Known for his intricate narrative style and rich vocabulary, this collection reveals his exploration of themes such as social reform, existential angst, and the interplay between fate and free will. Included are classic novels such as Night and Morning and The Last Days of Pompeii, each illustrating Bulwer-Lytton's penchant for vivid description and psychological depth, all set against the backdrop of a rapidly changing 19th-century society. Edward Bulwer-Lytton (1803-1873) was a prominent English novelist, playwright, and politician whose prolific output made him one of the most popular authors of his time. His diverse career choices, ranging from parliamentary service to early involvement in spiritual and philosophical movements, alongside his friendships with leading literary figures, enriched his narratives with layers of meaning. Facing shifting paradigms of romanticism and realism, Bulwer-Lytton's work often reflected his concerns about morality and human nature. This collected works offers readers an invaluable opportunity to delve into the mind of a visionary thinker and writer. For those interested in the intersections of literature and society, this collection is not only a testament to Bulwer-Lytton's literary prowess but also an essential resource for understanding Victorian themes and concerns that resonate even today.
