Lawfare and the Ovaherero and Nama Pursuit of Restorative Justice, 1918–2018 Marouf A. Hasian Jr., 2019-10-04 This book provides readers with a critical analysis of the restorative justice efforts of the Ovaherero and Nama communities in Namibia who contend that they should receive reparations for what happened to their ancestors during and after the 1904–1908 German Ovaherero Nama war Arguing that indigenous communities who once lived in a German colony called German South West Africa suffered from a genocide that could be compared to the World War II Holocaust Namibian activists sued Germany and German corporations in U.S. federal courts for reparations The author of this book uses a critical genealogical approach to all of this lawfare the politicizing of the law in order to illustrate some of the historical origins of this quest for social justice Portions of the book also explain some of the historical and contemporary realpolitik barriers that stood in the way of Ovaherero and Nama activists who were asking for acknowledgments of the Namibian genocide apologies from German officials repatriation of human remains from colonial times as well as restitution that might help with land redistribution in today's Namibia This book shows many of the difficulties that confront those indigenous communities who ask twenty first century audiences to pay restitution for large scale colonial massacres or imperial genocides that might have taken place more than a hundred years ago

Life Under the Baobab Tree Kenneth N. Ngwa, Aliou Cissé Niang, Arthur Pressley, 2023-09-05 Life Under the Baobab Tree Africana Studies and Religion in a Transitional Age is a compendium of innovating essays meticulously written by early and later diaspora people of African descent Their speech arises from the depth of their experiences under the Baobab tree and offers to the world voices of resilience newness resurrection hope and life Resolutely journeying on the trails of their ancestors they speak about setbacks and forward looking movements of liberation social transformation and community formation The volume is a carefully woven conversation of intellectual substance and structure across time space and spirituality that is quintessentially Africana in its centering of methodological theoretical epistemological and hermeneutical complexity that assumes nonlinear and dialogical approaches to developing liberating epistemologies in the face of imperialism colonialism racism and religious intolerance A critical part of this conversation is a reconceptualization and reconfiguration of the concept of religion in its colonial and imperial forms Life Under the Baobab Tree examines how Africana peoples understand their corporate experiences of the divine not as religion apart from its intimate connections to social realities of communal health economics culture politics environment violence war and dynamic community belonging To that end Afro Pessimistic formulations of life placed in dialogic relation Afro Optimism Both realities constitute life under the Baobab tree and represent the sturdiness and variation that anchors the deep ruptures that have affected Africana life and the creative responses The metaphor and substance of the tree resists reductionist essentialist and assured conclusions about the nature of diasporic lived experiences both within the continent of Africa and in the African Diaspora

