Europe The Exceptional Case Parameters Of Faith In The Modern World Sarum Theological Lectures:

Europe, the Exceptional Case Grace Davie, 2002 Europe the Exceptional Case examines the nature of European religion within a global context concluding that Europe increasingly looks like an exceptional case when it comes to matters of faith Europeans find this hard to believe they are prone to think that what happens in Europe today will happen elsewhere in the world tomorrow Hence their conviction that as the world modernises it will necessarily secularise Grace Davie argues that European religion is not a model for export it is something distinct peculiar to the European corner of the world and needs to be understood in these terms BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Human Rights Or Religious Rules? J. A. van der Ven, 2010 Drawing on historical insights systematic reflections and empirical data this book offers a substantive understanding of the complex relationship between religion and human rights and of the empirical impact of Christianity and Islam on the attitudes toward human rights i e a human rights culture

Public Discourses About Homosexuality and Religion in Europe and Beyond Marco Derks, Mariecke van den Berg, 2020-10-01 This volume addresses three things many people do not discuss candidly with strangers or mere acquaintances God sex and politics These can easily become topics of fierce debate particularly when taken together as has been the case with same sex marriage legislation the Vatican s criticism of gender ideology or the repeatedly asserted claim that Islam homosexuality and gender equality are essentially incompatible This volume investigates what is at stake in these constructions of religion and homosexuality in public discourses Starting with the Netherlands as a special case study it proceeds with contributions on other predominantly postsecular countries in central northern and southern Europe as well as several postcommunist and postcolonial countries beyond Europe Combining contemporary and historical perspectives and approaches from both the humanities and the social sciences the contributors explore how national and European identities are constructed and contested in debates on religion and homosexuality Chapter 2 and Chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at link.springer.com

The Five Questions Jos de Kock, Bard Norheim, 2022-11-03 Research in youth ministry has excelled and developed rapidly over the last four decades Youth ministry is not just a church practice but has become an emerging academic discipline with a variety of methodological theoretical and contextual approaches This academic handbook offers an assessment of contemporary youth ministry research to assist students doing bachelor master and doctoral research and youth ministry scholars in their studies of youth ministry By examining youth ministry research through the lens of the following five fundamental questions the reader is challenged to engage with state of the art theory methods and findings from current youth ministry research Who are the youth in youth ministry Where is God in youth ministry What is the purpose of youth ministry Who is the youth minister in youth ministry How to research practices in youth ministry The academic handbook is a must read for everyone who is interested in systematic reflection on youth ministry and youth ministry research

Religion and Dialogue in the City Julia Ipgrave, Thorsten Knauth, Anna

Körs,Dörthe Vieregge,Marie von der Lippe,2018 Urban spaces throughout Europe are increasingly characterised by a mixture of different religions and worldviews Being home to a wide range of religious and non religious groups and individuals does not mean that cities are automatically also spaces of interreligious and interfaith encounters Whether a city is a venue for interreligious encounter and dialogue or merely a place where various religions and worldviews exist side by side is a central question for the continuing social cohesion of modern societies This volume presents selected findings of the international research project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi which investigated dialogical practice in the five metropolitan cities Oslo Stockholm London Hamburg and Duisburg It offers a range of case studies addressing two fields of activity dialogue and interreligious encounters in the urban space and dialogue in education What We Have Seen and Heard Michael E. Connors,2017-05-11 One of the chief challenges of the Second Vatican Council was to reclaim the meaning of baptism especially as the foundation of service and mission in the world Fifty years after the close of that watershed gathering nineteen distinguished religious leaders and scholars reexamine that challenge and its implications for preaching and ministry today This book reinvigorates an important conversation Korean Resources for Pastoral Theology

James Newton Poling,HeeSun Kim,2012-07-19 In a time of life and death challenges to the human spirit global economics nuclear dangers environmental threats and religious polarization and war Christians must look for resources that provide new insights of God's power and care for all people What are the forms of suffering and hope in the world today and how can Christians respond with healing resources Korean Christians have unique contributions to make to our understanding of pastoral theology and counseling Pastoral counselors and theologians from the United States should look to the South Korean Christian churches and other Asian churches for conversation partners about the nature of care and healing in today's world In this book the authors explore important ideas such as han jeong and salim from Korean history and culture that can inform the healing ministries of the churches Sites and Politics of Religious Diversity in Southern Europe

Ruy Blanes,José Mapril,2013-07-11 In recent years the Southern borders of Europe have become landmarks for the mediatic and academic verve regarding the migration and diasporas towards and beyond Schengen Europe In these debates religion is acknowledged as playing a central role in the recognition of major societal changes in the continent being object of political concern and attention from the recognition of plural forms of Christianity to the debates on a European Islam Yet in this respect what goes on around the borders of Portugal Spain Italy or Greece is still largely uncharted and un debated With the contribution of renowned anthropologists sociologists and religious studies scholars this book critically presents and discusses case studies on the sites and politics of religious diversity in Southern Europe including the impact of migrant religiosity in national and EU politics Contributors include Anna Fedele Barbara Bertolani Clara Saraiva Cristina Sanchez Carretero Ester Gallo Eugenia Roussou Fabio Peroco Inam Leghari Jos Mapril Katerine Seraidari Maria Del Mar Griera Manuela Canton Delgado Nora Repo Ramon Sarr Ruy Blanes Sandra Santos Silvia Sai Trine Staunig Willert and Virtudes

