 An annotated selection of the letters of the Pulitzer Prize winning poet and playwright Edna St Vincent Millay from childhood through the last year of her life Throughout her life Edna St Vincent Millay wrote hundreds of letters which together create a colorful tapestry of her inner life This selection based on archival research represents Millay's correspondence from 1900 when she was eight until 1950 the last year of her life Through her letters readers encounter the vast range of Millay's interests including world literature music and horse racing as well as her commitment to gender equality and social justice This collection edited by Timothy F Jackson includes previously unpublished correspondence as well as letters containing early versions of poems revealing new dimensions in Millay's creative process and influences It is enriched by Jackson's thoughtful introduction and notes plus a foreword by Millay's literary executor Holly Peppe Millay's observations on her inner life and the world around her which speak to contemporary concerns as well add to our understanding of American literature in the first half of the twentieth century Selected Poems of Edna St. Vincent Millay Edna St. Vincent Millay, Holly Peppe, 2016-01-01 More than sixty years after her death the Pulitzer Prizewinning poet Edna St Vincent Millay continues to captivate new generations of readers The twentieth century American author was catapulted to fame after the publication of Renascence her first major work and a poem written while she was still a teenager Millay's frank attitude toward sexuality along with immortal lines such as My candle burns at both ends solidified her reputation as the quintessential liberated woman of the Jazz Age In this authoritative volume Timothy F Jackson has compiled and annotated a new selection that represents the full range of her published work alongside previously unpublished manuscript excerpts poems prose and correspondence The poems appearing as they were printed in their first editions are complemented by Jackson's extensive illuminating notes which draw on archival sources and help situate her work in its historical and literary context Two introductory essays one by Jackson and the other by Millay's literary executor Holly Peppe also help critically frame the poet's
