House of Commons - European Scrutiny Committee: Reforming the European Scrutiny Process in the House of Commons: Volume II - HC 109-II Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee, 2013-11-28 The depth and pace of EU integration has demonstrated the need for effective democratic parliamentary scrutiny and accountability of Government at Westminster This is the first major inquiry into the European scrutiny system in the House of Commons for eight years There is more that the Committee could do to look at the impact of new proposals There should be a new requirement to appoint Reporters to take the lead within Committees on EU issues as well as a more coordinated approach to the Commission Work Programme Whilst the system need not be scrapped as some have said it must be enhanced Many problems arise from the fact that new Members are appointed for each document The Committee argues forcefully for a return to the permanent membership system new powers and a change of name to reflect the Committee's core purpose EU Document Debate Committees The Committee also examined how EU business is taken on the floor of the House and the procedures which apply to it They set out a series of recommendations about the way debates are scheduled and conducted and put the case for a new session of EU Questions They also review working practices and the visibility of the House s scrutiny of the EU in the media It concluded that now is the time to propose the introduction of a form of national veto over EU legislative proposals and then to explore the mechanics of disapplication of parts of existing EU obligations notwithstanding the European Communities Act 1972
