Childhood Intervention Hanan Sukkar, Carl Dunst, Jane Kirkby, 2016-12-01 Early childhood is considered a critical but often vulnerable period in a child's development where early identification and intervention can be crucial for improving children's developmental outcomes. Systems and family centred perspectives are vital to support families and build their capacities to lead normalized lives with improved family quality of life. This book explores the family centred practices and systems factors which influence families' experiences raising children with complex needs. It also considers the ways in which professionals can work with families to build and support parent and child competence. Conceptual and practical work from Australia, Canada, Europe, and the United States present descriptions of and implications for different family system frameworks and early childhood programs. Contributors in this edited volume bring together contemporary information that bridges the research to practice gap in supporting families of young children with disabilities or delays. Chapters include: Early Intervention for Young Children with Developmental Delays; Contributions of the Developmental Systems Approach; Family Composition and Family Needs in Australia; What Makes a Family Working with Families in Early Childhood Intervention; Family Centred Practices in an Individualised Funding Landscape; Family Systems and Family Centred Intervention Practices in Portugal and Spain; Iberian Reflections on Early Childhood Intervention. This book will attract the attention of scholars of Parenting and Families, Child Development and Childcare.

Informal Classroom Assessment Strategies for Teachers George R. Taylor, 2003 Offers a variety of informal assessment techniques to support standardized tests as well as a functional assessment model to follow in assessing behaviors.

Interdisciplinary Connections to Special Education Jeffrey P. Bakken, Festus E. Obiakor, 2015-10-21 Part A sets the agenda for this two part volume by addressing the challenge of why an interdisciplinary understanding is necessary and also outlines the benefits of adopting a multidisciplinary framework.

A Research Agenda for Inclusive Education Jacqueline Specht, Steve Sider, Kimberly Maich, 2025-08-11 This cutting edge Research Agenda studies the people and processes that are involved in promoting equal opportunities within education. Employing the ecology of inclusion model, it provides insightful suggestions for implementing a coherent approach to the process of schooling for students with disabilities.

Handbook of Early Childhood Intervention Jack P. Shonkoff, Samuel J. Meisels, 2000-05-22 Eighteen new chapters have been added to the 2000 edition of this valuable Handbook which serves as a core text for students and experienced professionals who are interested in the health and well being of young children. It serves as a comprehensive reference for graduate students, advanced trainees, service providers, and policy makers in such diverse fields as child care, early childhood education, child health, and early intervention programs for children with developmental disabilities and children in high risk environments. This book will be of interest to a broad range of disciplines including psychology, child development, early childhood education, social work, pediatrics, nursing, child psychiatry, physical and occupational therapy, speech and language pathology, and social policy. A scholarly overview of the underlying knowledge base and practice of early childhood intervention, it is unique in its balance between breadth and depth and its integration of
