Basic Education at a Distance Jo Bradley, Chris Yates, 2002-01-04 Open and distance learning has been used in many ways in the recent past to provide both primary education and adult education The Commonwealth of Learning works with governments schools and universities with the aim of strengthening the capacities of Commonwealth member countries in developing human resources required for their economic and social development Many existing policy documents link distance education with new information and communication technologies portraying them as a promising universal access and exponential growth of learning This book answers the key questions to these issues and assesses the impact and effect of the experience of basic education at a distance all over the world and in a wide variety of forms This is the first major overview of this topic for twenty years

Educational Broadcasting International, 1980 Distance Teaching for the Third World Michael Young, Hilary Perraton, Janet Jenkins, Tony Dodds, 2010-11-26 This reissue first published in 1980 is based on the experiences of the International Extension College in developing distance teaching The volume begins by reviewing the world problems of educational quality and quantity and then examines the ways in which print broadcasts and group study have been used to train teachers to improve classroom education to teach by correspondence out of school and to support rural development It then considers how that experience can be used perhaps by creating a network of radio colleges to supplement and extend existing schools and colleges Finally the book includes a descriptive and annotated bibliography of over 100 distance teaching projects in 65 third world countries

Organizing Educational Broadcasting David Hawkrigde, John Robinson, 2023-02-03 First published in 1982 Organizing Educational Broadcasting provides advice and guidance in organizational and managerial skills for those responsible for the operation of educational broadcasting systems It is principally designed for those who actually work within educational radio and television systems They are the people who perhaps stand to gain most by reading about international case studies In addition high level decision makers planners and others who are concerned with conceptualizing planning and implementing new systems or more likely modifying old ones will find much to interest them

Educational Documentation and Information, 1980 Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Howard E. Freeman, 1985-10 Abstract Evaluation A Systematic Approach would be most useful to program developers and evaluators or students of social research As the title indicates the book helps the program administrator or evaluator systematically look at the evaluation process and techniques in relation to the total program development process An important chapter is one that helps practitioners or evaluators recognize that evaluations must be tailored to the program for effective fine tuning and refinement An underlying function of this book is helping the program developer and administrator become more accountable for program results The chapter Program Monitoring and Accountability helps in the assessment of whether or not the program is reaching the appropriate target population and whether or not the delivery of services is consistent with program design specifications The purpose and value of various monitoring techniques are identified
