The Great Victorian Collection BRIAN. MOORE, 2025-09-16

Anthony Maloney a scholar of Victorian history checks into a motel in Carmel California goes to sleep and dreams of a priceless collection of rare Victorian artifacts When he wakes up and looks out the window he is astonished to find his dream has become reality in the parking lot an enormous assortment of Victoriana lays spread out like an open air market When the world gets wind of this strange and fantastic occurrence experts arrive to examine the items and discover that impossibly some of the objects are identical to one of a kind items only found in the British Museum and yet somehow they are not fakes As news of his collection spreads Maloney finds himself besieged by the news media psychological and parapsychological investigators antiquarians and those who want to exploit him for their own personal gain and soon what began as a beautiful dream spirals out of control into a terrible nightmare Northern Irish born Brian Moore 1921 1999 was one of the most critically acclaimed authors of his generation and was a three time finalist for the prestigious Booker Prize The Great Victorian Collection 1975 winner of the James Tait Black Memorial Prize for best British novel of the year is by turns mysterious and tragic a page turner that readers will find it impossible to put down He is my favorite living novelist Each book of his is unpredictable dangerous and amusing He treats the novel as a tamer treats a wild beast Graham Greene The Great Victorian Collection seems to me a perfect novel It dazzles It unsettles It puzzles some people shatters others It shattered me Joan Didion Brian Moore Jo O'Donoghue, 1991 Brian Moore is exceptional among contemporary novelists in the breadth and consistency of his work His fiction ranges from thrillers and gothic adventures through historical subjects He remains one of the few writers of serious fiction who appeals to academic critics and the general reader alike Four Contemporary Novels Kerry McSweeney, 1983-01-01 Four Contemporary Novelists offer accounts of the fiction of Angus Wilson Brian Moore John Fowles and V S Naipaul The author has charted the development of each writer identified dominant themes controlling techniques and informing sensibility explained what each has tried to accomplish and compare theory to practice provided an appropriate context for appreciation and evaluation of all parts of each canon and made qualitative discriminations Victoriana Cora Kaplan, 2007 In Victoriana leading feminist cultural critic Cora Kaplan reflects on our modern obsession with Victorian culture She considers evocations of the nineteenth century in literature The French Lieutenant's Woman by John Fowles Possession by A S Byatt Nice Work by David Lodge The Master by Colm Tóibín Fingersmith by Sarah Waters The Line of Beauty by Alan Hollinghurst film Jane Campion's The Piano and biography Peter Ackroyd's Dickens Why she asks does Jane Eyre still evoke tears and rage from its readers and why has Henry James become fiction's favorite late Victorian author Within Victoriana Kaplan argues lies a modern history of its own that reflects the shifting social and cultural concerns of the last few decades Distance has lent a sense of antique charm and exoticism to even the worst abuses of the period but it has also allowed innovative writers and filmmakers to use Victorian settings and language to develop a new and challenging aesthetic Issues of class gender empire and race are explored as well as the pleasures and dangers of imitating or referencing narrative forms individual histories and belief systems As Kaplan makes clear Victoriana can be seen as a striking example of historical imagination on the move restless and unsettled

The Collector's Voice Susan Pearce, Rosemary Flanders, Fiona Morton, 2016-12-05 The Collector's Voice is a major four volume project which brings together in accessible form material relevant to the history and practice of collecting in the European tradition from c 1500 BC to the present day The series demonstrates how attitudes to objects the collecting of objects and the shape of the museum institution have developed over the past 3000 years Material presented includes translations of a wide range of original documents letters official reports verse fiction travellers accounts catalogues and labels Volume 1 Ancient Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Alexandra Bounia Volume 2 Early Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Kenneth Arnold Volume 3 Imperial Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Rosemary Flanders Volume 4 Contemporary Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Paul Martin

Landscapes of Encounter Liam Gearon, 2002 Brian Moore 1921 1999 is one of the few novelists whose literary portrayal of Catholicism effectively spans the period prior to and following the Second Vatican Council Many critics have discussed how Moore's life is reflected in his works while others have dismissed his fictions as simple narratives in the mould of classical realism In this timely book Gearon contends that Moore's fictions are far more complex as he was one of the great observers of Catholicism in all its modern and historical controversy

