Ahonkhai, ED. D, 2025-01-06 UNTOLD HISTORY illustrates how African history is intertwined with and foundational to American history The book begins this narrative in the fourteenth century when European seafarers discovered the coastal regions of Africa describes the meeting of the three worlds aEUR Europe Africa and the New World later known as America and details the increasing interactions of the three worlds after the 1450s The author dispels some of the misconceptions about pre colonial Africa by presenting the history and culture of the African continent from a distinctively African lens As such this book chronicles some prominent African empires and kingdoms Africa European bilateral trade relations the trans Atlantic Slave trade and contemporary Africans in the United States The book highlights stories of contemporary Africans residing in the United States and documents the contributions of early and contemporary Africans to the history economic development culture and prominence of the United States of America It concludes with a snapshot of contemporary Africa The book provides a framework for understanding the history of Africa prior to the arrival of European merchants on its shores African civilizations cultures legacy and contributions to American Educators can use the book to supplement their course on American History World History African American History in pre collegiate or collegiate settings This book can help educators to reimagine the teaching and learning of the United States history by centering on important narratives in Africa and with Africans in the American diaspora The book is organized chronologically and can help the reader to understand the past as it relates to the present world To facilitate teaching each chapter opens with a quotation that introduces the content of the chapter and ends with study discussion questions that educators can use or adapt as appropriate for instruction and to ensure full comprehensive understanding of the content presented

The Health and Physique of the Negro American Atlanta University,1906 Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J.
