Philosophy and Life A. C. Grayling, 2023-04-06 Grayling brings satisfying order to daunting subjects Steven Pinker An enthusiastic thinker who embraces humour common sense and lucidity Independent _____ From the eminent philosopher an authoritative exploration of the great questions of how to live There is a question everyone has to ask and answer in fact has to keep on asking and keep on answering It is How should I live my life meaning What values shall I live by

What sort of person should I be What shall I aim for The great majority of people do not ask this question they merely answer it unthinkingly by adopting conventional views of life and what matters in it From Stoics to existentialists in philosophy and literature discussion of the philosophy of life of love and death of courage fortitude and wisdom challenges us all to think about what kinds of life are truly worth living In this summation of a lifetime thinking and writing about this great question A C Grayling explores with clarity and depth the ideas that each of us must use in answering it for ourselves Drawing on the lives experiences and works of a fantastically eclectic range of thinkers taking in not only philosophers such as Confucius Seneca and Nietzsche but also authors from Shakespeare to Ursula LeGuin and modern thinkers such as Martha Nussbaum and Bernard Williams Philosophy and Life brings together wisdom from across eras and continents in a tour de force on the philosophy of being human in a complicated world

The Experienced Soul Glenda Abramson, 2019-07-11 Yehuda Amichai is Israel's foremost poet as well as a significant novelist and dramatist He has received every major Israeli prize for literature and his poetry has been translated into over twenty languages Amichai has served as poet in residence at major universities across the United States and has been a frequent visitor to the University of Oxford In this volume the world's leading authorities on Amichai explore all the major genres and themes of his work The result is an important book that is a unique and comprehensive scholarly overview of a major twentieth century literary figure It will prove especially valuable to those teaching modern Hebrew literature at English language universities

The Longest Shadow Geoffrey H. Hartman, 1996 Distinguished literary scholar Geoffrey H Hartman himself forced to leave Germany at age nine collects his essays both scholarly and personal that focus on the Holocaust Hartman contends that although progress has been made we are only beginning to understand the horrendous events of 1933 to 1945 The continuing struggle for meaning consolation closure and the establishment of a collective memory against the natural tendency toward forgetfulness is a recurring theme The many forms of response to the devastation from historical research and survivors testimony to the novels films and monuments that have appeared over the last fifty years reflect and inform efforts to come to grips with the past despite events like those at Babi Yar that attempt to foreclose it The stricture that poetry after Auschwitz is barbaric is countered by the increased sense of responsibility incumbent on the creators of these works

Hiddenness, Uncertainty, Surprise Jane Hirshfield, 2008 In her three lectures Hirshfield examines the roles of hiddenness uncertainty and surprise as they appear in poetry and other works of literature in the life and psyche of the writer and in the broader life of the culture as a whole
