The First Emperor's Terracotta Legion Tianwei Yu, 1988 Terracotta Warriors Guolong Lai, 2011 This catalog sets the Terracotta warriors in a wider context by examining art of the Qin state in the period that led to the unification of China

Worlds of Bronze and Bamboo Grant Hardy, 1999-07-06 Sima Qian c 100 B C E was China's first historian he was known as Grand Astrologer at the court of Emperor Wu during the Han dynasty and along with Confucius and the First Emperor of Qin was one of the creators of imperial China His Shiji published for Columbia in a translation by Burton Watson as Records of the Grand Historian not only became the model for the twenty six Standard Histories that the historians of each Chinese dynasty wrote to legitimize the dynastic succession but also has been an enormously influential resource to historians literary scholars philosophers and many others seeking an understanding of early Chinese history In Worlds of Bronze and Bamboo Grant Hardy presents convincing evidence that the Shiji is quite unlike such Western counterparts as the histories of Herodotus and Thucydides for Hardy argues Sima Qian's work seeks not only to represent but to influence the world in a manner based on Confucian concepts of sageliness and the rectification of names Although many scholars have sought close parallels between Sima Qian and the Greek historians either criticizing Sima's work as if Western models of historical interpretation could serve as a template by which to read it or overemphasizing his objectivity to more closely align his text with these respectable Greek models Hardy boldly contends that the Chinese historian never intended to produce a consistent closed interpretation of the past Instead Hardy argues the Shiji is a microcosm in which Sima Qian sought to represent the open endedness and multivalence of the world around him revealing and reinforcing the natural order In mapping out this model of the world Sima embodies the historian as sage rather than chronicler Transcending mere accuracy in recording events such a historian seeks not to present an opinion about what happened in the past buttressed with rational arguments and pertinent evidence but to penetrate the outer details of an incident and discover the moral truths it embodies Thus intuiting the moral significance of events the sage historian delineates the Way and offers his readers a chance to become more in tune with the natural order Illustrating his provocative theses about the Shiji by analyzing Sima Qian's handling of specific historical personages and episodes such as the First Emperor of the Qin the hereditary house of Confucius and the conflicts that ended with the founding of the Han dynasty Hardy both extends and challenges existing interpretations of this crucial yet understudied text and sheds light on its puzzles and incongruities Res: Anthropology and Aesthetics, 51 Francesco Pellizzi, 2007-07-11 Res is a journal of anthropology and comparative aesthetics dedicated to the study of the object in particular cult and belief objects and objects of art The journal presents contributions by philosophers art historians archaeologists critics linguists architects artists among others Rise of the Tang Dynasty Julian Romane, 2020-01-31 Julian Romane examines the military events behind the emergence of the Sui and Tang dynasties in the period 581-626 AD Narrating the campaigns and battles he analyses in detail the strategy and tactics employed a central theme being the collision of the steppe cavalry with Chinese infantry armies By the fourth century AD horse nomads had seized northern China Conflict with these Turkic interlopers continued throughout the 5th and most of the 6th century The emergence of the Sui dynasty 581 618 brought some progress but internal weakness led to their rapid collapse The succeeding House of Tang however provided the necessary stability and leadership to underpin military success This was largely the achievement of Li Shimin who later became the second Tang Emperor By the start of Li Shimins reign as Emperor Tang Taizong effective military organizations had been developed and China reunified His military campaigns are examples of tactical and strategic virtuosity that demonstrate the application of the distinctive Chinese way of war expounded in Chinese military manuals including Li Shimins own writings

Art of the Yellow Springs Wu Hung, 2015-02-15 We might think the Egyptians were the masters of building tombs but no other civilization has devoted more time and resources to underground burial structures than the Chinese For at least five thousand years from the fourth millennium B C E to the early twentieth century the Chinese have been building some of the world s most elaborate tombs and furnishing them with exquisite objects It is these objects and the concept of the tomb as a treasure trove that The Art of the Yellow Springs seeks to critique drawing on recent scholarship to examine memorial sites the way they were meant to be experienced not as a mere store of individual works but as a work of art itself Wu Hung bolsters some of the new trends in Chinese art history that have been challenging the conventional ways of studying funerary art Examining the interpretative methods themselves that guide the study of memorials he argues that in order to understand Chinese tombs one must not necessarily forget the individual works present in them as the beautiful color plates here will prove but consider them along with a host of other art historical concepts These include notions of visuality viewership space analysis function and context The result is a ground breaking new assessment that demonstrates the amazing richness of one of the longest running traditions in the whole of art history