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book

Modern Fantasy: The 100 Best Novels David Pringle, 2014-09-30 Pringle presents his selections in chronological order and includes a synopsis of the story a discussion of the author's overall contribution to fantasy literature critical commentary on the title's significance and a brief publishing history An introductory essay tackles the difficulty of defining fantasy while a Brief Bibliography directs readers to other discussions of the genre By no means a definitive subject guide this entertaining volume should serve as a solid introduction to the elusive field of imaginative literature

Writing in Parts Kevin McLaughlin, 1995-01-01 Proposing a new interpretation of literature and mass culture in nineteenth century Europe this work focuses on works by Marx Balzac Dickens Adorno and Benjamin to explore in them a complex mimetic disposition toward commodification in the realm of culture The aim of the book is twofold to explicate in the work of Balzac and Dickens subtle and profoundly ambivalent attitudes toward the rapidly expanding mass culture of the 1830's in France and England and to identify through this reading of the novelists a common mimetic element that has eluded a certain dialectical approach to art's overcoming of mass culture an approach best exemplified in Horkheimer and Adorno's influential essay on the culture industry Neo-Victorianism Ann Heilmann, Mark Llewellyn, 2010-07-28 This field defining book offers an interpretation of the recent figurations of neo Victorianism published over the last ten years Using a range of critical and cultural viewpoints it highlights the problematic nature of this new genre and its relationship to re interpretative critical perspectives on the nineteenth century On Collecting Susan Pearce, 2013-10-28 Adopted on Leicester University Museum studies course Excellent reviews and good HB sales The author is extremely well qualified to write this book 20 years in museums field and many years researching collecting Author is very well known in the museums and material cultures world The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors London and Literature, 1603-1901 Angela Kikue Davenport, Yui Nakatsuma, Barnaby Ralph, 2017-01-06 London and Literature 1603 1901 brings together papers by scholars and researchers interested in British literature of the period covered It will be of value to the many students and colleagues of the contributors as well as people connected with or influenced by the work of Eiichi Hara This volume covers literature from the beginning of the Jacobean period to the end of the Victorian era It takes the city of London as its focus and the chapters explore different aspects of the interaction of literature and place covering works by major figures within the time period This connection is doubly significant as the book is also a Festschrift to celebrate the career of Eiichi Hara the most renowned Dickensian in Japan and a scholar with a particular interest in London With a preface by Gerald Dickens the great great grandson of Charles Dickens and a foreword by Toru Sasaaki President of the English Literary Society of Japan London and Literature 1603 1901 brings together leading scholars in the field of English literature to offer a series of valuable perspectives on the city and its artistic life 100 Must-read Fantasy Novels Nick Rennison, Stephen E. Andrews, 2009-09-28 Fantasy is one of the most visible genres in popular culture we see the creation of magical and imagined worlds and characters in every type of media with very strong fan bases in tow This latest guide in the successful Bloomsbury Must Read series covers work from a wide range of authors Tolkien Philip Pullman Terry Pratchett Michael Moorcock Rudyard Kipling and C S Lewis to very contemporary writers such as Garth Nix and Steven Erikson If you want to expand your range of reading or deepen your understanding of this genre this is the best place to start Pathologies of Travel , 2016-08-22 The essays in this volume which range across Europe America and Africa and from the 18th to the 20th centuries argue that the experience of travel and the business of representing that experience involved an obligatory engagement with the disturbing perception that travel's pleasures were inseparable from its dangers and ennui Despite the confidence of some medical authorities in their recommendations of the therapeutic benefits to be derived from change of air as a way of restoring a state of health such opinions failed to establish a consensus either amongst those who followed such peripatetic prescriptions or amongst the medical professions in general Mad doctors and climatologists alike were forced to adopt an essentially partisan stance in arguing their case for such recommendations and were confronted by rival practitioners who could marshal counter case histories which demonstrated diametrically opposed conclusions concerning the advisability of travel To this extent the history of travel and its pathologies is a particularly revealing instance of the way medical thinking was dependent on localised studies which might do more to challenge the universal applicability of generally accepted theories than they did to confirm their diagnostic reliability The essays collected here not only contribute to our understanding of the conception and application of a variety of medical ideas showing how they depended on beliefs about climate and corporeal constitution as well as often inconsistent data or r cits culled from travellers and geographically dispersed case histories but also open up illuminatingly complex perspectives on the uncertainties and dangers of the phenomenon of modern travel