Passing in the Works of Charles W. Chesnutt Susan Prothro Wright, Ernestine Pickens Glass, 2010-06-17 Passing in the Works of Charles W. Chesnutt is a collection that reevaluates Chesnutt's deft manipulation of the passing theme to expand understanding of the author's fiction and nonfiction Nine contributors apply a variety of theories including intertextual signifying discourse analysis narratological formal psychoanalytical new historical reader response and performative frameworks to add richness to readings of Chesnutt's works Together the essays provide convincing evidence that passing is an intricate essential part of Chesnutt's writing and that it appears in all the genres he wielded journal entries speeches essays and short and long fiction The essays engage with each other to display the continuum in Chesnutt's thinking as he began his writing career and established his sense of social activism as evidenced in his early journal entries Collectively the essays follow Chesnutt's works as he proceeded through the Jim Crow era honing his ability to manipulate his mostly white audience through the astute though apparently self-effacing narrator Uncle Julius of his popular conjure tales Chesnutt's ability to subvert audience expectations is equally noticeable in the subtle irony of his short stories Several of the collection's essays address Chesnutt's novels including Paul Marchand F. M. C. Mandy Oxendine The House Behind the Cedars and Evelyn's Husband The volume opens up new paths of inquiry into a major African American writer s oeuvre The Popular Encyclopedia, Or Conversations Lexicon ,1873 Reading Confederate Monuments Maria Seger,2022-08-24 Winner of a 2023 Edited Collection Award from the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Contributions by Danielle Christmas Joanna Davis McElligatt Garrett Bridger Gilmore Spencer R Herrera Cassandra Jackson Stacie McCormick Maria Seger Randi Lynn Tanglen Brook Thomas Michael C Weisenburg and Lisa Woolfork Reading Confederate Monuments addresses the urgent and vital need for scholars educators and the general public to be able to read and interpret the literal and cultural Confederate monuments pervading life in the contemporary United States The literary and cultural studies scholars featured in this collection engage many different archives and methods demonstrating how to read literal Confederate monuments as texts and in the context of the assortment of literatures that produced and celebrated them They further explore how to read the literary texts advancing and contesting Confederate ideology in the US cultural imaginary then and now as monuments in and of themselves On top of that the essays published here lay bare the cultural and pedagogical work of Confederate monuments and counter monuments divulging how and what they teach their readers as communal and yet contested narratives thereby showing why the persistence of Confederate monuments matters greatly to local and national notions of racial justice and belonging In doing so this collection illustrates what critics of US literature and culture can offer to ongoing scholarly and public discussions about Confederate monuments and memory Even as we remove relocate and recontextualize the physical symbols of the Confederacy dotting the US landscape the complicated histories cultural products and pedagogies of Confederate ideology remain embedded in the national consciousness To disrupt and potentially dismantle these enduring narratives alongside the statues themselves we must be able to recognize analyze and resist them in US life The pieces in this collection position us to think deeply about how and why we should continue that work The Oxford History of Anglicanism, Volume IV Jeremy Morris,2017-02-16 The Oxford History of Anglicanism is a major new and unprecedented international study of the identity and historical influence of one of the world s largest versions of Christianity This global study of Anglicanism from the sixteenth century looks at how was Anglican identity constructed and contested at various periods since the sixteenth century and what was its historical influence during the past six centuries It explores not just the ecclesiastical and theological aspects of global Anglicanism but also the political social economic and cultural influences of this form of Christianity that has been historically significant in western culture and a burgeoning force in non western societies today The chapters are written by international experts in their various historical fields which includes the most recent research in their areas as well as original research The series forms an invaluable reference for both scholars and interested non specialists Volume four of The Oxford History of Anglicanism explores Anglicanism from 1910 to present day Paul's Political Strategy in 1 Corinthians 1-4 Bradley J. Bitner,2015-06-25 This volume examines 1 Corinthians 1 4 within first century politics offering insight into Paul s pastoral strategy among nascent Gentile Jewish assemblies Who in the World Was Jesus Carl E. Roemer,2018-12-11 This book scrutinizes the 39

parables attributed to Jesus in the Gospels Jesus was a part of a story telling society in the first century land of Israel A popular maxim characterizes them as earthly stories with heavenly meanings They often appear that way in context of the Gospels of the New Testament However if you retroject them back into the dynamic context of the life and activity of Jesus they suddenly assume not just a spiritual but also a more earthly vibrancy Knowing that context the reactions of his contemporaries become clear we can grasp how they were heard what people would think of the parables message and the character of the messenger Jesus society was in a crisis and part of the intent of Jesus was to address that crisis and rescue his beloved nation from disaster Story telling changes the way people think and makes them more attentive to new ideas Although to describe Jesus message as subversive may seem to be a distasteful characterization his parables were meant to subvert popular thought and belief In this he was completely faithful however to Israel s faith which at its deepest level rebels against the powers of this world In the parables we meet Jesus on the ground as he walked the hills of the Galilee gathered hearers in the villages and sat among his contemporaries and called them to revolutionize mind and heart and as the prophets of old also had implored the nation to return to the gracious heart of their God In this reading of the parables the reader will be surprised challenged and perhaps even be disturbed by the Jesus who emerges in his stories we call parables
