An annotated listing of activities books for use with social studies curriculums focusing on elementary and middle school grades arranged by curriculum area topic and grade level Includes contact information for publishers and distributors of appropriate books and an index The Geographic Revolution in Early America Martin Brückner, 2012-12-01 The rapid rise in popularity of maps and geography handbooks in the eighteenth century ushered in a new geographic literacy among nonelite Americans In a pathbreaking and richly illustrated examination of this transformation Martin Brückner argues that geographic literacy as it was played out in popular literary genres written for example by William Byrd George Washington Thomas Jefferson Royall Tyler Charles Brockden Brown Meriwether Lewis and William Clark significantly influenced the formation of identity in America from the 1680s to the 1820s Drawing on historical geography cartography literary history and material culture Brückner recovers a vibrant culture of geography consisting of property plats and surveying manuals decorative wall maps and school geographies the nation's first atlases and sentimental objects such as needlework samplers By showing how this geographic revolution affected the production of literature Brückner demonstrates that the internalization of geography as a kind of language helped shape the literary construction of the modern American subject Empirically rich and provocative in its readings The Geographic Revolution in Early America proposes a new geographical basis for Anglo Americans understanding of their character and its expression in pedagogical and literary terms The Map Catalog Joel Makower, 1992 This unique sourcebook for map lovers is newly revised in a third edition that includes more maps than ever before In addition to a profusion of road maps aerial maps geological maps historical maps weather maps nautical maps military maps census maps and astronomical maps this third revised edition contains the most current maps of Russia and Eastern Europe a new section on the age of exploration the most up to date information about map software a completely new section on how to have a professional map made the latest information about the new generation of maps based on the 1990 census Whether you want maps of airports or zip codes highways hurricanes or hidden treasure The Map Catalog is the book for you Citizens and Rulers of the World Mahshid Mayar, 2022-02-16 By delving into the complex cross generational exchanges that characterize any political project as rampant as empire this thought provoking study focuses on children and their ambivalent intimate relationships with maps and practices of mapping at the dawn of the American Century Considering children as students map and puzzle makers letter writers and playmates Mahshid Mayar interrogates the ways turn of the century American children encountered made sense of and produced spatial narratives and cognitive maps of the United States and the world Mayar further probes how children s diverse patterns of consuming relating to and appropriating the truths that maps represent turned cartography into a site of personal and political contention To investigate where in the world the United States imagined itself at the end of the nineteenth century this book calls for new modes of mapping the United States as it studies the nation on regional hemispheric and global scales By examining the multilayered liaison between imperial pedagogy and geopolitical literacy across a wide range of archival evidence Mayar delivers a careful microhistorical study of U S empire Transcultural Health Care Larry D. Purnell,1998 Now nurses and other healthcare professionals can perform cultural assessments of patients and their families from any cultural group encountered in nursing practice using the Purnell Model for Cultural Competence presented in this book This unique model will help you learn to examine cultures according to the twelve cultural domains El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 Earth Science ,1987 Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol. 2 Samuel Totten,Jon Pedersen,2013-02-01 Over the course of the past decade and a half we Samuel Totten and Jon E Pedersen have co edited a series of books on teaching and learning about social issues Our goal has been to build a series that would broadly represent the work that has been undertaken over the past 110 plus years related to the field of teaching and learning about social issues As we created and added to the series see for example Addressing Social Issues in the Classroom and Beyond The Pedagogical Efforts of Pioneers in the Field Researching and Teaching Social Issues The Personal Stories and Pedagogical Efforts of Professors of Education Teaching and Studying Social Issues Major Programs and Approaches we came to the conclusion that the development of an annotated bibliography of the key works books chapters articles reports and research on a wide range of issues topics germane to teaching and learning about social issues was a logical addition to the series In Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Volume 1 A Critical Annotated Bibliography which was published in early 2012 the focus was on a host of programs models strategies and concerns vis vis teaching and learning about social issues This new book constitutes Volume Two in the series entitled Educating About Social Issues in the Twentieth