Geography Of Faith Conversations Between Daniel Berrigan When Underground And Robert Coles:

Geography of Faith Dr. Robert Coles, Daniel Berrigan, S.J., 2001-08-15 A classic of faith based activism updated for a new generation Why was Daniel Berrigan wanted by the FBI Why did Robert Coles harbor a fugitive Listen in to the conversations between these two great teachers as they struggle with what it means to put your faith to the test Discover how their story of challenging the status quo during a time of great political religious and social change is just as applicable to our lives today Thirty years ago at the height of U S involvement in the Vietnam War Daniel Berrigan a Jesuit priest was wanted by the FBI for his nonviolent protest activities He hid in the house of Robert Coles who would later win the Pulitzer Prize The two began a dialogue that encompasses a fascinating range of topics from war psychology and violence to social institutions compassion activism and family life With this expanded anniversary edition of a classic new generations of readers can examine for themselves how spirituality is not only for ourselves but often demands action and personal risk in the public arena New to this edition Robert Coles offers historical perspective on this turbulent time and assesses the progress of faith based activism in the years since Daniel Berrigan challenges today s activists in a new afterword Finally a glossary of terms helps to clarify the key people places and movements that are often the subject of the Coles Berrigan conversations

The Geography of Faith Daniel Berrigan, Robert Coles, 1971 Conversations with Robert Coles Robert Coles, 1992 Robert Coles is a psychiatrist with a novelist s sensibilities Of course everything I come up with he says novelists have known beforehand These twenty three interviews selected from hundreds that Coles has given disclose not only an illustrious physician trained in pediatrics and psychoanalysis but also a sage whose compassion for children and suffering seems boundless In focusing on a man known mainly as an eminent psychiatrist and author of The Spiritual Life of Children and more than fifty other books this collection is a departure from the other books in the Literary Conversations Series By no means is Coles best known as a writer of belles lettres as are other figures in this series Yet his varied critical insights and the critical authority with which he approaches literary subjects have enriched American literature Here through the prism of his medical and literary training Coles s conversations reveal his imposing moral vision As he ranges with penetrating wisdom over many subjects children literature teaching psychiatry family he explores the cultural social and intellectual dimensions of our lives

Faith, Resistance, and the Future James L. Marsh, Anna J. Brown, 2012 The book presents Daniel Berrigan s contribution and challenge to Catholic social thought The aim of this book is for the first time to make Berrigan s thought and life available to the academic Catholic community and to activists so that a fruitful interaction takes place

Imprisoned Intellectuals Joy James, 2004-09-01 Prisons constitute one of the most controversial and contested sites in a democratic society The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the industrialized world with over 2 million people in jails prisons and detention centers with over three thousand on death row it is also one of the few developed countries that continues to deploy the death penalty International Human Rights Organizations such as Amnesty International have also noted the scores of political prisoners in U S detention This anthology examines a class of intellectuals whose analyses of U S society politics culture and social justice are rarely referenced in conventional political speech or academic discourse Yet this body of outlawed public intellectuals offers some of the most incisive analyses of our society and shared humanity Here former and current U S political prisoners and activists writers from the civil rights black power women s gay lesbian American Indian Puerto Rican Independence and anti war movements share varying progressive critiques and theories on radical democracy and revolutionary struggle This rarely referenced resistance literature reflects the growing public interest in incarceration sites intellectual and political dissent for social justice and the possibilities of democratic transformations Such anthologies also spark new discussions and debates about reading for as Barbara Harlow notes Reading prison writing must demand a correspondingly activist counterapproach to that of passivity aesthetic gratification and the pleasures of consumption that are traditionally sanctioned by the academic disciplining of literature Barbara Harlow 1 1 Barbara Harlow Barred Women Writing and Political Detention New England Wesleyan University Press 1992 Royalties are reserved for educational initiatives on human rights and U S incarceration

The Catonsville Nine Shawn Francis Peters,2012-07-12 In the spring of 1968 a group of Catholic anti war activists barged into a draft board in suburban Baltimore stole hundreds of Selective Service records and burned the documents The bold actions of the Catonsville Nine became international news This book tells the story of this singular witness for peace and social justice
