Geography Environment And Development In The Mediterranean:

Geography, Environment and Development in the Mediterranean Russell King, Paolo de Mas, J. Mansvelt-Beck, 2001 In 14 papers from an August 1996 international symposium in The Hague geographers explore the Mediterranean environment geopolitics economic development trade demography migration cities tourism landscapes mountains and islands The region is currently a focus for concerns about pollution and environmental sustainability population growth and migration ethnic and religious confrontation and the development gap between the North and the South Distributed in the US by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Tourism and Regional Development Maria Giaoutzi, 2017-05-15 Tourist visits used to be a less common activity in the past However more people than ever now make leisure trips making this an era of mass tourism This drastic change in spatial behaviour is not only caused by economic prosperity but the scale of this phenomenon means that it is able to generate economic growth making tourism a key factor in regional development policy One of the main challenges of current regional policy is to market the attractiveness of an area thereby increasing tourist visits and subsequent revenue In particular regions are attempting this through the use of Information and Communication Technologies ICT which offer information on interesting places and efficient methods for organizing and booking trips This book examines the interconnections between tourism ICT and regional development Bringing together a range of European case studies illustrating various ICT and policy innovations it not only critiques current activity by regions in terms of tourism development but also considers how this sector is likely to continue to grow

Coastal Mass Tourism Bill Bramwell, 2004-02-05 The Mediterranean coastal regions of Southern Europe have long been world leaders in mass tourism This book examines some key questions for tourism development in these areas with implications for similar regions across the world The standardised forms of mass tourism are diversifying with more specialised forms notably those based on nature culture and heritage and those catering for special interests There is a growing spectrum of modes of tourism with an emphasis on variety flexibility and permeability Both mass tourism and the more diversified forms substantially impact on sustainable development Policies promoting sustainable development are often of two main types developing smaller scale alternative tourism products that are intended to be less damaging to the environment and society and secondly attempts to make mass tourism coastal resorts more sustainable But there has been little critical assessment of these policies either evaluating their basic assumptions or their successes and failures in practice This edited book critically examines these issues for varied coastal regions in Southern Europe including case studies from Spain Croatia Turkey and north and south Cyprus

Urban Sprawl in Europe Chris Couch, Gerhard Petschel-Held, Lila Leontidou, 2008-04-15 Urban sprawl is one of the most important types of land use changes currently affecting Europe It increasingly creates major impacts on the environment via surface sealing emissions by transport and ecosystem fragmentation on the social structure of an area by segregation lifestyle changes and neglecting urban centres and on the economy via distributed production land prices and issues of scale Urban Sprawl in Europe landscapes land use change Sprawl in the post socialist city as typified by Warsaw Leipzig and Ljubljana Decline and sprawl where a comparative analysis of Liverpool and Leipzig shows that sprawl is not confined to expanding cities Sprawl based on the development of second homes as found in Sweden Austria and elsewhere In part III a formal qualitative model of sprawl is developed Policies for the control of urban sprawl and the roles of different stakeholders are considered Finally a concluding chapter raises questions about the nature and dynamics of these new urban landscapes and their sustainability The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies Anthony M.

Tourism in Development Peter U.C. Dieke, Brian E.M. King, Richard A.J. Sharpley, 2020-11-20 Over the last fifty years tourism has become firmly established as a development option around the world Commensurate with this the study of tourism s developmental role has also expanded significantly There now exists a broad understanding of the policies and processes opportunities and challenges that apply to tourism s potential contributions to development As the tourism environment now faces numerous challenges and transformations it is timely to reflect on contemporary understandings of the relationship between tourism and development and to consider future directions This thought provoking volume challenges the orthodoxy of tourism and development highlights past and current events and considers longer term repercussions and developments It will be a relevant and enduring resource for academics and undergraduate and postgraduate students in tourism

