A.B. Simpson and the Making of Modern Evangelicalism. Daryn Henry, 2019-12-26. A shrewd synthesizer, gifted popularizer, and inspiring founder of the Christian and Missionary Alliance movement, A.B. Simpson (1843-1919) was enmeshed in the most crucial threads of evangelical Christianity at the turn of the twentieth century. Daryn Henry presents Simpson's life and ministry as a vivid, fascinating, and paradigmatic study in evangelical religious culture during a time when the conservative wing of the movement has often been overlooked. Simpson's ministry, Henry explains, fused the classic evangelical emphasis on revivalist conversion with the intensification of that sensibility in the quest for the deeper Christian life of holiness. Recovering the practice of divine healing, Simpson emphasized a dynamically empowered and supernaturally animated Christianity that would spill over into nascent Pentecostalism. His encouragement of cross-cultural missions was part of a trend that unleashed the dramatic rise of world Christianity across the Global South. All the while, his Biblical literalism, antagonism to modernist theology, campaigns against evolution, and views on premillennialism, Biblical prophecy, and the role of Israel in the end times made Simpson a precursor of the fundamentalist melees of subsequent decades. From his upbringing in rural Canada and confessional Scottish Presbyterianism Simpson journeyed into the heart of American evangelicalism revolving around his base in New York City Against most previous writing on Simpson Henry's biography presents both continuities and discontinuities in the development of modern interdenominational evangelicalism out of the denominational evangelicalism of the nineteenth century A Companion to Anabaptism and Spiritualism, 1521-1700 John Roth, James Stayer, 2007 This handbook of Anabaptism and Spiritualism provides an informative survey of recent scholarship on the Radical Reformation from the 1520s to the end of the eighteenth century Each chapter offers a narrative summary that engages current research and suggests directions for future study The Standard, 1916 The Banner of Holiness, 1875 Church Dogmatics Karl Barth, 2000-11-29 Described by Pope Pius XII as the most important theologian since Thomas Aquinas the Swiss pastor and theologian Karl Barth continues to be a major influence on students scholars and preachers today Barth's theology found its expression mainly through his closely reasoned fourteen part magnum opus Die Kirchliche Dogmatik Having taken over 30 years to write the Church Dogmatics is regarded as one of the most important theological works of all time and represents the pinnacle of Barth's achievement as a theologian The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1953, volume 3 Witness Lee, The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1953 volume 3 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee in 1953 through 1968 Historical information concerning Brother Lee's travels and the content of his ministry in 1953 can be found in the general preface that appears at the beginning of volume 1 in this set The contents of this volume are divided into three sections as follows 1 Fourteen messages given in Taipei Taiwan in 1953 and 1954 These messages were previously published in a book entitled The Knowledge of Life and are included in this volume under the same title 2 Nineteen messages given in Taipei Taiwan in 1953 and 1954 These messages were previously published in a book entitled The Experience of Life and are included in this volume under the same title 3 Seven messages given in Manila Philippines and Taipei Taiwan in 1953 through 1968 These messages were previously published in a book entitled Character and are included in this volume under the same title Eternal Answers to Life's Toughest Questions Paul C.
