Great Day For The Deadly:

Quoth the Raven Jane Haddam, 2013-03-05 As college students get dressed up for Halloween ex FBI agent Gregor Demarkian must catch a real campus ghoul before another faculty member is murdered Since Father Tibor Kasparian escaped the Soviet Union he has done his best to keep his philosophy to himself not out of fear but because he knows that few people could stomach an honest account of life under Stalinism When he gets an invitation to spend a semester teaching philosophy at Independence College Kasparian hesitates but his friend Gregor Demarkian a former FBI investigator convinces him to accept They will both wish he had decided to stay away At Independence Halloween is the biggest party of the year it s also the anniversary of the day that the school s colonial founders pledged themselves to the American Revolution As the students prepare to burn an effigy of King George the hated professor Donegal Steele vanishes and his secretary turns up dead To keep his old friend from becoming the next victim Demarkian will have to do his homework

New Old-fashioned Ways Jack Santino, 1996 Every year as each holiday rolls around American popular culture is suddenly awash in images associated with that festivity While Christmas has been the most obviously commercialized celebration Halloween Easter the Fourth of July Hanukkah Thanksgiving and Valentine s Day are also reflected in the offerings of the mass media and consumer products industries This book is the first in depth investigation of the myriad ways in which traditional holidays are both manifested and exploited in a commercial consumerist society Jack Santino s analysis encompasses everything from movies to romance novels from television shows to comic books One especially fascinating feature of this study is its examination of the packaged foods industry and the manner in which soft drinks beer snack cakes cookies candy and breakfast cereals are regularly repackaged to reflect particular holidays In what becomes a central theme of the book Santino shows how holidays give companies the opportunity to create an illusion of novelty for products that otherwise remain unchanged over time For example the holiday Chips Ahoy cookies or Halloween Oreos differ only in their appearance from the everyday products but they assume a quality of uniqueness through their association with a special time of the year Throughout the book Santino examines the logic by which commercial culture and holidays are linked Halloween for instance with its traditional symbolism of death evil and monsters has served as a theme for heavy metal music and slasher films This in turn has led to some interesting transmutations as one text borrows from another in the wake of a commercial success When John Carpenter s pioneering 1978 slasher film Halloween became a box office hit it was perhaps inevitable that other holiday based slasher films New Year s Evil April Fool s Day and Silent Night Deadly Night would follow Copiously illustrated New Old Fashioned Ways is at once entertaining and informative a treat for general readers as well as an important work for scholars in a variety of fields including communications folklore anthropology sociology and business