Tourism and Tourism Spaces Gareth Shaw, Allan M Williams, 2004-03-18 This is a critical introduction to the relations between tourism tourists and tourism spaces It fuses economic and cultural perspectives to explain how tourism is dependent on place and space while at the same time as defining those places and spaces Examining different levels of scale from local to global Tourism and Tourism Spaces is informed by the discussion of three key processes production and consumption of tourist spaces consumption and commodification of tourist experiences construction and reconstruction of tourist spaces Each chapter engages with different theoretical perspectives is illustrated with comparative examples and case studies uses tables boxes and figures throughout and concludes with a summary An integrated and systematic review of a range of theoretical positions that integrates economic and cultural Tourism and Tourism Spaces will be a key resource for students of geography sociology management studies hospitality studies and leisure studies Tourism and Migration C.M. Hall,A.M. Williams,2013-06-29 The origins of this book lie in a project of the International Geographical Union Study Group on the Geography of Sustainable Tourism The theme Tourism and migration reflects the growing interests of tourism geographers in common with other geographers and social scientists to reach across traditional cleavages in the way research is undertaken and knowledge is formed In this instance the aim was to connect the largely discrete research domains of tourism studies and migration This was informed not only by awareness of the limitations of disciplinary barriers but also by the growing need to respond to the emergence of new forms of mobility and circulation which fitted uncomfortably into many of the analytical categories of tourism and migration studies The extension of property rights across boundaries e g second homes vacation homes and time shares space time convergence changing approaches to work and leisure and structural changes in economies and the demographic profiles of societies are only some of the factors which have generated these new forms of mobility These serve to bind places and individuals in new and challenging ways with implication for both movers and stayers The various chapters of this volume bring together a range of dimensions and locations within which to study the relationships between tourism and migration Encyclopedia of Urban Studies Ray Hutchison,2010 An encyclopedia about various topics relating to urban studies Territoriality and Migration in the E.U. Neighbourhood Margaret Walton-Roberts,Jenna Hennebry,2013-08-16 This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars around an important question how has migration changed in Europe as the European Union has enlarged and what are the consequences for countries and for migrants themselves inside and outside of these redrawn jurisdictional and territorial borders By addressing this question the book contributes to three current debates with respect to EU migration management 1 that recent developments in EU migration management represent a profound spatial and organizational reconfiguration of the regional governance of migration 2 the trend towards the externalization or subcontracting of migration control and 3 how the implications of Europe s changing immigration policy are increasingly felt across the European neighborhood and beyond Based on new empirical research the authors in this collection explore these three processes and their consequences for both member and non member EU states for migrants themselves and for migration systems in the region The collection indicates that despite the rhetoric of social and spatial integration across the EU region as one wall has come down new walls have gone up as novel migration and security policy frameworks have been erected making European immigration more complex and potentially more influential beyond the EU zone than ever Beyond Walls and Cages Jenna M. Loyd,Matt Mitchelson,Andrew BurrIDGE,2013-12-01 The crisis of borders and prisons can be seen starkly in statistics In 2011 some 1 500 migrants died trying to enter Europe and the United States deported nearly 400 000 and imprisoned some 2 3 million people more than at any other time in history International borders are increasingly militarized places embedded within domestic policing and imprisonment and entwined with expanding prison industrial complexes Beyond Walls and Cages offers scholarly and activist perspectives on these issues and explores how the international community can move toward a more humane future Working at a range of geographic scales and locations contributors examine concrete and ideological connections among prisons migration policing and detention border fortification and militarization They challenge the idea that prisons and borders create safety security and order showing that they can be forms of coercive mobility that separate loved ones disempower communities and increase shared harms of poverty Walls and cages can also fortify wealth and power inequalities racism and gender and sexual oppression As governments increasingly rely on criminalization and violent measures of exclusion and containment strategies for achieving change are essential Beyond Walls and Cages develops abolitionist no borders and decolonial analyses and methods for social change showing how seemingly disconnected forms of state violence are interconnected Creating a more just and free world whether in the Mexico U S borderlands the Morocco Spain region South Africa Montana or Philadelphia requires that people who are most affected become central to building alternatives to global crosscurrents of criminalization and militarization Contributors Olga Aksytina Stokely Baksh Cynthia Bejarano Anne Bonds Borderlands Autonomist Collective Andrew BurrIDGE Irina Contreras Renee Feltz Luis A Fernandez Ruth Wilson Gilmore Amy Gottlieb Gael Guevara Zoe Hammer Julianne Hing Subhash Kateel Jodie M Lawston Bob Libal Jenna M Loyd Lauren Martin Laura McTighe Matt Mitchelson Maria Cristina Morales Alison Mountz Ruben R Murillo Joseph Nevins Nicole Porter Joshua M Price Said Saddiki Micol Seigel Rashad Shabazz Christopher Stenken Proma Tagore Margo Tamez Elizabeth Vargas Monica W Varsanyi Mariana Viturro Harsha Walia Seth Freed Wessler

Landscape Agronomy
Davide Rizzo, Elisa Marraccini, Sylvie Lardon, 2022-09-09 The landscape is widely identified as a relevant target both by integrative policies and across the disciplines dealing with resource management and territorial planning Landscape agronomy promotes a greater involvement of agricultural sciences into this arena by increasing the attention on the dynamics relating the farming practices to the natural resources and the temporal and spatial patterns of land covers This book covers the background that improved the transdisciplinary interface of agronomy with spatially explicit disciplines like landscape ecology and geography both in research and in training programs in addition to some experiences of participative landscape management On these bases the state of art on cutting edge data availability and methodological issues is used to select and discuss some worldwide case studies This selection of research topic examples underpins the concluding discussions about challenges ahead Researchers as well as policy and decision makers are the main target of this book that seeks to provide a toolbox of concepts examples and ideas to improve the understanding of agricultural landscapes Agricultural activities manage the greatest share of land surface on Earth with fast paced changes compared to any other human land use With this book we aim at providing a stronger interface between agricultural science and landscape design processes

Environment and Development in the Caribbean David Barker, Duncan F. M. McGregor, 1995 A collection of essays about environment and development in the Caribbean Of note is one chapter where the mature tourism economies of Bermuda and St Martin are compared The Journal of Geography ,1921 The Global Political Economy of the Environment and Tourism G. Kütting,2010-07-16 This book examines how local and global environment society relations play out in coastal communities dependent on tourism for economic survival It analyzes the consequences of social and economic policies on remote areas and makes a case for studying the role of environmental values in global environmental governance