and Twenty First Centuries and picks up where Volume One left off Included in this book are the pioneering works of the following Boyd Bode Alan F Griffin G Gordon Hullfish Richard Gross Robert Yager and James Banks Collectively their work on social issues spans the period between the late 1930s through the present with James Banks and Robert Yager continuing to publish through today As for the subjects topics other than pioneers of teaching about social issues addressed in this volume they are Issues Centered Approaches to Teaching Geography Addressing Social Issues in Sociology and Anthropology Courses Peace Studies The Vietnam War and LGBT Oceanic Archives, Indigenous Epistemologies, and Transpacific American Studies Yuan Shu,Otto Heim,Kendall Johnson,2019-10-22 The field of transnational American studies is going through a paradigm shift from the transatlantic to the transpacific This volume demonstrates a critical method of engaging the Asian Pacific the chapters present alternative narratives that negotiate American dominance and exceptionalism by analyzing the experiences of Asians and Pacific Islanders from the vast region including those from the Philippines Vietnam Indonesia Hawaii Guam and other archipelagos Contributors make use of materials from oceanic archives retrieving what has seemingly been lost forgotten or downplayed inside and outside state bound archives state legal preoccupations and state prioritized projects The result is the recovery of indigenous epistemologies which enables scholars to go beyond US based sources and legitimates third world knowledge production and dissemination Surprising findings and unexpected perspectives abound in this work Minnan traders from southern China are identified as the agents who connected the Indian Ocean with the Pacific making the Manila Galleon trade in the sixteenth century the first completely global commercial enterprise The Chamorro poetry of Guam gives a view of America from beyond its national borders and articulates the cultural pride of the Chamorro against US colonialism and imperialism The continuing distortion of indigenous claims to the sovereignty of Hawaii is analyzed through a reading of the most widely circulated English translation of the creation myth Kumulipo There is also a critique of the Korean involvement in the American War in Vietnam which was informed and shaped by Korean economy and politics in a global context By investigating the transpacific as moments of military cultural and geopolitical contentions this timely collection charts the reach and possibilities of the latest developments in the most dynamic form of transnational American studies This collection offers a well organized and intellectually coherent series of essays addressing issues of American imperialism in Oceania and the Pacific region Covering history politics and literary culture in equal measure the essays are theoretically well informed and their focus on Indigenous cultures speaks to the current scholarly interest in the ways in which Indigenous communities can be understood within a global context Paul Giles University of Sydney This terrific volume offers the latest mapping of that complex terrain known as the transpacific Timely and capacious the essays here from an all star cast of international scholars offer the latest thinking on the oceanic dimensions of global modernity Essential reading for anyone interested in the current Asian turn in American Studies Asian American Studies and Transpacific Studies Steven Yao Hamilton College International Business John D. Daniels, Lee H. Radebaugh, 1998 International Business provides real up to date coverage of international business topics issues It discusses the differences faced in international environments overall company strategies functional alternatives for operating abroad Mark Twain's Geographical Imagination Joseph A. Alvarez, 2009-03-26 As early as the 1850s when Samuel L. Clemens before he became Mark Twain as a teenager traveled from his hometown of Hannibal Missouri to the east Philadelphia Washington DC and New York City and south St Louis In the 1860s he traveled west to Nevada California and The Sandwich Islands Hawaii I He also traveled east to Europe and the Middle East In between these early travels and his around the world lecture tour in the 1890s he lived for periods of time in Europe From these travels and sojourns abroad Clemens often found that the imagined geography differed significantly from the reality And as most people know he drew on his real and imagined home geography of the lower Mississippi River region to produce several works including his masterpiece Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Although much has been published about his travels this collection of essays marks a different approach to Twain's use of geography and geography's influence on Twain The eleven essays use Twain's concepts of space geography to help us understand or to complicate our understanding of some of Twain's works including Life on the Mississippi Adventures of Huckleberry Finn The Prince and the Pauper Roughing It A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court No 44 The Mysterious Stranger Tom Sawyer Abroad and The Private History of Campaign that Failed The contributors include veteran Twain scholars as well as a graduate student and a non-academic humorist Their critical perspectives range from the biographical and historical to Althusserian Ideological