Ethan Smith,1837 The Greatest Air Aces Stories Ever Told Robert Barr Smith,Laurence J. Yadon,2017-04-03 In thirty five chapters The Greatest Air Aces Stories Ever Told covers many of the leading American and British Commonwealth fighter aces of WW I and II together with a few bomber crews whose gallantry made a substantial contribution to the end of WW II Other nations had their aces but this book concentrates on American and Commonwealth pilots These aviators were chosen not only because of their scores and their great courage but also for other qualities which set them apart like the WWII Royal Air Force Wing Commander who shot down more than 20 Germans while flying with two artificial legs Here are a few of the aces Note that the air forces of Europe and the United States did not always have today s names used here for simplicity s sake Albert Ball RAF son of the Lord Mayor of Nottingham winner of the Victoria Cross He had 44 victories in WWI when he was killed at the age of 20 well known to his German foes who much admired him Gabby Gabreski USAF Son of hard working Polish immigrants An ace in WWII with 28 kills and later in Korea with another six He was an accomplished commander finished a long career as a colonel Mick Mannock RAF Tough and aggressive in spite of his fear of fire he won not only the Victoria Cross but five other high awards for gallantry Highest British scorer of WWI with 73 victories he detested Germans and rejoiced with every kill He was shot down by ground fire in the last year of the war David McCampbell USN Scored 34 WWII kills to become the U S Navy s all time ace In 1944 set an all time record with nine victories on a single mission Winner of the Congressional Medal Pickard RAF Led the RAF rooftop bomber raid on Amiens Prison In WWII freeing many underground members some of whom were facing death and who were promptly spirited away by French partisans Frank Luke USAF Deadly American famous for his busting of German observation balloons in WWI Shot up over German territory he managed to land safely but being Luke tried to fight it out with enemy infantrymen with only his pistol The book will also touch on the equipment these aces flew from the famous Fokkers and Sopwith Camels to the ungainly two seater FE2b which was driven by a pusher engine and looked like a bathtub with wings and a miniature oil derrick glued on the back Also included are our own Grumman carrier fighters the P 40s the P 38s as well as the P 51 Mustang probably the finest fighter of the war a happy marriage of an American airframe and a British engine The deadly graceful Spitfire has its place as do the Hurricane the biplane Gladiator and even the four engine Lancaster The Good Guy For Sure! Carolyn Green Haynes,2025-09-20 The Good Guy is facing challenges in a post retirement world He constantly questions himself and where he belongs in the world now that he has no occupational profile Characters however in his life provide moral support and answers as he adventures into unknown territory within his mind dealing with society norms at 65 years old TRUE CRIME: I FELL ASLEEP! Sarah Boone 'Suitcase Killer' Beccy Lockes,True Crime,2025-01-12 Worst Hangover Ever Learn everything there is to know about this gripping True Crime After four years sitting in jail Sarah I Fell Asleep Boone is found Guilty of Second Degree Murder for going upstairs to bed and leaving her partner trapped in a suitcase It was never a murder mystery so why did it take four and a half years to finally bring her case to trial Because of Sarah Boone that s why I mean I've always been a straight A student I am an outstanding mother to my son I excel at everything I would not do that Including all 30 of her snark filled letters to the attorneys who faithfully represented her and to the respected judges who presided over her criminal case and family court I Fell Asleep patches together Suitcase Killer Sarah Boone's real story Beginning with her 911 call 12 hours after leaving him trapped police interviews at the scene and the closely following interrogations by Orange County homicide detectives we can see how her story changes From trivial things to important things like their drinking habits their history of domestics and exactly what happened that night and why Initially it appears an unfortunate accident after a drunk loving couple decided it would be funny to play hide and seek But as Sarah Boone's story evolves it becomes far more sinister This isn't an accident this is a True Crime for the ages Well I didn't completely lock it I mean I left it open for his fingers I left enough in there for him to get out Through transcripts of the early police interactions with Sarah and witness interviews taken a few days later with ex husband and neighbors a picture develops of her true character and how she lives her life Never one to be downtrodden Sarah fights her corner viciously We can read this in her letters to the judges complaining about her attorneys and how the Judge is trampling my constitutional rights We can see from her letters to the family court judge there is nothing she will not complain about Her forced stint at representing herself in court shows a certain knack for the legal profession but even Sarah was not so arrogant she thought it would be a good idea to represent herself at trial Luckily she is saved at the last minute by an attorney from Tennessee Hear her testimony at trial Hear her turn down a plea deal Hear her jaw dropping remorseless speech at sentencing in front of the victim's friends and family With Sarah she can go through nine attorneys and still thinks she isn't the problem She can leave a man to die inside a zipped suitcase by going upstairs to bed and falling asleep and still blame the man Get your snark shoes on and dive into the True Crime ridiculousness of Sarah Suitcase Killer Boone

With The Trench Mortars In France [Illustrated Edition] Captain William Esmonde Lennox Napier, 2014-06-13 Illustrated with a portrait of the author and multiple illustrations of the mortar weapons The following account of the work of the Light Trench Mortars in France is given in order that the usefulness in the Great War of this wonderful invention of Stokes may be more widely known in New Zealand than at present is the case The information given in the following pages is all of more or less value because it has been gained from personal experience in the field in France and with the help of official war diaries of different batteries engaged both in trench warfare and in attack and these batteries are considered to have taken part in more offensive actions than any other batteries in the whole British Army commencing from Armenti res in February 1916 right up to the end of the War Very little has been said in any other book written during or since the War not even in the History of the N Z E F nor in the history of any of its regiments of the Trench Mortars or their work and therefore without making this little brochure an effort for people to read by supplying a lot of technical detail I think it preferable to narrate in simple language some of the principal achievements of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force with this wonderful invention of Sir Wilfred Stokes after its introduction to the Army Introduction Baily's Magazine of Sports & Pastimes ,1901 Baily's Magazine of Sports and Pastimes ,1901 *Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States, William J.
