First Life Of Adamastor:

Cape of Storms Andre Brink, 2007-09-01 He is the chieftain leader of the Khoikhoi a nomadic people derogatorily called Hottentot by European colonists She is a white woman left behind by Portuguese explorer Vasco da Gama s crew when they rounded Africa s southern tip in 1498 Their romance is the core of this powerful novella According to Portuguese myth Zeus turned Adamastor into the rocky cape of the South African peninsula Andr Brink s parable suggests that white Europeans have punished native Africans in the same way With this novel Brink takes us to the heart of the relationships that define South Africa s modern history Peter Carey Garcia Marquez Solzhenitsyn Andr Brink must be considered with that class of writer Guardian

Literary Connections Between South Africa and the Lusophone World Ludmylla Lima, John T. Maddox IV, Anita De Melo, 2022-10-12 Literary Connections between South Africa and the Lusophone World connects literatures and cultures of South Africa and the Portuguese speaking nations of Africa and beyond and is set within literary and cultural studies The chapters gathered in this volume reinforce the critical and ongoing conversations in comparative and world literature from perspectives of the South It outlines some possible theoretical and methodological starting points for a comparative framework that targets transnationally literatures from the South This volume is an additional step to renew the critical potentialities of comparative literary studies Spivak 2009 as well as of humanistic criticism itself Said 2004 as South Africa and the Lusophone world except its former colonizer Portugal are outside the spatial and cultural dimension usually defined as European and or North American In this sense and due to the evident geographical and socio historical links between these regions critical scholarship on their literary connections can contribute to unprecedented perspectives of representational practices within a broader contextual dimension and in so doing provides the emergence of what Boaventura de Sousa Santos called epistemologies of the South Santos 2016 as it considers cultural exchanges in the space of so called overlapping territories and intertwined histories Said 1993

The Presence of Camões George Monteiro, 2021-12-14 Of the great epic poets in the Western tradition Luis Vaz de Cam es c 1524 1580 remains perhaps the least known outside his native Portugal and his influence on literature in English has not been fully recognized In this major work of comparative scholarship George Monteiro thus breaks new ground focusing on English language writers whose vision and expression have been sharpened by their varied responses to Cam es Introduced to English readers in 1655 Cam es s work from the beginning appealed strongly to writers The young Elizabeth Barrett s Camonean poems for example inspired Edgar Allan Poe to appropriate elements from Cam es Herman Melville s reading of Cam es bore fruit in his career long borrowings from the Portuguese poet Longfellow T W Higginson and Emily Dickinson read and championed Cam es And Cam es as epicist and love poet is an minence grise in several of Elizabeth Bishop s strongest Brazilian poems Southern African writers have interpreted and reinterpreted Adamastor Cam es s Spirit of the Cape as both a symbol of a dangerous and mysterious Africa and an emblem of European imperialism Recognizing the presence of Cam es leads Monteiro to provocative rereadings of such texts as Dickinson's Master letters Poe's Raven Melville's late poetry and Bishop's Questions of Travel Cape of Storms André Philippus Brink, 1993 Imagining the Cape Colony David Johnson, 2013-09-19 By returning to a pivotal moment in South African history the Cape Colony in the period 1770-1830 this book addresses current debates about nationalism colonialism and neo colonialism and postcolonial post apartheid culture Pen and Power Sue Kossew, 2022-04-25 A Comparative Analysis of the South African and German Reception of Nadine Gordimer's, Andre Brink's and J.M. Coetzee's Works Eva-Marie Herlitzius, 2005 Southern Imagining Elleke Boehmer, 2025-12-30 A new compass for global reading looking at the world from the far southern latitudes A northern viewpoint is most often the default while the south the far southern latitudes occupied by Australia New Zealand Argentina and southern Africa among others seems far away and ignorable In Southern Imagining Elleke Boehmer offers an alternative perspective using literary scientific and cultural material to explore how we look at the world from the south Reading she argues is a transformative means of reversing our usual planetary orientation and rearranging our perceptual geography Boehmer examines writing from across southern continents and islands considering how we imaginatively inhabit the farthest reaches of our planet Creators ranging from the Portuguese epic poet Luís de Camões to Samuel Taylor Coleridge Charles Darwin Katherine Mansfield Jorge Luis Borges and ancient Indigenous storytellers capture the edgy and austere experiences of the far south For Boehmer imaginative work stimulates and shapes our phenomenological understanding Southerners often see themselves as far away from where things count as outsiders internalising the wider global sense of their relative insignificance Conversely when northerners read or hear legends narratives songs and poems from the south it is as if they are located in the south at least for the duration of the reading or listening Boehmer suggests that the south tilted world map re-centred through song and story invites us to claim a more involved sense of belonging to our planet both its north and its south The writers of the south disrupt conventional ways of seeing and invite us to inhabit our globe differently State of Peril Lucy Valerie Graham, 2015 Considering fiction from the colonial era to the present State of Peril offers the first sustained scholarly examination of rape narratives in the literature of a country that has extremely high levels of sexual violence Lucy Graham demonstrates how despite the fact that most incidents of rape in South Africa are not interracial narratives of interracial rape have dominated the national imaginary Seeking to understand this phenomenon the study draws on Michel Foucault's ideas on sexuality and biopolitics as well as Judith Butler's speculations on race and cultural melancholia Historical analysis of the body politic provides the backdrop for careful close readings of literature by Olive Schreiner Sol Plaatje Sarah Gertrude Millin Njabulo Ndebele J.M. Coetzee Zo Wicomb and others Ultimately State of Peril argues for ethically responsible interpretations that recognize high levels of sexual violence in South Africa while parsing the racialized inferences and assumptions implicit in literary representations of bodily violation The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa's unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa s literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post apartheid revision of the past In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa s literary history It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come Twilight of the Literary Terry

Cochran,2009-07-01 In Western thought the modern period signals a break with stagnant social formations the advent of a new rationalism and the emergence of a truly secular order all in the context of an overarching globalization In The Twilight of the Literary Terry Cochran links these developments with the rise of the book as the dominant medium for recording preserving and disseminating thought Consequently his book explores the role that language plays in elaborating modern self understanding It delves into what Cochran calls the figures of thought that have been an essential component of modern consciousness in the age of print technology and questions the relevance of this print bound thinking in a world where print no longer dominates Cochran begins by examining major efforts of the eighteenth century that proved decisive for modern conceptions of history knowledge and print After tracing late medieval formulations of vernacular language that proved crucial to print he analyzes the figures of thought in print culture as they proceed from the idea of the collective spirit the people an elaboration of modern history Cochran reconsiders basic texts that in his analysis reveal the underpinnings of modernity s formation from Dante and Machiavelli to Antonio Gramsci and Walter Benjamin Moving from premodern models for collective language to competing theories of history his work offers unprecedented insight into the means by which modern consciousness has come to know itself (u)Mzantsi Classics Samantha Masters,Imkhitha Nzungu,Grant
