

4 Ways to Help Kids Learn SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL SKILLS

You can help your children develop social and emotional skills by being a good example, creating a positive space to share feelings, making empathy important, and focusing on cooperation.

1

Model Appropriate Behaviors

Observation plays a vital role in how young children learn new things. If your child sees you sharing, expressing gratitude, being helpful, and sharing feelings, they will have a good understanding of how to interact with people outside the home.

2

Reinforce Good Behavior

Offer praise when your children demonstrate good social behaviors. Helping children feel good about themselves plays an important role in developing a sense of empathy and emotional competence. Creating a positive climate allows children to share their feelings and naturally become more thoughtful.

Teach Empathy

Encourage children to think about how other people feel. Start by inquiring about their own feelings, asking about events in your child's life, and then begin asking questions about how other people may feel. By responding to questions about emotions, children can begin to think about how their own actions might impact the emotions of those around them.

4

Demonstrate Cooperation

As children play and interact with others, they begin to develop social problem-solving skills. While they may get frustrated at times, children will gradually learn how to cooperate, negotiate, and compromise.

Emotional Well-Being in Educational Policy and Practice

Kathryn Ecclestone, 2017-07-05

Schools in numerous countries around the world have become key sites for interventions designed to enhance the emotional well-being of children and young people offering new forms of pedagogy and curriculum knowledge informed in ad hoc and eclectic ways by various strands of psychology counselling and therapy Responding to C Wright Mills famous injunction for a sociological imagination this unique inter disciplinary collection of papers explores ideologies and imperatives that frame contemporary education policy and practice around emotional well-being ideas and assumptions about the state of childhood today and the changing nature of the curriculum subject and associated forms of knowledge In bringing together British and American advocates of behavioural interventions in social and emotional learning alongside critics who draw on historical philosophical and sociological perspectives it highlights new and important debates for policy makers the designers implementers and evaluators of interventions and those who participate in them This book was originally published as a special issue of Research Papers in Education

Children's Emotions in Europe, 1500 - 1900

Jeroen J. H. Dekker, 2024-04-04 This book gives you the historical sensation of coming face to face with the bodily expression and regulation of children's emotions over time The study does this by encouraging you to look through the eyes of well-known artists like Albrecht Dürer Domenico Ghirlandaio Jan Steen Antony van Dyck Rembrandt and Titian in early modern Europe and Jean Baptiste Simon Chardin Thomas Lawrence Jean Honor Fragonard Philipp Otto Runge Willem Bartel van der Kooi Paul Gauguin Auguste Renoir and Jozef Israëls in the late 18th and 19th centuries These sources are supplemented by works from less famous artists as well as popular emblem books child advice manuals observations from the emerging child sciences and personal documents Jeroen Dekker observes children's emotions mainly in the child's world and in the domestic emotional space and connects them with history's ongoing underlying discourse on education and the emotions This discourse was developed by theologians philosophers and moralists like Augustine Aquinas Erasmus Descartes Jacob Cats John Locke and Jean Jacques Rousseau by Romantic educationalists like Friedrich Fröbel and Ellen Key and by scientists like Charles Darwin and William James who emphasized the biological instead of the moral fundament of children's emotions The story of children's emotions is told in the context of cultural movements like the Renaissance Humanism the Reformation the Enlightenment Romanticism and the starting Age of Child Science Children's Emotions in Europe 1500-1900 crucially highlights the continuous co-existence of regulation-oriented and child-oriented educational views on children's emotions
