Fredman,Sarah Spencer,2003-07-18 Until recently age discrimination attracted little social opprobrium However ageism has now been thrust onto the equality agenda by the spectre of an ageing population This has led to a range of policies on active ageing Most importantly legally binding legislation prohibiting age discrimination in employment will need to be in place by 2006 Remarkably little attention has been paid to the key issues To what extent is age inevitably linked with declining capacity What are the central aims of a policy on age equality and how can these be realised in law How should law and policy address age discrimination in health education and employment What lessons can be learned from the US and Europe

And should young people be dealt with in the same way as older people This book answers these questions in a series of chapters by experts from a wide range of disciplines It begins by examining the nature of the ageing process and then turns to a detailed analysis of the concept of age equality In the light of this analysis the following three chapters critically assess employment education and health A separate chapter is devoted to discrimination against children The last two chapters consider the experience in the US and other European countries

Self-Service in the Internet Age David Oliver, Celia Romm Livermore, Fay Sudweeks, 2009-03-02 Dave Oliver Celia Romm and Fay Sudweeks This book follows previous texts Celia Romm and Fay Sudweeks eds 1998 Doing Business Electronically A Global Perspective of Electronic Commerce and Fay Sudweeks and Celia Romm eds 1999 Doing Business on the Internet Opportunities and Pitfalls Not only is this current book about doing something but it also aims to present insights into how electronic commerce impacts upon the lives of everyday people in other words how electronic commerce is received as well as how it is done Accessing the Internet on a regular basis has become an established activity for many people This activity gives academics and researchers the opportunity to observe and study the nature and effects of this engagement in society The influence of the Internet in our social fabric also provides the incentive for organizations to implement a web presence As expressed in the title Self Service on the Internet Expectations and Experiences we aim to present the expectations or reasons for the availability of various services on the Internet and social responses to these developments i e the experiences These are the two main dimensions to the chapters presented in this book The major component in the title is self service on the Internet The term electronic commerce is too restrictive for our purpose as it tends towards commercial overtones which do not especially concern us

Building STEM Skills Through Environmental Education Schroth, Stephen T., Daniels, Janese, 2020-09-18 Environmental studies provide an ideal opportunity for children of any age to build critical and creative thinking skills while also building skills in science technology engineering and mathematics STEM Exploring issues related to sustainability and environmental concerns permits learners to identify problems develop research questions gather and analyze data develop possible solutions and disseminate this information to others Despite the advantages of green education and its ability to improve student achievement there is a gap in understanding the interplay between curriculum and instruction and how this affects teaching and learning Building STEM Skills Through Environmental Education is an essential publication that addresses gaps in the understanding of green education and offers educators meaningful and comprehensive examples of environmental and sustainability education in the Pre K through secondary grade levels The book offers a unique combination of foundational understanding of green education and chapters that illustrate the principles and impact of green education across grade levels content areas assessment systems instructional strategies technology and other related topics It is ideally designed for educators curriculum developers instructional designers advocates policymakers researchers academicians and students Research Ethics in the Digital Age Farina Madita Dobrick, Jana Fischer, Lutz M.

Hagen, 2017-12-08 The book discusses the multiple issues of a digital research ethic in its interdisciplinary diversity Digitization and mediatization alter social behavior and cultural traditions thereby generating new objects of study and new research questions for the social sciences and humanities Furthermore mediatization and digitization increase the data volume and accessibility of quantitative research and proliferate methodological opportunities for scientific analyses Hence they profoundly affect research practices in multiple ways While consequences concerning the subjects objects and addressees of research in the social sciences and humanities have rarely been reflected upon this reflection lies at the center of the book Learning foreign languages: experiences of persons with disabilities and special educational needs and their teachers Ewa Domagala-Zysk, Jitka Sedláčková, Katarzyna Karpińska-Szaj, 2025-09-22 In many parts of the world it is not a person's native language but a foreign one which is used for education work or entertainment This is true for many European countries whose inhabitants need to learn English as a foreign language if they want to participate in education or among diverse fields in the workforce In other parts of the world it might be Spanish Hindi Mandarin Chinese Arabic or other languages which will be serving a similar role This need for learning a second language is understood well in many educational programs including those for students with special educational needs However to date there is not much research of the experiences of persons with diverse additional needs as learners of foreign languages The most robust literature covers the field of additional language acquisition among Deaf and Hard of Hearing DHH people cf Domaga a Zy k Podlowska Moritz 2021 and others Goals methods and forms of teaching are fairly well described and DHH students needs have been documented extensively
