Eucharistic Presence Robert Sokolowski, 1994 In this insightful interdisciplinary study Robert Sokolowski uses the methods of phenomenology to examine Christian religious beliefs particularly the sacrament of the Eucharist In so doing he comes to terms with many theological and cultural issues raised by modernity Although the Eucharist is the center of focus other issues in Christian faith are also examined such as the Christian understanding of God Creation the Incarnation Redemption and biblical Revelation Sokolowski employs a method that he calls the theology of disclosure which studies the structures of appearance and should be distinguished from both positive and scholastic theology He takes appearances as objective disclosures not as mere psychological events When discussing the Eucharist he shows how it uses the form of quotation and how it draws on various temporal dimensions of human existence as it reenacts the sacrifice of Christ before the eternal Father The author also considers how Christian belief differs from other forms of religion and from modern atheism By demonstrating how the Christian understanding of God differs from other ways of understanding the divine he attempts to show that Christianity is not simply one religion among many but the truth of religion These deeper themes are explored as necessary contexts for the Eucharist which could not be properly understood except against the background of the Christian understanding of God as eternal and as Creator and Redeemer The author provides a comprehensive theological treatment of major issues in Christian faith and does so with categories that are appropriate to our present intellectual and cultural world This study which draws upon the work of many classical and contemporary theologians especially Hans Urs von Balthasar contributes significantly to speculative theology and to Eucharistic studies It will be of great use to theologians and philosophers as well as to students of Christian philosophy and sacramental theology Robert Sokolowski a priest of the Archdiocese of Hartford has taught philosophy at The Catholic University of America since 1963 He has written six books and numerous articles dealing with phenomenology philosophy and Christian faith moral philosophy and issues in contemporary science He has been an auxiliary chaplain at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington D C since 1976 and was named monsignor in 1993 Indispensable for graduate and divinity programs with interests in Catholic theology and phenomenology of religions Religious Studies Review Intellectually stimulating The author contributes many insights to the theology of the Eucharist some of which I had never seen before and found enlightening and moving The depth of his scholarship is obvious Rev James T O Connor St Joseph s Seminary New York A careful reading of this profound analysis of the Holy Eucharist will be rewarded with a more fruitful participation at Mass Here we find a modern model of the Catholic theologian who shows us in the concrete how to practice faith seeking understanding Kenneth Baker S J Editor Homiletic and Pastoral Review of focus other issues in Christian faith are also examined such as the Christian understanding of God Creation the Incarnation Redemption and biblical Revelation Sokolowski employs a method that he calls the theology of disclosure which studies the structures of appearance and should be distinguished from both positive and scholastic theology He takes appearances as objective disclosures not as mere psychological events When discussing the Eucharist he shows how it uses the form of quotation and how it draws on various temporal dimensions of human existence as it reenacts the sacrifice of Christ before the eternal Father The author also considers how Christian belief differs from other forms of religion and from modern atheism By demonstrating how the Christian understanding of God differs from other ways of understanding the divine he attempts to show that Christianity is not simply one religion among many but the truth of religion These deeper themes are explored as necessary contexts for the Eucharist which could not be properly understood except against the background of the Christian understanding of God as eternal and as Creator and Redeemer The author provides a comprehensive theological treatment of major issues in Christian faith and does so with categories that are appropriate to our present intellectual and cultural world This study which draws upon the work of many classical and contemporary theologians especially Hans Urs von Balthasar contributes significantly to speculative theology and to Eucharistic studies It will be of great use to theologians and philosophers as well as to students of Christian philosophy and sacramental theology Robert Sokolowski a priest of the Archdiocese of Hartford has taught philosophy at The Catholic University of America since 1963 He has written six books and numerous articles dealing with phenomenology philosophy and Christian faith moral philosophy and issues in contemporary science He has been an auxiliary chaplain at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington D C since 1976 and was named monsignor in 1993 Indispensable for graduate and divinity programs with interests in Catholic theology and phenomenology of religions Religious Studies Review Intellectually stimulating The author contributes many insights to the theology of the Eucharist some of which I had never seen before and found enlightening and moving The depth of his scholarship is obvious Rev James T O Connor St Joseph s Seminary New York A careful reading of this profound analysis of the Holy Eucharist will be rewarded with a more fruitful participation at Mass Here we find a modern model of the Catholic theologian who shows us in the concrete how to practice faith seeking understanding Kenneth Baker S J Editor Homiletic and Pastoral Review     Sacramental Presence in a Postmodern Context Lieven Boeve, Lambert Leijssen, 2001 The second biannual congress of the Leuven Encounters in Systematic Theology LEST II Nov 3 6 1999 was dedicated to a fundamental theological reflection on the question of how to conceive of sacramental presence in a postmodern context This volume contains the main lectures presented at the conference as well as the formal responses to those lectures and a selection of supplementary papers These papers examine the Christian claim that God is present in human history in the light of the contemporary rethinking of the relationship between transcendence and immanence In addition to an extensive introductory paper by L Boeve contributions include among others M C Bingemer L M Chauvet G De Schrijver K Hart W

