Education As Contested Terrain Robert F Arno, 1994-11-15 Education As Contested Terrain Robert F Arno, 1994-11-15 The Undermining of the Sandinista Revolution Gary Prevost, Harry E. Vanden, 2016-07-27 The Sandinista revolution brought dramatic social economic and political changes to Nicaragua in the 1980s but in the wake of the electoral defeat of the FSLN in 1990 the revolution has struggled to survive in the face of challenges from the Chamorro administration the US government and the International Monetary Fund Gains of the revolution in health care education Atlantic Coast autonomy agrarian reform and other areas have been systematically eroded However significant efforts have also been mounted especially in grass roots organizing and by women s organizations to protect the revolution s achievements Through a series of articles based on current research seven experts on contemporary Nicaragua draw a balance sheet on the gains of Sandinista revolution achieved by 1990 and assess the current status of the revolutionary project Latin American Education Carlos Alberto Torres, 2019-03-06 This book offers a relevant sample of the current research on Latin American education in comparative perspective In their introduction Torres and Puiggros two of the most recognized researchers of Latin American education draw from political sociology of education theories of the state history of education and deconstructionist theories to focus on changes in state formation in the region and its implications for the constitution of the pedagogical subject in public schools Throughout the different chapters the contributors present and analyze the most relevant topics research agendas and some of the key theoretical and political problems of Latin American education The Cultural Production of the Educated Person Bradley A. Levinson, Douglas E. Foley, Dorothy C. Holland, 1996-01-01 Examines the ways in which cultural practices and knowledges are produced in and out of schools around the world The Michigan Alumnus, 1994 In volumes 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual First Freire Carlos Alberto Torres, 2014-06-08 In his new book Carlos Alberto Torres an internationally renowned critical theorist of education explores the early writings of Paulo Freire whose ideas have had a tremendous and long lasting impact on the world of pedagogy and politics Torres analyzes Freire s works from the 1960s and 1970s before Freire gained worldwide recognition for his Pedagogy of the Oppressed Offering an in depth look into the formative thinking of Freire Torres identifies how his ideas produced frameworks for educating global citizens building community and mutual respect creating social responsibility instilling an appreciation for diversity promoting multiple literacies and social justice education This volume is the result of more than 3 decades of research with access to Freire s personal library and the archives of the Paulo Freire Institute as well as the author s extensive conversations with Paulo Freire over two decades Dr Torres was Freire s adviser during his tenure as Secretary of Education in the Municipality of S o Paulo Brazil 1989 1991 First Freire is a fascinating discourse on the meaning and power of Freire s contribution by a noted colleague and scholar Henry M Levin William Heard Kilpatrick Professor of Economics and Education Teachers College Columbia University Paulo Freire was one of the great educational and political philosophers of the 20th century In First Freire Torres a foremost Freire scholar has provided us with a wonderful and insightful analysis of the many facets of Freire s writings Particularly important is Torres ability to situate Freire s work in the political context that framed and defined his writings Hopefully First Freire will inspire a new generation of educators to move beyond the current neo liberal discussions about student test scores and what works to understand the political meaning of education Martin Carnoy Vida Jacks Professor of Education Stanford University Professor Torres successfully combines in unconventional ways his personal reminiscences of Freire with essays that illuminate Freire s political philosophy and thoughts on the anthropology of education demonstrating specific approaches one can use to engage in the method of thematic investigation proposed by Freire A considerable merit of this book is how it persuasively shows the timely relevance of the critical observations of this great Latin American thinker to contemporary society as we struggle to go beyond economic and technological globalization to rebuild our changed but still community oriented selves Nelly P Stromquist professor University of Maryland

