Education And The World Of Work:

Schooling in the Workplace Nancy Hoffman, 2011 Which non American education systems best prepare young people for fulfilling jobs and successful adult lives And what can the United States where far too many young people currently enter adulthood without adequate preparation for the twenty first century job market learn adopt and adapt from these other systems In Schooling in the Workplace Nancy Hoffman addresses these questions head on arguing that the smartest and quickest route to a wide variety of occupations for the majority of young people in the successful countries not a default for failing students is a vocational program that integrates work and learning Schooling in the Workplace explores the vocational education programs in a wide range of countries focusing in rich and useful detail on six in particular Australia Austria Germany the Netherlands Norway and Switzerland Framing these discussions however is a persistent focus on American circumstances and challenges Far more than a survey of six foreign programs this is a book prompted by and organized around the policy and practical challenges facing the United States Nancy Hoffman offers a clear eyed analysis of the American youth development problem and what we can learn from our European competitors their successes and their failures She suggests workable solutions in moving from a completion agenda to a learning for jobs agenda This is a necessary read for those who are serious about addressing the real education needs of American youth in their transition to a productive adulthood James R Stone III professor and director National Research Center for Career Technical Education University of Louisville Schooling in the Workplace sheds new light on the urgency and effectiveness of integrating academic work and career preparation to help more young people succeed in the workforce It is the right approach now is the right time and as we are experiencing in California it is achievable Anne Stanton Program Director for Youth The James Irvine Foundation Nancy Hoffman takes us on a tour of countries that do an impressive job preparing their youth for careers through programs that situate learning in the workplace As a country struggling with persistent high school dropout rates achievement gaps and the lowest youth employment rate in six decades the United States should closely examine the policies of those countries that the author highlights they point clearly to how we can do a better job preparing youth particularly disadvantaged youth for the world of work in our complex society Betsy Brand executive director American Youth Policy Forum Nancy Hoffman is a vice president and senior advisor at Jobs for the Future Stanley S Litow is Vice President of Corporate Citizenship and Corporate Affairs at IBM and president of IBM s International Foundation

International Handbook of Education for the Changing World of Work Rupert Maclean, David Wilson, 2009-06-29 The aim of this Handbook is to review the developments that have occurred in Technical and vocational education and training TVET and that may help improve the field The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers. Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field, the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research policy and practice in TVET within a single source. It will assist those involved in TVET at any level in making informed decisions and further advance and improve the field and to bridge the gap between vocational and academic education in the 21st century.

India: Preparation for the World of Work Matthias Pilz, 2016-01-27 This book explores how the Indian education and training system prepares young people for the world of work and for the requirements of the employment market because India is a leading industrialised nation with a very young population and a high demand for a skilled workforce. Indian experts write from a course specific perspective offering a comprehensive picture of educational policy, curriculum design and cultural characteristics. The virtual absence of a formalised system of vocational training in India underlines the importance of this research.

Ambiyar, Unung Verawardina, Oskah Dakhi, 2023-05-01 This is an open access book. Indonesia as a member of ASEAN is now facing the ASEAN Economic Community AEC 2016. The AEC will support the ASEAN's transformation into a region that guarantees free movement of goods, services, capital and skilled labor. This will make ASEAN an even more dynamic and competitive region. In preparation for the AEC, the ASEAN member countries have ventured to improve the comparability and connectivity of their TVET systems. As an important component of human resources development, TVET is expected to play an active role in preparing the successful EAC. The implications of technological, economic and social trends are intervening factors that refine pedagogical strategies leading to the molding of TVET as a more effective platform to catalyze pragmatic approaches to prepare the workforce for the new imperatives of the world of work. Regional integration and harmonization of TVET in the region have become key concerns and at the same time the strength of the ASEAN region. They are considered the overarching interventions needed in TVET to address major issues and challenges      Education Legislation, 1968

 This book examines the challenge of accelerating automation and argues that countering and adapting to this challenge requires new methodological philosophical scientific sociological economic ethical and political perspectives that fundamentally rethink the categories of work and education What is required is political will and social vision to respond to the question What is the role of education in a digital age characterized by potential mass technological unemployment Today s technologies are beginning to cost more jobs than they create and this trend will continue There have been many proposed solutions to this problem and they invariably involve an educational vision Yet in a world that simply doesn t offer enough work for everyone education is clearly not a panacea for technological unemployment This collection presents responses to this question from a wide spectrum of disciplines including but not limited to education studies philosophy history politics
