International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2005-12-05 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels Second International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2015-01-06 This handbook presents a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It provides an accessible practical and comparative source of current research that examines the intersecting and diverse discourses of this important issue Divided into two parts the handbook first examines globalisation and education policy reforms including coverage of main trends as well as specific policy issues such as gender equity minorities and human rights Next the handbook offers a comparative perspective that evaluates the ambivalent and problematic relationship between globalisation the state and education reforms globally It features coverage on curricula issues and education reforms in schools around the world as well as the curriculum in the global culture Now more than ever there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalisation on economic competitiveness educational systems the state and relevant policy changes all as they affect individuals the higher education sector schools policy makers and powerful corporate organisations across the globe By examining some of the major education policy issues particularly in the light of recent shifts in education and policy research this handbook offers readers a comprehensive picture of the impact of globalisation on education policy and reforms It will serve as a vital sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in education Human Rights, Education & Global Responsibilities James Lynch, Celia Modgil, Sohan Modgil, 2014-07-10 First published in 1992 This is Volume 4 of a series of four on Cultural Diversity and the Schools and focusses on Human Rights Education and Global Responsibilities One of the major problems facing societies in almost all parts of the world is the inadequate accommodation of social equity with cultural diversity The crisis emanating from neglect of this issue can be seen in societies as different and wide apart as the Soviet Union India Pakistan the United States and the United Kingdom This series seeks to contribute through joint publication and the stimulation of greater discourse to identify the pathways to a less selfish and parochial response to the continuing dilemma of equity and diversity not solely within the nation state but also internationally Social Justice Handbook Mae Elise Cannon, 2009-09-11 Mae Elise Cannon provides a comprehensive resource for Christians like you who are committed to social justice She presents biblical rationale for justice and explains a variety of

Christian approaches to doing justice A wide ranging catalog of topics and issues give background info about justice issues at home and abroad and give you the tools you need to take action      Internationalisation and Trade in Higher Education Opportunities and Challenges OECD,2004-08-18 This book brings together up to date statistics case studies and policy reports on the major trends and developments in cross border post secondary education in North America Europe and the Asia Pacific region      Urban High Schools Annette B. Hemmings,2012-03-12 This multidisciplinary overview introduces readers to the historical sociological anthropological and political foundations of urban public secondary schooling and to possibilities for reform Focused on critical and problematic elements the text provides a comprehensive description and analyses of urban public high schooling through different yet intertwined disciplinary lenses Students and researchers seeking to inform their work with urban high schools from social cultural and political perspectives will find the theoretical frameworks and practical applications useful in their own studies of or initiatives related to urban public high schools Each chapter includes concept boxes with synopses of key ideas summations and discussion questions      Contemporary Readings in Globalization Scott Sernau,2008 Cutting edge reader featuring a diverse selection of edited and prefaced articles from both the academic and non academic press      Teaching for EcoJustice Rebecca A. Martusewicz,Jeff Edmundson,John Lupinacci,2011-05-20 This text offers a powerful model for cultural ecological analysis and pedagogy of responsibility providing educators with information and classroom practices they need to educate future citizens for diverse democratic and sustainable communities      Deculturalization and the Struggle for Equality Joel Spring,2016-02-26 Joel Spring s history of school policies imposed on dominated groups in the United States examines the concept of deculturalization the use of schools to strip away family languages and cultures and replace them with those of the dominant group The focus is on the education of dominated groups forced to become citizens in territories conquered by the U S including Native Americans Enslaved Africans Chinese Mexicans Puerto Ricans and Hawaiians In 7 concise thought provoking chapters this analysis and documentation of how education is used to change or eliminate linguistic and cultural traditions in the U S looks at the educational legal and social construction of race and racism in the United States emphasizing the various meanings of equality that have existed from colonial America to the present Providing a broader perspective for understanding the denial of cultural and linguistic rights in the United States issues of language culture and deculturalization are placed in a global context The major change in the 8th Edition is a new chapter Global Corporate Culture and Separate But Equal describing how current efforts at deculturalization involve replacing family and personal cultures with a corporate culture to increase worker efficiency Substantive updates and revisions are made throughout all other chapters      Higher Education in a Globalising World J. Enders,Oliver Fulton,2012-12-06 This Festschrift is dedicated to Ulrich Teichler who is celebrating his sixtieth birth day in 2002 Ulrich Teichler has been a central actor in the development of the field of research on higher education in Germany Europe and beyond Not only has he dedicated his professional career to studying a large number of higher education topics through national and international research projects He was also in the fore front of the efforts to strengthen the structure and profile of higher education research for example through his involvement in the establishment of the Consortium of Higher Education Researchers CHER In addition he has contributed to many important scholarly works reflecting on the state of the art and the nature of the field The conventional wisdom is that working in a university or college makes you an expert on higher education Consequently while academics like to do research on every possible topic they are in general reluctant to examine their own social institution Within the European context Ulrich Teichler is one of the main exceptions to this rule Already in his student days he has recognised the unique characteristics of higher education institutions and systems and he understood that special efforts are needed to improve our knowledge on higher education

Responsibility and Responsibilisation in Education Christine Halse, Catherine Hartung, Jan Wright, 2019-10-23
Concerns with the nature of and relationship between responsibility and responsibilisation pervade contemporary social political and moral life This book turns the analytical lens on the ways in which responsibility and responsibilisation operate in diverse educational settings and relationships and social policy and geographical contexts in the USA Europe the UK New Zealand and Australia Scholars have sought to explain the genealogy and the multitude of rationalities technologies bio politics and modes of governmentality that bring responsibility and responsibilisation into being how they act on and are taken up by individuals groups and organisations and the risks and possibilities they create and delimit for individuals social collectives and their freedoms Contributors to this collection have diverse views and perspectives on responsibility and responsibilisation This disagreement is a strength It underlines the importance of unravelling both the differences and similarities across scholars and contexts It also issues a salutatory warning about assumptions that reduce the complex concepts of responsibility and responsibilisation to simplistic fixed categories or to generalising and universalising single cases or experiences to all areas of education This volume was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education
