A Companion to the Etruscans Sinclair Bell, Alexandra A. Carpino, 2015-12-10 This new collection presents a rich selection of innovative scholarship on the Etruscans a vibrant independent people whose distinct civilization flourished in central Italy for most of the first millennium BCE and whose artistic social and cultural traditions helped shape the ancient Mediterranean European and Classical worlds Includes contributions from an international cast of both established and emerging scholars Offers fresh perspectives on Etruscan art and culture including analysis of the most up to date research and archaeological discoveries Reassesses and evaluates traditional topics like architecture wall painting ceramics and sculpture as well as new ones such as textile archaeology while also addressing themes that have yet to be thoroughly investigated in the scholarship such as the obesus etruscus the function and use of jewelry at different life stages Greek and Roman topoi about the Etruscans the Etruscans reception of ponderation and more Counters the claim that the Etruscans were culturally inferior to the Greeks and Romans by emphasizing fields where the Etruscans were either technological or artistic pioneers and by reframing similarities in style and iconography as examples of Etruscan agency and reception rather than as a deficit of local creativity

The Etruscans in the Ancient World Otto Wilhelm Vacano, Otto Wilhelm von Vacano, 1960 Describes the religious and spiritual life of the Etruscans their links with other ancient cultures their art work etc

The Etruscans in the Ancient World Otto Wilhelm von Vacano, 1960

The Etruscan World Jean MacIntosh Turfa, 2014-11-13 The Etruscans can be shown to have made significant and in some cases perhaps the first technical advances in the central and northern Mediterranean To the Etruscan people we can attribute such developments as the tie beam truss in large wooden structures surveying and engineering drainage and water tunnels the development of the foresail for fast long distance sailing vessels fine techniques of metal production and other pyrotechnology post mortem C sections in medicine and more In art many technical and iconographic developments although they certainly happened first in Greece or the Near East are first seen in extant Etruscan works preserved in the lavish tombs and goods of Etruscan aristocrats These include early portraiture the first full length painted portrait the first perspective view of a human figure in monumental art specialized techniques of bronze casting and reduction fired pottery the bucchero phenomenon Etruscan contacts through trade treaty and intermarriage linked their culture with Sardinia Corsica and Sicily with the Italic tribes of the peninsula and with the Near Eastern kingdoms Greece and the Greek colonial world Iberia Gaul and the Punic network of North Africa and influenced the cultures of northern Europe In the past fifteen years striking advances have been made in scholarship and research techniques for Etruscan Studies Archaeological and scientific discoveries have changed our picture of the Etruscans and furnished us with new specialized information Thanks to the work of dozens of international scholars it is now possible to discuss topics of interest that could never before be researched such as Etruscan mining and metallurgy textile production foods and agriculture In this volume over 60 experts provide insights into all these aspects of Etruscan culture and more with many contributions available in English for the first time to allow the reader access to research that may not otherwise be available to them Lavishly illustrated The Etruscan World brings to life the culture and material past of the Etruscans and highlights key points of development in research making it essential reading for researchers academics and students of this fascinating civilization

Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology,Donald White,2002-11-07 Lavishly illustrated with 117 color images 2 maps and 15 black and white photographs and including list of readings and an index the Guide will be of interest to both general Museum visitors and scholars

BOOK JACKET Etruscan Civilization Sybille Haynes,2000 This comprehensive survey of Etruscan civilization from its origin in the Villanovan Iron Age in the ninth century B C to its absorption by Rome in the first century B C combines well known aspects of the Etruscan world with new discoveries and fresh insights into the role of women in Etruscan society In addition the Etruscans are contrasted to the Greeks whom they often emulated and to the Romans who at once admired and disdained them The result is a compelling and complete picture of a people and a culture This in depth examination of Etruria examines how differing access to mineral wealth trade routes and agricultural land led to distinct regional variations Heavily illustrated with ancient Etruscan art and cultural objects the text is organized both chronologically and thematically interweaving archaeological evidence analysis of social structure descriptions of trade and burial customs and an examination of pottery and works of art

The Etruscans Outside Etruria Paolo Bernardini,2004 During the last millennium B C before the coming of the Romans the Etruscans built a thriving civilization in the western Mediterranean basin which was rich in natural resources From the eighth century B C Etruria became a destination on the Italian peninsula for refined works by artisans of the Hellenic regions the Near East and central Europe and for masters from these regions who emigrated and began to work for the local clientele These artisans would contribute significantly to the development of an art that was recognizably Etruscan The influence of Etruscan civilization on other cultures has received less attention from archaeologists than has the effect of the Eastern and Greek worlds on Etruscan culture This lavishly illustrated volume seeks to redress this imbalance by tracing the Etruscans impact beyond Etruria It focuses on the panorama of their commerce and the Etruscan ideological and cultural initiatives that radiated from their native territory into other regions Etruscan civilization spread across a surprisingly vast area from ancient Italy out into the Mediterranean basin and continental Europe The book devotes new attention to details that vary from region to region with a number of chapters devoted to regional specialists They offer fresh perspectives on the history art and political organization of a culture that in many ways remains mysterious

Etruscan Life and Afterlife Larissa Bonfante, 1986 The lively ferment in Etruscan studies generated in part by recent archaeological discoveries and fostered by new trends in interpretation has produced a wealth of information about the people historians traditionally considered as inaccessible Now scholars are reconstructing a portrait of the wealthy sophisticated Etruscans whose territory once extended from the Po River to the Bay of Naples Unfortunately the wider English speaking public has had no single resource which synthesizes these new findings and interpretations about the Etruscans In fact some sources continue to propagate the traditional myth of the enigmatic and isolated Etruscans In response the eminent Etruscan scholar Larissa Bonfante asked seven other internationally known classicists to join her in providing this handbook for the non specialist as an authoritative and readable guide to the burgeoning Etruscan scholarship As Bonfante explains in the introductory chapter The Etruscans provide an excellent opportunity of turning archaeology into history this we tried to do in our chapters according to our individual directions Nancy Thomson de Grummond traces the interest in and knowledge of the Etruscans from the earliest days Mario Torelli provides an independent account of Etruscan history based on monuments and sources Jean MacIntosh Turfa belies the cliché of the Etruscans traditional isolation by surveying the material evidence for their trade with the Phoenicians Greeks and other neighbors in the Mediterranean Marie Fran oise Briguet Friedhelm Prayon David Tripp and I survey Etruscan art architecture coinage and daily lives respectively Emeline Richardson contributes what she calls a primer in the Etruscan language a basic archaeological introduction to the Etruscan language meant to help newcomers read the inscriptions on many of the monuments illustrated and to see these with the interdisciplinary approach so characteristic of and necessary in Etruscan studies The book is profusely illustrated with over 300 photos and maps Notes and bibliographic references lead to standard texts on the Etruscans and to the more specialized literature in the field The result is a reliable and lively volume which brings readers into the mainstream of the latest Etruscan scholarship
