laughter but often in protest The Wimp Factor Stephen Ducat,2005-09-07 In this landmark exploration of how male anxiety has come to define our political culture Stephen J Ducat shows the link between the desperate macho strutting of male politicians the gender gap in voting behavior and fundamentalist holy wars He argues that a direct association exists between the magnitude of a man's femiphobia that is his terror of being perceived as feminine and his tendency to embrace right wing political opinions From the strenuous efforts by handlers to counter George H W Bush's wimp factor to the swaggering arrogance that led to the moral and military quagmire in U S occupied Iraq anxious masculinity has been a discernible subtext in politics Ducat shows how this anxiety has been an underlying force in public life throughout the history of Western culture and also explores why and how certain political issues get gendered Analyzing various aspects of popular culture and drawing on pioneering research on the gender gap The Wimp Factor is a fascinating exposé that will alter our understanding of contemporary politics Communication Yearbook 24 William Gudykunst,2012-03-22 The Communication Yearbook annuals publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline Sponsored by the International Communication Association each volume provides a forum for the exchange of interdisciplinary and internationally diverse scholarship relating to communication in its many forms This volume reissues the yearbook from 2001 Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby,Gearoid O'u Tuathail,2002-01-22 Rethinking Geopolitics argues that the concept of geopolitics needs to be conceptualised anew as the twenty first century approaches Challenging conventional geopolitical assumptions contributors explore theories of post modern geopolitics historical formulations of states and cold wars the geopolitics of the Holocaust the gendered dimension of Kurdish insurgency the cold war world political cartoons concerning Bosnia Time magazine representations of the Persian Gulf the Zapatistas and the Chiapas revolt the new cyber politics conflict simulations in the US military the emergence of a new geopolitics of global security Exploring how popular cultural assumptions about geography and politics constitute the discourses of contemporary violence and political economy Rethinking Geopolitics shows that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power The Comic Art of War Christina M. Knopf,2015-08-13 For military cartoonists the absurdity of war inspires a laugh or cry response and provides an endless source of un-funny amusement Cartoons by hundreds of artists at arms from more than a dozen countries and spanning two centuries are included in this study the first to consider such a broad range of military comics War and military life are examined through the inside jokes of the men and women who served The author analyzes themes of culture hierarchy enemies and allies geography sexuality combat and civilian relations and describes how comics function within a community A number of artists included were known for their work with Disney Marvel Comics the New Yorker and Madison Avenue but many lesser known artists are recognized The Corn Wolf Michael Taussig,2015-12-02 Collecting a decade of work from iconic anthropologist and writer Michael Taussig The Corn Wolf pinpoints a moment of intellectual development for the master stylist exemplifying the nervous system approach to writing and truth that has characterized his trajectory Pressured by the permanent state of emergency that imbues our times this approach marries storytelling with theory thickening spiraling analysis with ethnography and putting the study of so called primitive societies back on the anthropological agenda as a way of better understanding the sacred in everyday life The leading figure of these projects is the corn wolf whom Wittgenstein used in his fierce polemic on Frazer s Golden Bough For just as the corn wolf slips through the magic of language in fields of danger and disaster so we are emboldened to take on the widespread culture of academic or what he deems agribusiness writing which strips ethnography from its capacity to surprise and connect with other worlds whether peasant farmers in Colombia Palestinians in Israel protestors in Zuccotti Park or eccentric yet fundamental aspects of our condition such as animism humming or the acceleration of time A glance at the chapter titles such as The Stories Things Tell or Iconoclasm Dictionary along with his zany drawings testifies to the resonant sensibility of these works which lope like the corn wolf through the boundaries of writing and understanding The Christian Science Monitor Index ,1998
