,1998 Imagining the Impossible Karl S. Rosengren, Carl N. Johnson, Paul L. Harris, 2000-05-29 This volume first published in 2000 is about the development of human thinking that stretches beyond the ordinary boundaries of reality Various research initiatives emerged in the decade prior to publication exploring such matters as children's thinking about imaginary beings magic and the supernatural The purpose of this book is to capture something of the larger spirit of these efforts In many ways this new work offers a counterpoint to research on the development of children's domain specific knowledge about the ordinary nature of things that has suggested that children become increasingly scientific and rational over the course of development In acquiring an intuitive understanding of the physical biological or psychological domains even young children recognize that there are constraints on what can happen However once such constraints are acknowledged children are in a position to think about the violation of those very same constraints to contemplate the impossible Using Mentor Texts to Teach 6 + 1 Writing Traits Beverly A. DeVries, 2022-12-30 In this book you'll find a wealth of mini lessons designed to improve the quality of students writing Each lesson uses a key mentor text and spotlights one of the 6 + 1 Writing Traits to allow students to focus on the essential aspects of good writing content organization word choice voice sentence fluency conventions and presentation Inviting and practical the lessons are concise and follow a consistent model for easy implementation With seven lessons per chapter each includes step by step guidance open ended prompts and suggestions for additional suitable mentor texts The chapters are organized by genre including fiction informational texts and poetry and feature graphic novels and graphic informational mentor texts to inspire and engage students Aligned with the Common Core State Standards this resource is essential for any K 8 or pre service teacher who wants to instill in their students the skills to become independent confident writers John Coates Marie Beardmore, 2011-10-26 An abundantly illustrated biography of the British animation producer behind Yellow Submarine The Snowman and other classics John Coates is best known as the producer of The Snowman When the Wind Blows Wind in the Willows Willows in Winter and Famous Fred and as the man behind the Beatles film Yellow Submarine In his long eventful career he earned a BAFTA and a CableACE Award as well as Primetime Emmy and Academy Award nominations This intimate biography takes us on a journey through Coates's youth his years as an army officer in the 11th Hussars in World War II and his postwar life working as a distributor for Rank Films throughout Asia before returning to England and eventually taking over TVC's animation studio With a foreword by Raymond Briggs and an epilogue by John Coates
