Short,Jay Paredes Scribner,2002-09-06 Preparing school administrators for the challenges they will face requires materials well informed about the nuts and bolts of education in real life Only a richly detailed case study

book like Short and Scribner's will provide them with the opportunity to analyze current issues Each narrative chapter concludes with application questions and a list of references The authors some of the most respected American scholars on the superintendency have compiled cases grounded in research and reality They explore topics such as the politics of education the debate over merit pay women in the superintendency and the role of the superintendent as an instructor

Case Studies on Educational Administration Theodore J. Kowalski, 2008 This book immerses prospective administrators in the realities of practice Problem solving and decision making skills are addressed through the use of open ended case studies Effective practice in school administration requires both leadership and management In today's reform minded information based society practitioners must be able to frame problems correctly and then make effective decisions to ameliorate them As leaders district and school level administrators are expected to focus on what should be done to improve schools as managers they are expected to focus on how to do things successfully The cases in this book are designed to make students think about common problems of practice by encouraging them to bridge theory and practice More precisely the cases are intended to hone four essential practitioner skills 1 The ability to frame a problem correctly 2 The ability to develop and evaluate alternative solutions to a defined problem 3 The ability to use data and other facts to counter the influence of politics and emotion in decision making 4 The ability to grow professionally by engaging in reflective practice Jsl Vol 3-N2 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1993-03-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Educational Leadership Carolyn S. Carr, Connie L. Fulmer, 2004-07-29 The twelfth annual yearbook of the National Council of Professors of Educational Administration represents the latest work and research of NCPEA members who include both professors and practitioners of educational leadership This collection of essays represents the current thinking in educational administration and principal preparation and is an excellent resource for leadership preparation programs Educational Leadership and Administration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-10-12 The delivery of quality education to students relies heavily on the actions of an institution's administrative staff Effective leadership strategies allow for the continued progress of modern educational initiatives Educational Leadership and Administration Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications provides comprehensive research perspectives on the multi faceted issues of leadership and administration considerations within the education sector

The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley,Olof Johansson,2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower s long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume
