Great Powers In The Pacific:

Great Powers and Geopolitics Aharon Klieman, 2015-04-02 This book presents the theoretical historical comparative political framework needed to fully grasp the truly dynamic nature of 21st century global affairs The author provides a realistic assessment of the shift from U S predominance to a new mix of counterbalancing rival middle tier and assertive regional powers while highlighting those geopolitical zones of contention most critical for future international stability The book will appeal to scholars and policy makers interested in understanding the contours of the emerging world order and in identifying its principal shapers and leading political actors

Great Power Competition and Order Building in the Indo-Pacific Frederick Kliem, 2022-06-24 This book argues that the new great power contest between the United States and the People's Republic of China which has as its epicentre the complex Indo Pacific region is having a detrimental impact on the region's existing order system Analysing why the great powers are increasingly at loggerheads the manifold risks this entails and how the various stakeholders in the Indo Pacific can find a durable regional order more constructive than confrontational the book avoiding theory proposes a new equilibrium based on practical ways to manage burgeoning conflict and maintain order and stability by compartmentalising problems and challenges while seeking to maintain a balance among stakeholder interests

India as an Asia Pacific Power David Brewster, 2012-03-12 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of India's international relations in the Asia Pacific region It charts the development of India's increasingly important role as a major world power discusses India's international relations strategy and examines India's relationship with each of the major countries of East and Southeast Asia

Korea's Future and the Great Powers Nicholas Eberstadt, Richard J. Ellings, 2012-03-15 The eventual reunification of the Korean Peninsula will send political and economic reverberations throughout Northeast Asia and will catalyze the struggle over a new regional order among the four great powers of the Pacific Russia China Japan and the United States Korea's Future and the Great Powers addresses the vital issues of how to achieve a stable political order in a unified Korea how to finance Korean economic reconstruction and how to link Korea into a cooperative framework of international diplomatic relations

The Strategic Options of Middle Powers in the Asia-Pacific Chien-Wen Kou, Chiung-Chiu Huang, Brian Job, 2022-06-23 This book analyses the responses of middle powers in the Asia Pacific toward the contemporary great powers rivalry of the United States and China through specific case studies of South Korea Australia Japan India Taiwan and Vietnam Presenting local perspectives from multiple middle powers as they face the task of maintaining the international order in light of the recent competition between China and the United States it further develops theories of foreign policy analyses forming a systematic framework through initiating crucial concepts including reluctant hedging economic statecraft and strategic position taking The contributions also provide an in depth examination of the contemporary geopolitics of the region including the impact of both the Trump and Biden administrations Beijing's Wolf Warrior diplomacy cross strait relations with Taiwan and the influences of Japan Vietnam

Australia and South Korea revealing that regional middle powers do indeed exert influence on the direction of regional cooperation in the Asia Pacific Providing comprehensive studies of many regional powers in the Asia Pacific this will be a valuable resource for scholars and students of International Politics Asian Politics Asian Studies as well as policy makers on Asia Pacific relations

From Far East to Asia Pacific Brian P. Farrell, S.R. Joey Long, David Ulbrich, 2022-07-18 The years 1900 to 1954 marked the transformation from an exotic colonized Far East to a more autonomous prominent Asia Pacific This anthology examines the grand strategies of great powers as they vied for influence and ultimately hegemony in the region At the turn of the twentieth century the main contestants included the venerable British Empire and the aspiring Japan and United States The unwieldy leviathan of China the European imperial holdings in Southeast Asia and the expanses of the western Pacific emerged as battlegrounds in literal and geopolitical terms Other less powerful nations such as India Burma Australia and French Indochina also exercised agency in crafting grand strategies to further their interests and in their interactions with those great powers Among the many factors affecting all nations invested in the Asia Pacific were such traditional elements as economics military power and diplomacy as well as fluid traits like ideology culture and personality The era saw the decline of British and European influence in the Asia Pacific the rise and fall of Japanese imperialism the emergence of American primacy the ongoing struggle for independence in Southeast Asia and China's resurrection as a contender for hegemony Great powers shifted and so too did their grand strategies

Shifting Power in Asia-Pacific? Enrico Fels, 2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing

Asia-Pacific Secondary States as Kingmakers Richard J. Cook, Maximilian Ohle, Zhaoying Han, 2025-05-30 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region Cook Ohle and Han investigate the escalating strategic competition between China and the US They explore the dynamics of key regional secondary states caught in the middle namely Japan South Korea the Philippines and Vietnam emphasising their crucial role as potential kingmakers in the shifting balance of power China and the US are competing to win influence over these regional linchpins to advance their geopolitical ambitions and ultimately win the strategic competition Elucidating a power of the weak paradox this contribution examines the challenging choices faced by these secondary states as they navigate alignment pressures which influence the trajectory of the great power strategic competition Drawing upon a range of first hand government sources and regional perspectives the authors take the temperature of the China US strategic competition revealing the intricate influencing dynamics and perilous choices linchpins are being pushed to make that will determine the fate of the Asia Pacific This is a timely resource for researchers students scholars and politicians navigating the complex realm of international relations by providing a profound exploration of power struggles strategic choices and the often overlooked role of secondary states China-US Great-Power Rivalry Lai-Ha Chan,Pak K. Lee,2024-04-19 This edited volume examines the competitive dynamics of two order building projects in the Indo Pacific namely China s Belt and Road Initiative BRI and the US led Free and Open Indo Pacific FOIP Foci are on how far the two major powers are able to use institutional projects to re order the region of the Indo Pacific to suit their policy preferences and on how regional powers perceive and navigate between the two ordering projects This book discusses a wide array of actors in the Indo Pacific covering the two major powers of China and the United States middle powers of Australia and New Zealand India Japan South Korea and Taiwan and institutional actors of ASEAN AUKUS the Quad and the Pacific Islands Forum Drawing on the concept of international order the chapters examine the actor specific foreign policies in relation to the rivalry between the FOIP and the BRI This accessible book will be a go to resource for anyone looking for how the two great powers garner legitimacy and followership for their own version of ordering project and how regional powers respond to the dynamic competition and navigate between China and the United States and between the forces of liberal democracy and autocracy

Security Strategies of Middle Powers in the Asia Pacific Ralf Emmers,Sarah Teo,2018-02-05 Security Strategies of Middle Powers in the Asia Pacific examines what drives the different regional security strategies of four middle powers in the Asia Pacific Australia Indonesia South Korea and Malaysia Drawing on the extant middle power literature the authors argue that the regional security strategies of middle powers could take two forms namely functional or normative A functional strategy means that the middle power targets its resources to address a specific problem that it has a high level of interest in while a normative strategy refers to a focus on promoting general behavioural standards and confidence building at the multilateral level This book argues that whether a middle power ultimately employs a more functional or normative regional security strategy depends on its resource availability and strategic environment The Balance of Power in Asia-Pacific Security Liselotte Odgaard,2007-01-24 Investigating the dynamics of balancing patterns in the Asia Pacific this book focuses particularly on the contribution of great powers and middle powers to regional stability Taking the US and China as great powers and using ASEAN Russia Australia and South Korea as example of middle powers the author addresses the following questions Do middle powers influence balancing patterns in the Asia Pacific Are the United States and China balancing each other in the Asia Pacific and if so by which means What is the contribution of the English school to understanding balance of power dynamics The Balance of Power in Asia Pacific Security makes a persuasive contribution to the debate on the US China relationship Interviews with policy practitioners and academics in the region offer a systematic analysis of the complexities of Asia Pacific security Providing conceptual insights this book gives a fresh understanding of the mechanisms necessary to maintain regional stability and explains the implications of US China power balancing for global security It will be an important resource for scholars and students of Asia Pacific politics and security Handbook of Indo-Pacific

Studies Barbara Kratiuk, Jeroen Van den Bosch, Aleksandra Jaskólska, Yoichiro Sato, 2023-03-08 This handbook explores the significance of the Indo Pacific in world politics It shows how the re emergence of the Indo Pacific in international relations has fundamentally changed the approach to politics economics and security The volume explores the themes related to trade politics and security for better understanding of the Indo Pacific and the repercussions of the region s emergence studies different security and political issues in the region military competition maritime governance strategic alliances and rivalries and international conflicts analyses various socio economic dimensions of the Indo Pacific such as political systems cultural and religious contexts and trade and financial systems examines the strategies of various states such as the United States Japan India and China and their approaches towards the Indo Pacific covers the role of middle powers and small states in detail Interdisciplinary in approach and with essays from authors from around the world this volume will be indispensable to scholars researchers and students in the fields of international relations politics and Asian studies Great Power Strategies - The United States, China and Japan Quansheng Zhao, 2022-09-05 This book provides a comparative study of the strategies of great powers in the Asia Pacific namely the United States China and Japan known as the Pacific Three It examines the evolution of each power s strategic thinking and analyzes the three powers respective foreign policies and internal debates in the policymaking process It analyzes the three countries conflict and cooperation from past to the present It stresses the importance of the interactions between internal and external factors in the policymaking process and emphasizes the great significance of these interactions for international relations theory For example it highlights the role of strategic advisers in think tanks and government agencies in the United States Japan s informal and balanced policymaking process and the impact of traditional culture in China especially Confucianism and the part played by Chinese think tanks

