Education ,1996 Teacher's Resource Handbook for Asian Studies John N. Hawkins, 1976 International Studies Stanley W Toops, Mark Allen Peterson, Sheldon Anderson, 2018-04-24 This core text is the first to provide a much needed interdisciplinary approach to international studies Emphasizing the interconnected nature of history geography anthropology economics and political science International Studies details the methodologies and subject matter of each discipline then applies these discipline lenses to seven regions Europe East Asia and the Pacific South and Central Asia sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and North Africa Latin America and North America This disciplinary and regional combination provides an indispensable cohesive framework for understanding global issues The fully updated fourth edition includes four new global issues chapters The Refugee Crisis in Europe The Syrian Civil War and the Rise of the Islamic State Global Climate Change and The Globalization of Modern Sports A World of Empires Edyta M. Bojanowska, 2018-04-16 Through the lens of a classic Russian travelogue this historical study examines early globalization and Russia's participation in the Imperial race In the 1850s American Commodore Matthew Perry embarked on a legendary expedition to open trade relations with Japan Less well known is the Russian expedition that followed on his heels Serving aboard the Russian Frigate Pallada was the novelist Ivan Goncharov who turned his impressions into a bestselling book In A World of Empires Edyta Bojanowska uses Goncharov's travelogue as a window onto mid 19th century global imperialism Goncharov recounts experiences in Africa's Cape Colony Dutch Java Spanish Manila Japan and the British ports of Singapore Hong Kong and Shanghai offering keen insight on imperial expansion cooperation and competition Often overlooked in the history of European imperialism Russia emerges here as an increasingly assertive empire eager to position itself on the world stage and fully conversant with the ideologies of civilizing mission and race Goncharov's gripping narrative offers a unique eyewitness account of empire in action Bojanowska's illuminating analysis reveals both a zeal to emulate European powers and a determination to define Russia against them A Financial Times Best History Book of the Year The European Handbook of Central Asian Studies Jeroen Fauve, Adrien De Cordier, B. J. Van Den Bosch, 2021-10-19 This handbook is the first collection of comprehensive teaching materials for teachers and students of Central Asian Studies CAS with a strong pedagogic dimension It presents 22

chapters clustered around five themes with contributions from more than 19 scholars all leading experts in the field of CAS and Eurasian Studies This collection is not only a reference work for scholars branching out to different disciplines of CAS but also for scholars from other disciplines broadening their scope to CAS It addresses post colonial frameworks and also untangles topics from their Soviet reference frame It aims to de exoticize the region and draws parallels to European or to historically European occupied territories In each chapter the handbook provides a concise but nuanced overview of the topics covered in which way these have been approached by the mainstream literature and points out pitfalls myths and new insights providing background knowledge about Central Asia to readers and intertwine this with an advanced level of insight to leave the readers equipped with a strong foundation to approach more specialized sources either in classroom settings or by self study In addition the book offers a comprehensive glossary list of used abbreviations overview of intended learning outcomes and a smart index distinguishing between names locations concepts and events A list of recorded lectures to be found on YouTube will accompany the handbook either as instruction materials for teachers or visual aids for students Since the authors themselves recorded the lectures related to their own chapters this provides the opportunity to engage in a more personalized way with the authors This project is being developed in the framework of the EISCAS project www.eiscas.eu co funded by the Erasmus Program of the European Union