Tellez Delgado     Faith Generation Nick Shepherd, 2016-08-18 The recent Church Growth Research see www.churchgrowthresearch.org.uk identifies that the successful transmission of faith to children and young people is a key factor in stemming decline and promoting growth This book explores the cultural and theological reasons as to why this is the case and makes research based recommendations for the faith formation of children and young people The central argument is that church communities need to engage in deliberate strategies that help foster intentional Christian Communities within which children and young people can form and sustain Christian identity     Studying Religion and Society Titus Hjelm, Phil Zuckerman, 2013 How do you study religion and society In this fascinating book some of the most famous names in the field explain how they go about their everyday work of studying religions in the field They explain how the ideas for their projects and books have come together how their understanding of religion has changed over the years and how their own beliefs have affected their work They also comment on the changing nature of the field the ideas which they regard as most important and those which have not stood the test of time Lastly they offer advice to young scholars and suggest what needs to be done to enable the field to grow and develop further     Welfare Activities by New Religious Actors Elisa Banfi, 2017-09-13 This book offers a comparative examination of Islamic welfare activities across urban areas in both Switzerland and Italy in order to address general issues relating to the welfare engagement of Islamic organisations in Europe Welfare Activities by New Religious Actors describes how Islamic organisations have been coordinated and structured in Geneva Milan Rome and Zurich four cities not yet analysed in the literature on Islamic welfare It also explores the institutional opportunities and constraints that are able to influence forms of social religious activities at the local and international level by bringing together two research fields that seldom speak to each other social network analysis and political opportunity theory This book will appeal to scholars of Sociology Anthropology and Religious Studies dealing with the social and political inclusion of Muslims in Europe and the social activities of Islamic organisations in Western countries

Religion and Normativity, Volume III Peter Lodberg, 2009-12-31 The volumes of Religion and Normativity present the latest research in three central fields Volume III discusses religious pluralism and the development of a Western European version of Islam The question of religious authority in a European tradition of enlightenment is also included The analyses are inter disciplinary including the ideas of the study of religion theology politology and the history of ideas     Religion and Transnational Citizenship in the African Diaspora Mattia Fumanti, 2022-12-30 This book focuses on Akan speaking Ghanaians in London and explores in detail the experience of African migrants living in Britain investigating how they construct their British citizenship through their membership of the church Building on extensive ethnographic research in London and Ghana the author explores the relationship between religion and citizenship the emergence of transnational subjectivities and the making of diaspora aesthetics among African migrants Starting from the understanding that citizenship is dialogical a status mediated by a subject s multiple and intersecting identities the author highlights the limitations of existing conceptualisations of migrant citizenship Anchored in a case study of the British Ghanaian Methodist Church as a transnational religious organisation and cultural polity the book explores diasporic religious subjectivities as both cosmopolitan and transnational while being configured in emotionally and morally significant ways by the Methodist Church as well as family ethnicity and nation Interdisciplinary by nature this book will be of interest to a wide range of researchers and scholars across the social sciences and humanities working in the fields of anthropology religion sociology postcolonial studies and African studies and additionally policy makers interested in diaspora and migration studies Moving In and Out of Islam Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2018-12-05 Embracing a new religion or leaving one's faith usually constitutes a significant milestone in a person's life While a number of scholars have examined the reasons why people convert to Islam few have investigated why people leave the faith and what the consequences are for doing so Taking a holistic approach to conversion and deconversion Moving In and Out of Islam explores the experiences of people who have come into the faith along with those who have chosen to leave it including some individuals who have both moved into and out of Islam over the course of their lives Sixteen empirical case studies trace the processes of moving in or out of Islam in Western and Central Europe the United States Canada and the Middle East Going beyond fixed notions of conversion or apostasy the contributors focus on the ambiguity doubts and nonlinear trajectories of both moving in and out of Islam They show how people shifting in either direction have to learn or unlearn habits and change their styles of clothing dietary restrictions and ways of interacting with their communities They also look at how communities react to both converts to the religion and converts out of it including controversies over the death penalty for apostates The contributors cover the political aspects of conversion as well including debates on radicalization in the era of the war on terror and the role of moderate Islam in conversions The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore, 2004 Missiological Mutilations - Perspective Paralogies Jørgen Skov Sørensen, 2007 Revision of the author's thesis Ph D University of Birmingham 2005 Religions Today Julio de Santa Ana, 2005 Based on research this anthology examines the interplay of traditional religion with the process of modernisation and the influences that each of these forces exerts on the other It aims to contribute to an understanding of religious life throughout the world confronting modern issues raised in the context of religion Korea Journal, 2007
