

DECISION-MAKING SKILLS

DEFINITION

Decision-making is the process of selecting a course of action among several available options. It involves evaluating and analyzing the benefits and risks of each choice. This cognitive process is vital for problem-solving, planning, and achieving desired outcomes. Effective decision-making often requires gathering information and assessing potential impacts.

EXAMPLES

- Critical Thinking: This aids decision-making by allowing you to analyze, evaluate, and interpret information objectively, leading to more informed choices.
- Cost-Benefit Analysis: This assists in decision-making by quantifying and comparing the anticipated costs and benefits of an action.

Education A Time For Decisions:

The Role of Leaders in Educational Decision-Making Nancy H. Matthews, 2023-07-21 This book presents insights into the experiences and perspectives of educators in formal positions of leadership involved in decision making processes in an education system Drawing on qualitative research conducted in the New Brunswick education system the author identifies factors in the decision making process which influence whether or not a decision is implemented Probing what is required for effective decision making defined as decision making that results in implementation the book examines not only the role of formal educational leaders of schools administrators but also the roles played by district and department of education formal leaders It uses five central themes that surfaced from research to develop a novel leadership model for ensuring implantation of decisions These include knowledge and skill collaboration and communication balance of autonomy accountability and direction political and bureaucratic considerations and strong moral imperative The newfound model is presented in the form of antecedent steps to the decision making process Extending the literature by offering new empirically grounded insights for influencing the likelihood of implementation following a decision making process it will appeal to leaders scholars and students of educational leadership and reform