Wedding Feast of the Lamb: Eucharistic Theology from a Biblical, Historical, and Systematic Perspective, Eucharist as Meaning Joseph C. Mudd, 2014-06-26 This study moves beyond postmodern trends in Catholic eucharistic theology by exploring the works of Bernard Lonergan and Louis Marie Chauvet Having learned from both Chauvet's critique of metaphysics and Lonergan's development of a critical metaphysics we hope to offer a fruitful understanding of traditional eucharistic doctrines that is able to respond to some contemporary problems and shed some light on the great mystery that stands at the center of Christian worship from the introduction Postmodern theologians have been critical of using metaphysics to interpret the presence of Christ in the Eucharist liturgical sacrifice and sacramental causality preferring instead a symbolic approach Lonergan's critical metaphysics however offers an account of knowing and being that resists attempts to pit metaphysics against the symbolic and moves sacramental theology into the real world of meaning The result is a theology of the Eucharist grounded in tradition that speaks to today's believers

The Bible and Catholic Ressourcement: Essays on Scripture and Theology William M. Wright IV, 2019-09-12 The essays in this collection all concern the interpretation of Scripture in relation to the Catholic Ressourcement A theological renewal movement that began in the early twentieth century the Ressourcement movement centered on a return to the sources such as Scripture the Church Fathers and liturgy The point of such a return was to discover in these sources the wisdom truth and spiritual insight which could speak meaningfully to contemporary challenges William M Wright first focuses on three major Ressourcement figures Henri de Lubac Yves Congar and Joseph Ratzinger and considers aspects of their theological thinking about Scripture or how Scripture is employed as a theological resource Next Wright examines Benedict XVI's Jesus of Nazareth books showing how they put into practice for a general readership many of the theological insights characteristic of the Ressourcement movement Last Wright considers how the theological insights of the Ressourcement movement can be used to as a resource for the interpretation of Scripture He uses characteristic Ressourcement concerns such as the relationship between the testaments the theology of history and liturgy to help illumine the biblical text Wright not only provides substantive examination of the place of the Bible in this important theological movement but also shows how the insights of the Ressourcement can be helpful for the interpretation of Scripture today

Analogous Uses of Language, Eucharistic Identity, and the 'Baptist' Vision Aaron B James, 2014-09-01 The author argues that Baptist theologian James William McClendon Jr's articulation of the baptist vision entails an account of the real presence of Christ's body and blood that is internally faithful to that vision Furthermore such an account of real presence suggests that the baptist vision is itself a contribution of Baptists to ecumenical Christianity The argument is set in the context of some contemporary Baptist engagement with ecumenical Christianity particularly historic Catholic Christianity

COMMENDATION Aaron James shows how an ecumenically minded Baptist theologian can take up this theme with creativity grace and an inspiring desire to lift up our hearts toward the wondrous sacrament of unity and sacrament of charity He powerfully reminds us why this may well be the most important conversation that Christians can have today Matthew Levering University of Dayton Ohio USA

The Eucharist in Theology and Philosophy István Perczel,Réka Forrai,György Geréby,2005 Discusses the conceptual doctrinal theological and philosophical aspects of the developments concerning the Eucharistic doctrines of the Christian Churches not just the Western ones but the Byzantino Slavic and Oriental ones too

Person-Centered Politics Eamonn O'Higgins,2024-04-09 What accounts for the widespread disillusionment with politics Person centered Politics suggests that politics today through its structures processes and institutions tends to presuppose and to impose a certain caricature of the human person that inhibits and frustrates a real sense of personal participation in an authentic common good of politics and society In 12 chapters that touch on fundamental themes of political philosophy Person centered Politics proposes the social and transcendent dimensions of personal existence and their application to the renewal of politics today The themes explore the commonly accepted assumptions of politics today and how a renewed understanding of the person can invigorate political discourse and action In Person centered Politics the author is in continuous dialogue with some of the major contemporary philosophers and thinkers such as Eric Voegelin David Walsh Robert Sokolowski Vaclav Havel Pierre Manent Peter Simpson and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Detailed footnotes in each chapter provide reference to further sources of enlightenment and research Person centered Politics proposes an outline for a renewed vision of politics that is centered on the truth of human existence and not a politics that distorts and suffocates the human spirit because in the words of E Voegelin the right order of the soul through philosophy furnishes the standard for the right order of society and not the other way round

