system is far from obsolete School Leadership in Diverse Contexts Simon Clarke, Tom O'Donoghue, 2015-11-06 School Leadership in Diverse Contexts demonstrates the centrality of context to understanding school leadership. It offers varied portrayals of leadership in a diverse range of distinct settings. Each chapter highlights the prominence of context in understanding the realities of school leadership, focusing on issues and influences that school leaders face, strategies school leaders adopt to deal with the complexities of their work, and conceptualisations of school leadership relevant to the context. An impressive array of international experts examine this neglected area of research by considering school leadership in nine heterogeneous contexts, providing rich and varied portrayals of school leadership and suggesting ways in which the leadership may be enhanced. School Leadership in Diverse Contexts is an ideal book for undergraduate and postgraduate students, particularly those studying units in educational leadership, comparative education, and educational policy. Similarly, undergraduate and postgraduate students engaged with development studies, history, sociology, law, human geography, will be attracted to this text.

The Roma in European Higher Education Louise Morley, Andrzej Mirga, Nadir Redzepi, 2020-06-25 Today between 10 and 12 million Roma live in Europe, comprising the continent's largest ethnic minority. However, only 1% participate in higher education. Although the Roma are widely dispersed across Europe and beyond, they face similar social, political, and economic challenges throughout the continent. A major site of struggle has been access, attendance, and achievement in the education sector for Gypsies, Roma, and Travellers. GRT This groundbreaking text explores the Roma in higher education, a topic of great importance since higher education is considered to be a significant pathway out of poverty and to social mobility. Why are participation rates so low? What are the barriers, and what are the enablers? This edited collection brings together authors from diverse national and organisational locations, including academics, activists, and policymakers from Canada, Chile, Finland, Greece, Hungary, Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Serbia, the UK, and the USA. They share and critically analyse contemporary knowledge on research, policies, practices, and interventions to promote Roma participation in higher education in a range of European locations. They cover key topics, including the representation of Roma communities as living on the margins, but also racism, anti-Gypsyism, Romaphobia, hate crimes, and discriminatory practices. The book offers insights into how to fight discrimination and redistribute higher educational opportunities without objectifying the Roma or representing these rich and diverse communities merely as powerless victims.

Emerging Trends in Higher Education: Concepts and Practices K. N. Panikkar, 2011 Papers presented at the International Seminar on Democratic and Secular Education held at Thiruvananthapuram during 4-6 December 2008.

Politics, Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard, 2013-07-24 In the World Library of Educationalists, international experts compile career-long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces of work: extracts from books, key articles, salient research findings, major theoretical and practical contributions, so the world can read them in a single, manageable volume. Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field. Bob Lingard has spent the last 30 years researching and writing in universities in Australia England and Scotland about changing education policy issues His work is written from a sociological perspective and with a commitment to social justice He is the co editor and co author of 17 books and more than 100 journal articles and book chapters In Politics Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard provides critical sociological engagement with the politics of education The focus is education policy and the impact of globalization including epistemological and methodological issues necessary for researching education policy today Topics analyzed include educational restructuring new accountabilities and testing mediatization of education policy policy as numbers the global policy field and policy borrowing pedagogies Lingard also considers the nature of educational research today He has selected 12 of his key writings and in a critical introduction situates and contextualizes the work against key developments in the field and in the changing world

Online Postgraduate Education in a Postdigital World Tim Fawns, Gill Aitken, Derek Jones, 2021-12-17 This edited volume builds upon the premise that online learning is not separate from the social and material world and is made up of embodied socially meaningful experiences It is founded on a postdigital perspective in which much more than interactions with keyboards computer screens hardware or software the learning that happens on online postgraduate programmes spills out into professional and informal settings making connections with what comes before and after any formally scheduled tasks Unlike other books relating to online education this book combines a theoretical perspective in which the digital physical and social are all interconnected within complex educational ecologies with a focus grounded in postgraduate practice This focus has important implications for the kinds of students and learning that are explored in the chapters of the book This book provides an important contribution to the knowledge of what is required to produce quality online postgraduate programmes at the level of teachers curriculum designers faculty developers and policy makers

Fabricating Quality in Education Jenny Ozga, Peter Dahler-Larsen, Christina Segerholm, Hannu Simola, 2011-12-22 This book argues that data and their use constitute a form of governance of education. It highlights the ways in which education is steered and managed so that a European education policy space is fabricated through data which travel across national systems and which enter and restructure provision to make it measurable, comparable and governable.