Great Power Competition as the New Normal of China-US Relations Jinghao Zhou, 2022-09-01 Will China U S relations come back to the normal track Does the confrontational approach work for China US relations This book argues that it is an unrealistic hope to bring China US relations back to the so called normal track because the great power competition will be a new normal of China US relations and the USA will gain more from strategic competition than cooperation in the long run This book shows that the strategy of great power cooperation through competition is more positive and constructive than the approaches of peaceful coexist and maximum pressure This book does not intend to provide policy recommendations for governments to consider but mainly to explain why the great power competition is inevitable and why it is necessary to continuously work with China in some areas through strategic competition This book alarms the importance of understanding the nature of the Chinese Communist Party during the great power competition and aims to motivate both sides to revisit their foreign policy practice and come up with a better foreign policy strategy of handling China US relations

Power in the 21st Century Enrico Fels, Jan-Frederik Kremer, Katharina Kronenberg, 2012-04-12 The study of power is the nucleus of political science and international relations As a shift of power from traditional industrial countries to emerging powers has been perceived since the turn of the century this book aims to present innovative theoretical and empirical approaches that can increase our understanding of this transition Scholars from the fields of international relations international political economy economics and security studies not only explore current theoretical debates on power and power shifts among entities but also provide fresh insights into relevant aspects of international power in the 21st century With a particular focus on aspects of international security trade and production new methods of identifying power and its sources are presented and their potential implications and challenges are discussed

Geopolitics, Military Modernisation and the Future of the Indo-Pacific Bates Gill, Adam Lockyer, Yves-Heng Lim, Andrew T. H. Tan, 2024-08-02 This book examines to what extent geopolitics explains the current wave of force modernisation in the Indo Pacific region Examining the leading Indo Pacific nations in terms of defence spending the United States China India Japan South Korea Australia Taiwan Singapore Pakistan Indonesia and Thailand geopolitical principles are used to create hypotheses that can be tested against the military modernisation programmes of the major actors in the Indo Pacific region The book represents a bridge between reference works and the literature on international politics in the Indo Pacific The empirical chapters provide qualitative narratives that explore the force postures military modernisation and procurement patterns of the cases and assess why these nations military modernisation has followed particular courses and evaluate this evidence against the expectations of geopolitics and its rivals This book will be a valuable addition to scholars practitioners and indeed anyone interested in the future stability of one of the world's most important and dynamic regions

The United States and the Great Powers Barry Buzan, 2004-10-15 Arguing that we live in a world where great powers such as China and the EU are not helpless in the face of the United States this text contends that the other major nations of the world must work alongside the US in order to counter balance America's current dominance of the international political scene

Asia-Pacific Strategic Relations William T. Tow, 2001-12-10 This comprehensive 2002 book is an overview of security issues in the Asia Pacific It is also an argument for a strategy that promises to achieve greater regional stability It argues that current approaches by policy makers increase the likelihood of conflict Instead it proposes that a strategy of convergent security be adopted to build a more enduring and peaceful regional security framework A concise survey of key approaches to regional security politics it presents a vast selection of empirical discussion both historical and current Assessing the outlook for the three powers most likely to vie for regional dominance the United States China and Japan the book also reviews the prospects for other secondary powers including Korea and Taiwan and analyses the role of Australia and the ASEAN nations of Southeast Asia Unique accessible authoritative and broad ranging survey designed for a wide body of analysts and students of contemporary Asian politics and strategy Security Politics in the Asia-Pacific William T. Tow, 2009-10-15 Asia is experiencing major changes in its security relations This book brings together respected experts to assess both the theoretical and empirical dimensions of the Asian security debate Building on the latest research on Asia's regional security politics it focuses on the regional global nexus as a way to understand the dynamics of Asian security politics and its intersection with global security Contributors to the volume offer diverse but complementary perspectives on which issues and factors are most important in explaining how security politics in Asia can be interpreted at both the regional and global levels of analysis Issues addressed include power balancing and alliances governance and democracy maritime and energy security the relationship between economics and security human security terrorism nuclear non proliferation climate change and pandemics This work will serve as a standard reference on the evolution of key issues in Asian security Annual Report on the Development of the Indian Ocean Region (2018) Cuiping Zhu, 2019-06-11 The report was written by senior scholars of international studies and Indian Ocean studies and focuses on international relations in Indian Ocean region and covers many aspects of Indo Pacific The report includes both strategic review and major events and related data in this region This book also includes the origin the aims frameworks and regional and global impact of Indo Pacific The book includes the authors from 5 different institutes in China which provide readers with a full and authentic picture of Indo Pacific most recent development This year's Annual Report is the Sixth of this kind and the only one which covers exclusively on the Indian Ocean region in China
