News Notes of California Libraries California State Library, 1929 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries     First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal Rudolf Steiner, 2010-11 6 lectures and 2 discussions in Stuttgart June 12 16 1921 CW 342 The lectures and discussions presented in First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal make up the first of the five Priest Courses They record the first steps of the remarkable journey taken in 1921 by a small group of dedicated souls who out of their own inner needs and guided by Rudolf Steiner sought a path to Christian religious renewal Addressing the group with warm intimacy Steiner frames their task not primarily in theological terms but as a need for a renewing the religious or the working of the religious element as such For this the sermon or how we speak is central for today we must use language in new ways We cannot reopen the spiritual worlds by starting from old conditions Traditional religious life has become too corrupted while modern culture has radically changed and become divorced from tradition In earlier times people could understand concepts such as Christ grace and salvation but now we need a new starting point one that begins with the reality that we cannot teach anything we do not believe and have not experienced When we speak images and symbols must be experienced as real we can no longer hold the split view that accepts both modern science as it is and spiritual reality as it is Next Steiner turns to the group s stated concerns ritual the sermon community building and the relationship between these and individual efforts to awaken to the I Here a question arises about the extent to which such matters should become conscious The question arises How do we avoid conscious religious content from becoming abstract intellectual and cut off from feeling All too often intellect is confused with consciousness Yet Goethe for one was certainly conscious and was able to think pictorially and live in images without falling into intellectuality We too must learn to do so In a sense however even this is secondary Community building which requires finding what lives and weaves between human beings is the key To bring the community to birth Steiner advises the group to abandon teaching or exercising power through words and concepts Instead of focusing on knowledge of God theology they must find a way to communicate actual life in God experience of the divine within the soul This means that they must learn to live in a content that is greater and beyond what they can speak Thus the importance of ritual which must remain simple while expressing inner transformation of the human being or the en Christing imbuing the human being with Christ Steiner explains Human beings are not born imbued with Christ beforehand by way of inheritance they must find the Christ in themselves Such transformation en Christing can be expressed symbolically in many ways through simple effective ritual First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal is a translation from German of Vorträge und Kurse über christlich religiöses Wirken Bd 1 Anthroposophische Grundlagen für ein erneuertes christlich religiöses Wirken GA 342     Theosophy ,1920     Hartmann's Who's who in Occult, Psychic and Spiritual Realms...in the United States and Foreign Countries ,1927     Eurasia Without Borders Katerina Clark, 2021-11-02 A long awaited corrective to the controversial idea of world literature from a major voice in the field

Katerina Clark charts interwar efforts by Soviet European and Asian leftist writers to create a Eurasian commons a single cultural space that would overcome national cultural and linguistic differences in the name of an anticapitalist anti imperialist and later antifascist aesthetic At the heart of this story stands the literary arm of the Communist International or Comintern anchored in Moscow but reaching Baku Beijing London and parts in between Its mission attracted diverse networks of writers who hailed from Turkey Iran India and China as well as the Soviet Union and Europe Between 1919 and 1943 they sought to establish a new world literature to rival the capitalist republic of Western letters Eurasia without Borders revises standard accounts of global twentieth century literary movements The Eurocentric discourse of world literature focuses on transatlantic interactions largely omitting the international left and its Asian members Meanwhile postcolonial studies have overlooked the socialist aligned world in favor of the clash between Western European imperialism and subaltern resistance Clark provides the missing pieces illuminating a distinctive literature that sought to fuse European and vernacular Asian traditions in the name of a post imperialist culture Socialist literary internationalism was not without serious problems and at times it succumbed to an orientalist aesthetic that rivaled any coming from Europe Its history is marked by both promise and tragedy With clear eyed honesty Clark traces the limits compromises and achievements of an ambitious cultural collaboration whose resonances in later movements can no longer be ignored First Steps in Theosophy Ethel M. Divine Feminine Joy Dixon,2003-05-01 Honorable Mention for the Wallace K Ferguson Prize from the Canadian Historical Association Chosen by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title of 2003 In 1891 newspapers all over the world carried reports of the death of H P Blavatsky the mysterious Russian woman who was the spiritual founder of the Theosophical Society With the help of the equally mysterious Mahatmas who were her teachers Blavatsky claimed to have brought the ancient wisdom of the East to the rescue of a materialistic West In England Blavatsky s earliest followers were mostly men but a generation later the Theosophical Society was dominated by women and theosophy had become a crucial part of feminist political culture Divine Feminine is the first full length study of the relationship between alternative or esoteric spirituality and the feminist movement in England Historian Joy Dixon examines the Theosophical Society s claims that women and the East were the repositories of spiritual forces which English men had forfeited in their scramble for material and imperial power Theosophists produced arguments that became key tools in many feminist campaigns Many women of the Theosophical Society became suffragists to promote the spiritualizing of politics attempting to create a political role for women as a way to sacralize the public sphere Dixon also shows that theosophy provides much of the framework and the vocabulary for today s New Age movement Many of the assumptions about class race and gender which marked the emergence of esoteric religions at the end of the nineteenth century continue to shape alternative spiritualities today
