My Family's Other Recipes Ian Nunn, 2011-12-01 Bullied by his second daughter into putting the family's favourite recipes into book form this subject became a sub theme in what turned out to be an autobiography but one written about an ordinary life although with an ability to find the humorous side of most events For serious foodies this book may be a little thin on content but there are some interesting pieces of food history and it is very much a personal view of the last sixty years The book is set out in four sections based loosely on four periods of the author's life and given titles based on a four course meal of hors d'oeuvres fish meat and dessert entitled horses doovers fishy tales butcher's meat and just desserts If you want a relaxing read on an inconsequential life which may make you smile buy this book If you want a serious cookery book or autobiography of someone famous or important then you will have to look elsewhere What does come through is here is a book written by a guy with a love of life a beard more appropriate to a mad badger and a slightly quirky sense of humour who writes for his own enjoyment but with a warmth others may find undemanding

South Caicos Tailwind William P. Case, 2002-03 A great read action that makes you believe you were there Wonderful work for a first Novel Harry Allen Associate Professor of Journalism Kentucky State University An interesting look into the inner workings of a smuggling operation Grabs you and takes you on a ride you won't believe Tim Peterson Writers Review Spellbinding action great characters can't wait for the next one Bill Lee Babson Park Journal The book is a fictional story based on a very real set of circumstances that happened in Florida in the 1970's The main character is enticed by the money and adventure and becomes involved in the operation His inside view of the action grabs the reader and takes them along in the pilot's seat as they smuggle large quantities of drugs from Columbia to Florida