Negotiating Sexual Idioms Marie-Luise Kohlke, Luisa Orza, 2008 Negotiating Sexual Idioms Image Text Performance affords new theoretical approaches and insights into the complexity of sexual discourse pervading contemporary cultures exploring sexuality s role in dominant conceptualisations of self and society in patterns of political belonging and exclusion and in societal transformations Opening with a substantial critical introduction this collection of twelve essays and creative pieces contributes to significant current debates regarding sexual rights and their violation queer theory and identity politics sexual fantasy formations and strategies of pleasure and the celebration of sexual diversity topics explored through a variety of disciplinary frameworks including gender and film studies religious philosophy neo Victorian and postcolonial literature sociology pornography and performance art The volume positions the subjects of sex and sexuality as crucial to our ethical understanding of the human both in individual and communal terms exploring how claims for sexual subjectivity and citizenship are formulated and the entitlements they entail The analytical insights offered signal important new directions for critical engagement with the socio political construction of sexuality and its strategic deployment within the cultural imaginary Designed to appeal equally to scholars students and general readers Negotiating Sexual Idioms will prove essential reading for those interested in multi disciplinary approaches to reading sex and sexuality within inter cultural contexts from the early modern period to the present day

A Small Nation's Contribution to the World Bertha Bertha, 1994-10-25 This collection contains a selection from the papers given at the 1989 conference of the International Association for the study of Anglo Irish Literature The selection is broadly representative of the truly international nature of the conference whose delegates came from every continent and of the study of Irish literature today It includes essays on Beckett Joyce Friel Yeats O Casey Parker Clarke Kinsella Muldoon Mahon Banville Brian Moore Edna O'Brien Swift and Edgeworth as well as on critical issues such as the uses of the fantastic in prose and drama modernism and romanticism Irish semiotics social criticisms in contemporary Irish poetry and especially appropriate for the occasion the relationship and influence of Hungary and Ireland in one another s literature Contributors to this volume are Csilla Bertha Eoin Bourke

Patrick Burke Martin J Croghan Ruth Felischmann Maurice Harmon Werner Huber Thomas Kabdebo Veronica Kniezsa Maria Raizis Aladar Sarbu Bernice Schrank Joseph Swann and Andras Ungar This is the forty fifth volume of the Irish Literary Studies Series The Irish Voice in America Charles Fanning,2014-07-11 In this study Charles Fanning has written the first general account of the origins and development of a literary tradition among American writers of Irish birth or background who have explored the Irish immigrant or ethnic experience in works of fiction The result is a portrait of the evolving fictional self consciousness of an immigrant group over a span of 250 years Fanning traces the roots of Irish American writing back to the eighteenth century and carries it forward through the traumatic years of the Famine to the present time with an intensely productive period in the twentieth century beginning with James T Farrell Later writers treated in depth include Edwin O Connor Elizabeth Cullinan Maureen Howard and William Kennedy Along the way he places in the historical record many all but forgotten writers including the prolific Mary Ann Sadlier The Irish Voice in America is not only a highly readable contribution to American literary history but also a valuable reference to many writers and their works For this second edition Fanning has added a chapter that covers the fiction of the past decade He argues that contemporary writers continue to draw on Ireland as a source and are important chroniclers of the modern American experience Fiction and the Fiction Industry J. A. Sutherland,2014-01-13 This topical lively and wide ranging book examines the material conditions under which the contemporary English novel is produced and consumed Its starting point is the general economic emergency which showed up these conditions with unusual clarity in the early 1970s The first section of the book Crisis and Change considers the changing patterns of institutional book purchase inflation and novel production the Americanisation of the British book trade and the present state of fiction reviewing The second section State Remedies surveys such interventions and failed interventions as Public Lending Right Arts Council patronage and university support for creative writers The third section Trends Mainly American selects specific areas paperback publishing self publishing book clubs television work which offer pointers to significant future developments in British literary culture Fiction and the Fiction Industry pays close attention to actual novels combining literary criticism with its examination of the book trade