Comics and Memory in Latin America Jorge Catalá Carrasco, Paulo Drinot, James Scorer, 2017-07-06 Latin American comics and graphic novels have a unique history of addressing controversial political cultural and social issues This volume presents new perspectives on how comics on and from Latin America both view and express memory formation on major historical events and processes The contributors from a variety of disciplines including literary theory cultural studies and history explore topics including national identity construction narratives of resistance to colonialism and imperialism the construction of revolutionary traditions and the legacies of authoritarianism and political violence The chapters offer a background history of comics and graphic novels in the region and survey a range of countries and artists such as Joaquin Salvador Lavado a k a Quino Hector G Oesterheld and Juan Acevedo They also highlight the unique ability of this art and literary form to succinctly render memory In sum this volume offers in depth analysis of an understudied yet key literary genre in Latin American memory studies and documents the essential role of comics during the transition from dictatorship to democracy Zapata Lives! Lynn Stephen, 2002-01-02 This study chronicles recent political events in southern Mexico up to and including the July 2000 election of Vincente Fox the book focuses on the meaning that Emiliano Zapata a symbol of land reform and human rights has had and now has for rural Mexicans Biopolitics, Militarism, and Development David O'Kane, Tricia Redeker Hepner, 2009-03-01 Bringing together original contemporary ethnographic research on the Northeast African state of Eritrea this book shows how biopolitics the state led deployment of disciplinary technologies on individuals and population groups is assuming particular forms in the twenty first century Once hailed as the African country that works Eritrea s apparently successful post independence development has since lapsed into economic crisis and severe human rights violations This is due not only to the border war with Ethiopia that began in 1998 but is also the result of discernible tendencies in the high modernist style of social mobilization for development first adopted by the Eritrean government during the liberation struggle 1961 1991 and later carried into the post independence era The contributions to this volume reveal and interpret the links between development and developmentalist ideologies intensifying militarism and the controlling and disciplining of human lives and bodies by state institutions policies and discourses Also assessed are the multiple consequences of these policies for the Eritrean people and the ways in which such policies are resisted or subverted This insightful comparative volume places the Eritrean case in a broader global and transnational context New Languages of the State Bret Gustafson,2009-07-10 Analyzes bilingual intercultural education in Bolivia to show how indigenous backed proposals to reform the all Spanish education system to include indigenous languages and knowledges challenged neoliberal models of education and became part of the transf

Gramsci and Education Joseph A. Buttigieg,Peter Mayo,Carmel Borg,2002-11-11 Antonio Gramsci 1891 1937 is one of the major social and political theorists of the 20th century whose work has had an enormous influence on several fields including educational theory and practice Gramsci and Education demonstrates the relevance of Antonio Gramsci s thought for contemporary educational debates The essays are written by scholars located in different parts of the world a number of whom are well known internationally for their contributions to Gramscian scholarship and or educational research The collection deals with a broad range of topics including schooling adult education in general popular education workers education cultural studies critical pedagogy multicultural education and the role of intellectuals in contemporary society Third International Handbook of Lifelong Learning Karen Evans,Wing On Lee,Jörg Markowitsch,Miriam Zukas,2023-03-21 The Third edition of this well received and widely used Handbook brings together an entirely new set of chapters to reflect progress and new themes in the ten years to 2022 Building on the established structure of the first two Handbooks the four sections focus in turn on philosophy history and theory development fresh perspectives on policy and policy development emerging programs and new approaches and re imagining lifelong learning for future challenges The Handbook stimulates readers with fresh and timely insights while exploring anew some enduring themes New topics and themes introduced in all sections address lifelong learning challenges associated with climate change the digital world the rise of populism migration and precarious living The Handbook features learning innovations and evolving pedagogies such as intergenerational learning art as pedagogy to promote public mindedness neuroscience enhancing learning effectiveness and lifelong learning for sustainability Policy responses to lifelong learning for work and well being are debated In state of the art contributions authors from around the globe focus readers attention on multifaceted processes issues and decisions that must be better understood and enacted if inclusive development and fair access to lifelong learning are to become realities for us all Global Education Policy and International Development Antoni Verger,Hulya K. Altinyelken,Mario Novelli,2013-03-28 Exploring the interplay between globalization education and international development this book surveys the impact of global education policies on local policy in developing countries With chapters written by leading international scholars drawing on a full range of theoretical perspectives and offering a diverse selection of case studies from Africa Asia and South America this book considers such topics as How are global education agendas and policies formed and implemented What is the impact of such policy priorities as public private partnerships child centred pedagogies and school based management What are the effects of political and economic globalization on educational reform and change How do mediating institutions affect the translation of global policies