Handbook on Globalization and Higher Education Roger King, Simon Marginson, Rajani Naidoo, 2011 the Handbook constitutes an essential reference source for everyone interested in studying the current meaning, scope and implications of globalization. Strongly recommended Higher Education Review. Higher education has entered centre stage in the context of the knowledge economy and has been deployed in the search for economic competitiveness and social development. Against this backdrop this highly illuminating Handbook explores worldwide convergences and divergences in national higher education systems resulting from increased global co-operation and competition. The expert contributors reveal the strategies, practices and governance mechanisms developed by international and regional organizations, national governments and by higher education institutions themselves. They analyse local responses to dominant global templates of higher education and the consequences for knowledge generation, social equity, economic development and the public good. This comprehensive and accessible Handbook will prove an invaluable reference tool for researchers, academics and students with an interest in higher education from economics, international studies and public policy perspectives as well as for higher education policymakers and funding and governance bodies.

Teaching Democracy Emery J. Hyslop-Margison, James Thayer, 2019-02-11 As we move forward well into the 21st century most citizens around the globe seemingly accept the rudiments of a democratic citizenship. And yet in spite of this broad acceptance a clear articulation of what democratic citizenship entails remains somewhat elusive. In this book Hyslop-Margison and Thayer achieve two critically important objectives in response to this problem. First they successfully articulate the threat to democracy posed by current citizenship education programs that adopt a largely instrumental framework fostering passivity and compliance by protecting the established parameters of neo-liberal social design. Second they show a way out of this anti-democratic trap by illustrating how critical theory with its marvelous ability to provide trenchant critiques of capitalism and turn those critiques into concrete political action provides the ideal pedagogical approach to educate our students effectively as future democratic citizens. The authors critique the conditions of modern democratic citizenship and distinguish a robust or thick version of citizenship based on citizen agency and participation in the construction of social reality from contemporary models that undermine citizen engagement. They contend that it is only through critical theory and the political agency it inspires that meaningful democratic change can and must occur. Hence the role of education in their view is not merely to prepare students for a new economic reality but to prepare them instead to shape that reality in more progressive and socially just ways. This book eloquently argues that the citizenship mission of schools ought to teach students what is possible rather than simply objectifying them as human capital being prepared for the inevitable impact of the policies determined by others

Breastfeeding Privatization in Public Education Meral Apak, 2022-03-24 This book unveils women's empowerment as mothers as a notion in the school system that reinforces patriarchy rather than weakening it. It discusses how empowerment is a contested notion even though it is mostly praised in terms of women's emancipation. This book explores the concept that although women are breastfeeding education as mothers in the neoliberal education system they are not necessarily doing so as a self-sacrifice as one may generalize in the context of neoliberal economy. Instead, this book argues that women are doing this as a means of investment for gaining a sense of individual power which ironically reinforces patriarchal values. It presents demonstrative and descriptive practical incidences in the field.

Japanese Education in a Global Age Akiyoshi Yonezawa, Yuto Kitamura, Beverley Yamamoto, Tomoko Tokunaga, 2018-08-01 This book highlights recent education research on Japan based on sociological and other related approaches to historical developments and accomplishments. Written primarily by members of the Japan Society of Educational Sociology, it brings to light concerns and viewpoints that have grown out of the Japanese educational context. By focusing on uniquely Japanese educational research phenomena, the book offers international readers new insights and contributes to the international debate on education. It may help sociologists and social scientists outside Japan gain a deeper understanding of ongoing changes in education in Japan as well as its historical and structural contexts.