Shadow and Substance Jay Zysk, 2017-09-30 Shadow and Substance is the first book to present a sustained examination of the relationship between Eucharistic controversy and English drama across the Reformation divide In this compelling interdisciplinary study Jay Zysk contends that the Eucharist is not just a devotional object or doctrinal crux it also shapes a way of thinking about physical embodiment and textual interpretation in theological and dramatic contexts Regardless of one's specific religious identity to speak of the Eucharist during that time was to speak of dynamic interactions between body and sign In crossing periodic boundaries and revising familiar historical narratives Shadow and Substance challenges the idea that the Protestant Reformation brings about a decisive shift from the flesh to the word the theological to the poetic and the sacred to the secular The book also adds to studies of English drama and Reformation history by providing an account of how Eucharistic discourse informs understandings of semiotic representation in broader cultural domains This bold study offers fresh imaginative readings of theology sermons devotional books and dramatic texts from a range of historical literary and religious perspectives Each of the book's chapters creates a dialogue between different strands of Eucharistic theology and different varieties of English drama Spanning England's long reformation these plays some religious in subject matter others far more secular reimagine semiotic struggles that stem from the controversies over Christ's body at a time when these very concepts were undergoing significant rethinking in both religious and literary contexts Shadow and Substance will have a wide appeal especially to those interested in medieval and early modern drama and performance literary theory Reformation history and literature and religion Narrative Mode and Theological Claim in Johannine Literature Lynn R. Huber, Susan E. Hylen, William M. Wright IV, 2021-08-24 Exegesis that bears fruit both for the academy and the church In this collection of essays and sermons on the Gospel of John and Revelation friends colleagues and former students of Gail R O Day explore and extend the possibilities raised by her work in her groundbreaking study Revelation in the Fourth Gospel The essays engage with both historical contextualization and literary analysis to identify the rhetorical features that ancient readers might have apprehended while the sermons explore how the literary shape of the text can inform preaching through attention to the narrative modes of the text Contributions from Yoshimi Azuma Teresa Fry Brown Patrick Gray Lynn R Huber Susan E Hylen Karoline M Lewis Thomas G Long Veronice Miles Vernon K Robbins Gilberto A Ruiz Ted A Smith and William M Wright IV thematize the importance of narrative approaches and the diverse ways they can be employed Hans Urs Von Balthasar and Protestantism Rodney Howsare, 2005-09-15 This book examines Balthasar's engagement with Protestantism primarily in the persons of Martin Luther and Karl Barth a topic which has not yet been given the attention it deserves Furthermore instead of focusing on particular theological issues such as soteriology or ecclesiology the book examines the implications of this engagement for Fundamental Theology At the very root of Luther's confrontation with the Catholic Church of the Late Middle Ages lies his antipathy for Aristotle and for natural theology In other words the Protestant difference has as much to do with its suspicion of the treatment of faith and reason in Catholic thought as it does of the Catholic treatment of faith and works This is a suspicion that is only exacerbated in Barth's identification of the analogy of being with the Antichrist Balthasar takes these criticisms very seriously and in addressing them not only has much of relevance to say to the Catholic Protestant differences but also has much to say to the Yale Chicago differences In short this study treats primarily Balthasar's dialogue with Luther and Barth with the hope that this dialogue will shed light on the impasse that seems to have arisen between the so called correlation and revelocentric schools of contemporary theology If indeed Christ is the concrete universal then we shouldn't have to decide between the two Part of this proposal then is to emphasize the fact that Balthasar refuses to separate

Fundamental and Dogmatic theology      Marine Hydrothermal Systems and the Origin of Life SCOR Working Group 91, 1992-11-30 Research of the origins of life in connection with a marine environment started at the end of the seventies when the black smokers in the Pacific were discovered and the Red Sea deep hydrothermal brines were found to be a fruitful environment for abiotic synthesis of life precursors For a while this research was categorised under the heading chemistry but in less than a decade the topic became fully integrated into the science of oceanography The Scientific Committee on Oceanographic Research SCOR initiated Working Group 91 Chemical Evolution and Origin of Life in Marine Hydrothermal Systems This volume contains the final report of this working group      The Truthful and the Good J.J. Drummond, J.G. Hart, 2013-12-11 This volume was occasioned by the desire of its contributors to honor Robert Sokolowski on his sixtieth birthday The desire first took form on the streets of an American metropolis when several of us while attending a philosophy conference were bemoaning the lack of passion for doing philosophy as we all conceived it In this expression of our discontent we all had a common exemplar in mind someone for whom the passion for the truthful and the good is embodied in every sentence of his rich writings Felicitously this very thinker was someone whom we all regard as manifesting in his person and life these same properties which his writings exhibit and pursue as luminous ideals As a result John Brough John Drummond and I came up with the idea that we hold our own conference and do philosophy as we envisage it and at the same time honor its foremost exemplary practitioner whose sixtieth birthday was the following year Immediately the idea took wings among the handful of us and the dreariness of that philosophy congress receded The first task of thinking of possible speakers was easy The issue of the venue for our symposium what I like to call the Sokofest had to be decided as well as the details of its realization