to particular educational contexts What are the limitations of globalised policy solutions and what problems do they encounter at local levels From students of education development and globalization to practitioners working in developing contexts this book is an important resource for those seeking to understand how global forces and local realities meet to shape education policy in the developing world Gramsci, Freire and Adult Education Peter Mayo,1999-04 This book focuses on two of the most cited figures in the debate on radical education Antonio Gramsci 1891 1937 and Paulo Freire 1921 1997 Both regarded forms of adult education as having an important role to play in the struggle for liberation from oppression Peter Mayo examines the extent to which their combined insights can provide the foundation for a theory of transformative adult education He considers their respective contributions to the development of such a theory analyzes their ideas comparatively and identifies some of the limitations in their work for incorporation into a theory The book concludes with a major synthesis of their ideas in the context of other adult educators more recent contributions in order to develop a theory of transformative adult education Education as Politics Kelly M. Duke Bryant,2015-05-19 Education as Politics argues that colonial schooling remade Senegalese politics during the transition to French rule creating political spaces that were at once African and colonial and ultimately leading to the historic 1914 election of a black African representative from Senegal to the French National Assembly The History of Nicaragua Clifford L. Staten,2010-05-20 This concise history of Nicaragua provides the reader with a history of the ways in which key political and economic factors have contributed to the creation of the modern nation Notwithstanding Nicaraguan President Daniel Ortega s disdain for the United States our nation has played a significant role in shaping Nicaraguan nationalism as well as the country s political economic and social systems The History of Nicaragua was written in part to help students and other interested readers understand that relationship providing them with an up to date concise and analytical history of the Central American nation The book begins by describing the people geography culture and current political economic and social systems of Nicaragua The remainder of the volume is devoted to a chronological history emphasizing recurring themes or factors that have shaped the modern state These include the importance of elite families such as the Somoza dynasty that ruled for more than 40 years Other topics include the agro export model of economic development modern Nicaraguan nationalism the Sandinista revolution and its legacy and the democratic transition that began in 1990 The Impact of Comparative Education Research on Institutional Theory David P. Baker,Alexander W. Wiseman,2006-07-17 Explores how educational research from a comparative perspective has been instrumental in broadening and testing hypotheses from institutional theory This book contains theoretical discussions of the impact that comparative research has had on institutional theory and comparative scholarship that tests basic institutional assumptions and trends

The Production of Educational Knowledge in the Global Era, 2008-01-01 What impact does globalization have on the production of educational knowledge and on the way scholars envisage education systems and education in general Western education systems are being transformed and their role redefined in light of the processes of globalization education targets are being reshaped in response to global economic needs education systems are rated according to international rankings and education itself has been packaged into a commodity that can be commercialized worldwide In addition globalization prompts more intimate contact with different types of societies cultures and knowledge that defy our universal foundations and research tools Has educational knowledge developed in a way that enables us to disentangle the new education configurations In order to respond to this question this edited volume addresses four major challenges to understand the denationalization of education and the need to re conceptualize this transformation to uncover the agents and the tools of educational globalization such as the knowledge producers international organizations and role of statistics to explore the implications of the emerging international educational institutions and international curricula to understand non western education and integrating it into western educational knowledge These challenges are located at the core of the production of educational knowledge and are treated from a variety of viewpoints sociological quantitative and qualitative scholarship ethnographic accounts socio historical perspectives and philosophical reflections This book contributes to critical thinking about globalization and educational knowledge and at the same time opens our spirits to the theoretical opportunities and educational enrichment that the globalization era offers This is a compelling collection for anthropologists sociologists educational researchers and anyone who seeks to understand the need of new modes of thinking about education in the global era CONTRIBUTORS Robert Arnove Aaron Benavot Eyal Ben Ari Roser Cuss Yossi Dahan Roger Dale Oren Lallo Julia Lerner Orna Naftali Julia Resnik Susan Robertson Philip Wexler and Yossi Yonah
