First Korean Reading 1:

First Korean Reading 1 English and Korean Edition Koraan Language In University, Beginning Korean Samuel Elmo Martin, Young-Sook C. Lee, 1969-01-01 A model of structural linguistic analysis as well as a teaching tool this text gives the student a comprehensive grasp of the essentials of modern Korean in 25 lessons with 5 review lessons leading to advanced levels of proficiency It has been designed for adult students working either in classes or by themselves with the assistance of native speakers or tape recordings Each lesson contains basic sentences grammar notes with additional examples exercises comprehension practice and conversation guides Of particular value is the systematic presentation of grammatical structures with a detailed cross index integrated into the Korean English vocabulary that accompanies the English Korean vocabulary at the end of the book The pronunciation is introduced in carefully planned drills that are grouped together at the beginning of the book The course follows the overall pedagogical methods that have come to be known as the Yale audio lingual approach Mr Martin is chairman of the Department of Linguistics at Yale University and Mrs Lee is assistant professor of Korean at the University of Hawaii Writing and Literacy in Chinese, Korean and Japanese Insup Taylor, M. Martin Taylor, 2014-12-15 The book describes how the three East Asian writing systems Chinese Korean and Japanese originated developed and are used today Uniquely this book 1 examines the three East Asian scripts and English together in relation to each other and 2 discusses how these scripts are and historically have been used in literacy and how they are learned written read and processed by the eyes the brain and the mind In this second edition the authors have included recent research findings on the uses of the scripts added several new sections and rewritten several other sections They have also added a new Part IV to deal with issues that similarly involve all the four languages scripts of their interest The book is intended both for the general public and for interested scholars Technical terms listed in a glossary are used only when absolutely necessary The Construction of Korean Culture in Korean Language Textbooks Dong Bae Lee, 2020-11-24 The book examines the themes of cultural values collective identity political ideologies and Korean cultural traditions throughout Korean language textbooks from the last 120 years Through this analysis the author explores the colonial neo colonial and postcolonial contexts that have influenced South Korea This work demonstrates the significant impact of textbooks and how political leaders make use of school curricula to legitimate their regimes Kierkegaard's International Reception: The Near East, Asia, Australia and the Americas Jon Stewart, 2008-06-01 Although Kierkegaard's reception was initially more or less limited to Scandinavia it has for a long time now been a highly international affair As his writings became translated into the different languages his reputation spread and he became read more and more by people increasingly distant from his native Denmark While in Scandinavia the attack on the Church in the last years of his life became something of a cause c l bre later many different aspects of his work became the object of serious scholarly investigation well beyond the original northern borders As his reputation grew he was co opted by a number of different philosophical and religious movements in different contexts

throughout the world The three tomes of the present volume attempt to record the history of this reception according to national and linguistic categories Tome III is the most geographically diverse covering the Near East Asia Australia and the Americas The section on the Near East features pioneering articles on the Kierkegaard reception in Israel Turkey Iran and the Arab world The next section dubbed Asia and Australia features articles on the long and rich traditions of Kierkegaard research in Japan and Korea along with the more recent ones in China and Australia A final section is dedicated to Americas with articles on Canada the United States hispanophone South America Mexico and Brazil

Kim, 2019-05-15 Urban Modernities reconsiders Japanese colonialism in Korea and Taiwan through a relational study of modernist literature and urban aesthetics from the late colonial period By charting intra Asian and transregional circulations of writers ideas and texts it reevaluates the dominant narrative in current scholarship that presents Korea and Taiwan as having vastly different responses to and experiences of Japanese colonialism By comparing representations of various colonial spaces ranging from the nation the streets department stores and print spaces to underscore the shared experiences of the quotidian and the poetic Jina E Kim shows how the culture of urban modernity enlivened networks of connections between the colonies and destabilized the metropole colony relationship thus also contributing to the broader formation of global modernism Contemporary Korean Political Thought in Search of a Post-Eurocentric Approach Jung In Kang, 2014-11-20 This book is a collection of essays written by Korean political theorists addressing the study of contemporary Korean political thought on the premise that such study should be carried out with a post Eurocentric approach The negative effects brought about by the domination of Western centrism are pervasive in academic disciplines as well as in everyday life of South Korea This book outlines three strategic approaches to combating Western centrism 1 theorizing contemporary Korean politics from a Korean perspective 2 the Koreanization of Western political thought and 3 modernizing traditional East Asian political thought These essays examine and explore the validity of the three strategic approaches with the objective of coping with Western centrism in Korean political theory These contributing authors share a concern about Western centrism but approach it from different directions and at different layers
