Ed Ruscha and the Great American West Karin Breuer, D.J. Waldie, Ed Ruscha, 2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha's interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood's version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Brougher this stunning catalogue produced in close collaboration with the Ruscha studio offers the first full exploration of the painter s lifelong fascination with the romantic concept and modern reality of the evolving American West Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco July 16 October 9 2016 Classic Contemporary Museum of Contemporary Art, San Diego, 2009

Ed Ruscha and Photography Sylvia Wolf, 2004 Edited and with an Essay by Sylvia Wolf The Best Art in the World Noah Becker, Michael Maizels, 2025-08-12 Founded in 2005 Whitehot Magazine has become one of the leading channels for contemporary art criticism Since its inception Whitehot has published thousands of reviews covering art from the United States East Asia the Middle East Africa and South America with key pieces authored by critical luminaries including Anthony Haden Guest Donald Kuspit and Phoebe Hoban The magazine is also uniquely independent in its editorial voice Unlike other large art world publications Whitehot is owned and managed by its founding editor rather than by a media holding company On the occasion of its upcoming 20th anniversary founder Noah Becker and contributor Michael Maizels have compiled a critical anthology of the magazine s writings The selected articles not only encapsulate the storied history of Whitehot but also provide a significant window into the evolution of art practice and art criticism since the turn of the Millennium

Alternative Projections David E. James,Adam Hyman,2015-03-13 A collection of papers discussing Los Angeles s role in avant garde experimental and minority filmmaking Alternative Projections Experimental Film in Los Angeles 1945 1980 is a groundbreaking anthology that features papers from a conference and series of film screenings on postwar avant garde filmmaking in Los Angeles sponsored by Filmforum the Getty Foundation and the University of Southern California s School of Cinematic Arts together with newly commissioned essays an account of the screening series reprints of historical documents by and about experimental filmmakers in the region and other rare photographs and ephemera The resulting diverse and multi voiced collection is of great importance not simply for its relevance to Los Angeles but also for its general discoveries and projections about alternative cinemas Alternative Projections provides a useful corollary and often a corrective to what has become a somewhat unilateral approach to experimental cinema in the period taken up here Millennium Film Journal There are enough examples of ingenuity and achievement contained in this volume to unite a new generation of independent artists exhibitors and audiences in maintaining a viable outlet for cinematic creativity in Los Angeles Los Angeles Review of Books

Formulations Andrew Witt, 2022-01-11 An investigation of mathematics as it was drawn encoded imagined and interpreted by architects on the eve of digitization in the mid twentieth century In Formulations Andrew Witt examines the visual methodological and cultural intersections between architecture and mathematics The linkages Witt explores involve not the mystic transcendence of numbers invoked throughout architectural history but rather architecture s encounters with a range of calculational systems techniques that architects inventively retooled for design Witt offers a catalog of mid twentieth century practices of mathematical drawing and calculation in design that preceded and anticipated digitization as well as an account of the formal compendia that became a cultural currency shared between modern mathematicians and modern architects Witt presents a series of extensively illustrated biographies of method episodes that chart the myriad ways in which mathematics particularly the mathematical notion of modeling and drawing was spliced into the creative practice of design These include early drawing machines that mechanized curvature the incorporation of geometric maquettes theorems made flesh into the toolbox of design the virtualization of buildings and landscapes through surveyed triangulation and photogrammetry formal and functional topology stereoscopic drawing the economic implications of cubic matrices and a strange synthesis of the technological mineral and biological crystallographic design Trained in both architecture and mathematics Witt uses mathematics as a lens through which to understand the relationship between architecture and a much broader set of sciences and visual techniques Through an intercultural exchange with other disciplines he argues architecture adapted not only the shapes and surfaces of mathematics but also its values and epistemic ideals Edward Ruscha Edward Ruscha, 2003 Ed Ruscha and Some Los Angeles Apartments Virginia Heckert, Edward Ruscha, 2013 Published to accompany the exhibition In Focus Ed Ruscha on view at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center Los Angeles from April 9 to September 29 2013 this book focuses on Ruscha s photographic work specifically the thirty eight images he made for his 1965 photobook Some Los Angeles Apartments Provided by publisher Art + Archive Sara Callahan, 2022-01-25 Art Archive provides an in depth analysis of the connection between art and the archive at the turn of the twenty first century The book examines how the archive emerged in art writing in the mid 1990s and how its subsequent ubiquity can be understood in light of wider social technological philosophical and art historical conditions and concerns Deftly combining writing on archives from different disciplines with artistic practices the book clarifies the function and meaning of one of the most persistent artworld buzzwords of recent years shedding light on the conceptual and historical implications of the so called archival turn in contemporary art

Becoming Judy Chicago Gail Levin, 2018-10-16 Born to Jewish radical parents in Chicago in 1939 Judy Cohen grew up to be Judy Chicago one of the most daring and controversial artists of her generation Her works once disparaged and misunderstood by the critics have become icons of the feminist movement earning her a place among the most influential artists of her time In Becoming Judy Chicago Gail Levin gives us a biography of uncommon intimacy and depth revealing the artist as a person and a woman of extraordinary energy and purpose Drawing upon Chicago's personal letters and diaries her published and unpublished writings and more than 250 interviews with her friends family admirers and critics Levin presents a richly detailed and moving chronicle of the artist's unique journey from obscurity to fame including the story of how she found her audience outside of the art establishment Chicago revolutionized the way we view art made by and for women and fundamentally changed our understanding of women's contributions to art and to society Influential and bold The Dinner Party has become a cultural monument Becoming Judy Chicago tells the story of a great artist a leader of the women's movement a tireless crusader for equal rights and a complicated vital woman who dared to express her own sexuality in her art and demand recognition from a male dominated culture
