at the End of the World Steven Roger Fischer, 2006-06-01 On a long stretch of green coast in the South Pacific hundreds of enormous impassive stone heads stand guard against the ravages of time war and disease that have attempted over the centuries to conquer Easter Island Steven Roger Fischer offers the first English language history of Easter Island in Island at the End of the World a fascinating chronicle of adversity triumph and the enduring monumentality of the island s stone guards A small canoe with Polynesians brought the first humans to Easter Island in 700 CE and when boat travel in the South Pacific drastically decreased around 1500 the Easter Islanders were forced to adapt in order to survive their isolation Adaptation Fischer asserts was a continuous thread in the life of Easter Island the first European visitors who viewed the awe inspiring monolithic busts in 1722 set off hundreds of years of violent warfare trade and disease from the smallpox wars and Great Death that decimated the island to the late nineteenth century Catholic missionaries who tried to save it to a despotic Frenchman who declared sole claim of the island and was soon killed by the remaining 111 islanders The rituals leaders and religions of the Easter Islanders evolved with all of these events and Fischer is just as attentive to the island s cultural developments as he is to its foreign invasions Bringing his history into the modern era Fischer examines the colonization and annexation of Easter Island by Chile including the Rapanui people s push for civil rights in 1964 and 1965 by which they gained full citizenship and freedom of movement on the island As travel to and interest in the island rapidly expand Island at the End of the World is an essential history of this mysterious site The Routledge Handbook of Bioarchaeology in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands Marc Oxenham, Hallie Buckley, 2015-11-19 In recent years the bioarchaeology of Southeast Asia and the Pacific islands has seen enormous progress This new and exciting research is synthesised contextualised and expanded upon in The Routledge Handbook of Bioarchaeology in Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands The volume is divided into two broad sections one dealing with mainland and island Southeast Asia and a second section dealing with the Pacific islands A multi scalar approach is employed to the bio social dimensions of Southeast Asia and the Pacific islands with contributions alternating between region and or site specific scales of operation to the individual or personal scale The more personal level of osteobiographies enriches the understanding of the lived experience in past communities Including a number of contributions from sub disciplinary approaches tangential to bioarchaeology the book provides a broad theoretical and methodological approach Providing new information on the globally relevant topics of farming population mobility subsistence and health no other volume provides such a range of coverage on these important themes

The Path of the Ocean Marjorie Sinclair, 2019-09-30 The Path of the Ocean is the first anthology of representative Polynesian poetry to be offered as a book of poetry rather than as an ethnological or historical document Guided primarily by literary taste Marjorie Sinclair has gathered poems from many sources and from translations with many kinds of expertise She has scrupulously edited the old translations modernized where necessary and in some cases has translated or adapted the poetry The arrangement of the anthology is rough geographic It begins with Hawaii and travels southward sometimes to the east and sometimes to the west until finally New Zealand is reached As the title suggests a journey that conveys scope complexity and deep humanity of the poetic spirit of the Polynesians

The Politics of the Past P. W. Gathereau, David Lowenthal, 1994 This stimulating collection demonstrates the inadequacy of a history that is always written by the winners Drawing on original studies from Africa North America Australia and the Pacific in order to make its points The Politics of the Past emphasizes that archaeology has a crucial role to play in promoting a more balanced eclectic approach to the past The essays in the book are organized around four themes the forms and consequences of the Eurocentric heritage the conflicting perspectives of rulers and ruled the significance of administrative and institutional rivalries and the divide between professional and popular views of archaeology This illuminating book aims to enrich historical and archaeological inquiry and interpretation

The ethnology and antiquities of Easter Island, 1899

Handbook of Polynesian Mythology Robert D. Craig, 2004-10-25 An accessible concise reference source on Polynesia's complex mythology product of a culture little known outside its home Encounters with the West introduced Polynesian mythology to the world and sealed its fate as a casualty of colonialism But for centuries before the Europeans came that mythology was as vast as the triangle of ocean in which it flourished as diverse as the people it served and as complex as the mythologies of Greece and Rome Students researchers and enthusiasts can follow vivid retellings of stories of creation death and great voyages tracking variations from island to island They can use the book's reference section for information on major deities heroes elves fairies and recurring themes as well as the mythic implications of everything from dogs and volcanoes to the hula Easter Island and tattooing invented in the South Pacific and popularized by returning sailors

Archaeoastronomy, 1989

Polynesia in Early Historic Times Douglas L. Oliver, 2002 This book presents a comprehensive and balanced description of major aspects of Polynesian cultures using both the accounts of the European discoverers and the up to date writings of archaeologists and anthropologists
