Chibucos, Richard M. Lerner, 2012-12-06 A consistently identified criticism about contemporary higher education is that academia is not playing a visible role in contributing to the improvement of the lives of people in the community as the lives are lived on a day to day basis However there has been a long tradition of such Outreach Scholarship in America and this focus is gaining renewed attention at least in part because policy makers and philanthropic organizations are pressing universities and colleges to use their learning resources in ways that more directly benefit society Universities have listened to and continue to heed such appeals Serving Children and Families Through Community University Partnerships Success Stories illustrates such work by presenting several dozen exemplary success stories of community university partnerships that serve to enhance the lives of children youth and families These illustrations are drawn from collaborations across the breadth of the nation and reflect the work of many diverse colleges and universities Moreover these partnerships involve an array of target audiences ranging across the individual life span from infancy through old age and involving a diverse set of groups and organizations In addition this work takes many forms for example technical assistance evaluation training program design and delivery demonstration or participatory action research and dissemination The book is useful to two broad audiences 1 Individuals in and out of academia in decision making roles that directly impact what gets done or does not get done in colleges and universities and 2 Persons outside academia who are concerned with creating positive change across a wide range of issues pertinent to the lives of youth families and communities This volume will guide universities and communities to work together to promote positive development in the diverse children families and communities of our nation New Frontiers for Self Research Herbert Marsh,Rhonda G. Craven,Dennis M.

McInerney,2006-07-01 What Do Children Need to Flourish? Kristin Anderson Moore,Laura H. Lippman,2005-05-05 This volume responds to the intense concern for and interest in identifying and measuring what matters for happy healthy children who grow to be compassionate responsible adults And although innumerable organizations undertake efforts aimed at positive youth development this book takes the first step toward developing a system of national indicators that can be used to monitor positive behaviors and attitudes for children at the national level in communities and in programs
