

The background image is a photograph of the interior of a church. It features a high, vaulted ceiling with intricate geometric patterns. A series of arched windows along the upper wall allows light to filter in. Below the windows, there are rows of arches supported by columns. On the right side, a large mural or fresco is visible on the wall, depicting a religious scene. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and architectural beauty.

Geometry Of Love Space Time Mystery And Meaning In An Ordinary Church:

Geometry of Love Margaret Visser, 2002 Geometry Of Love Margaret Visser, 2012-06-26 Visser spins a fascinating and detailed web of mythology history early Christian theology Roman culture and contemporary practice as she unfolds the layers of meaning in the architecture of the small but ancient Christian church of St Agnes in Rome She enables the reader to discover the meanings expressed by any church anywhere The Geometry of Love was made into a prize winning documentary film The Geometry of Love Margaret Visser, 2015-06-23 A delightful tour of Rome s St Agnes Outside the Walls examining the stories rituals and architecture of this seventeen hundred year old building The Christian Science Monitor In The Geometry of Love acclaimed author Margaret Visser the preeminent anthropologist of everyday life takes on the living history of the ancient church of St Agnes Examining every facet of the building from windows to catacombs Visser takes readers on a mesmerizing tour of the old church covering its social political religious and architectural history In so doing she illuminates not only the church s evolution but also its religious legacy in our modern lives Written as an antidote to the usual dry and traditional studies of European churches The Geometry of Love is infused with Visser s unmatched warmth and wit celebrating the remarkable ways that one building can reveal so much about our history and ourselves The Way Is Made by Walking Arthur Paul Boers, 2025-09-23 The Word Guild Canadian Christian Writing Awards Finalist Pilgrimage is a spiritual discipline not many consider Aren t the destinations far Don t they involve a lot of time and walking Just a few years ago Arthur Paul Boers wasn t thinking about pilgrimage either But he began to sense a deep call from God to walk the five hundred mile pilgrimage route known as Camino de Santiago ending in Santiago de Compostela Spain at a cathedral that is said to hold the relics of the apostle James In these pages he opens to us his incredible story of renewed spirituality springing from an old old path walked by millions before him It s a story of learning to pray in new ways embracing simplicity forming community living each day centered and focused depending on God to provide Joined by hundreds of others from all over the world Boers points the way to deeper intimacy with God a way made by walking in faith The Politics of the Real D. C. Schindler, 2021-03-10 Schindler shows that liberalism is wrong not because it has simply relegated God to the private but because it has inverted the world giving us power without authority in what becomes a closed necessarily totalitarian horizon Here nothing else can be done with the transcendent God but to find a quiet little place to keep him harmless and out of the way When we let God out a cosmic hierarchy of act of participation in Being Himself explodes into view And this changes everything A true integralism a true postliberalism moves politics back into a cosmos that is itself analogically ordered to participation in the life of God With The Politics of the Real Schindler has elevated the postliberal conversation Andrew Willard Jones Director of Catholic Studies at Franciscan University of Steubenville and author of Before Church and State Sex and Heaven John Portmann, 2003-03-05 And so the way we worship apparently matters less to God than the way we make love The diagnosis may not be limited to Roman Catholicism for today Jewish Protestant and Muslim communities also struggle to decide what the next world holds for their sexual dissidents Curiously debates over where gay people belong now feed into debates over how much equality women deserve in the West s three major faith traditions BOOK JACKET

Francis A. Sullivan, S.J. and Ecclesiological Hermeneutics Michael M. Canaris,2016-09-27 In Francis A Sullivan S J and Ecclesiological Hermeneutics Canaris traces the significant contributions that Francis A Sullivan S J has made to Catholic ecclesiology paying particular attention to the method and application of his hermeneutical approach to the writings of the magisterium Though highly esteemed by professional theologians in both Catholic and ecumenical circles Sullivan is less well known among general audiences than many of his peers The author addresses this lacuna by arguing that Sullivan s work when viewed through an interpretive lens can aid the faithful to engage seriously with magisterial texts of various genres and levels of authority find meaning within them and encourage an active reception process whereby contemporary understanding of the teaching and learning role of the entire church becomes possible God and Enchantment of Place

David Brown,2004-10-15 David Brown argues for the importance of experience of God as mediated through place in all its variety He explores the various ways in which such experiences once formed an essential element in making religion integral to human life and argues for their reinstatement at the centre of theological discussions about the existence of God In effect the discussion continues the theme of Brown s two much praised earlier volumes Tradition and Imagination and Discipleship and Imagination in its advocacy of the need for Christian theology to take much more seriously its relationship with the various wider cultures in which it has been set In its challenge to conventional philosophy of religion the book will be of interest to theologians and philosophers and also to historians of art and culture generally A History of Byzantium

Timothy E. Gregory,2011-08-26 This revised and expanded edition of the widely praised A History of Byzantium covers the time of Constantine the Great in AD 306 to the fall of Constantinople in 1453 Expands treatment of the middle and later Byzantine periods incorporating new archaeological evidence Includes additional maps and photographs and a newly annotated updated bibliography Incorporates a new section on web resources for Byzantium studies Demonstrates that Byzantium was important in its own right but also served as a bridge between East and West and ancient and modern society Situates Byzantium in its broader historical context with a new comparative timeline and textboxes THE CULTURE IN American Sanctuary Louis P. Nelson, 2006 This volume examines a diverse set of spaces and buildings seen through the lens of popular practice and belief to shed light on the complexities of sacred space in America Contributors explore how dedication sermons document shifting understandings of the meetinghouse in early 19th century Connecticut the changes in evangelical church architecture during the same century and what that tells us about evangelical religious life the impact of contemporary issues on Catholic church architecture the impact of globalization on the construction of traditional sacred spaces the urban practice of Jewish space nature worship and Central Park in New York the mezuzah and domestic sacred space and finally the spiritual aspects of African American yard art

Death in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen, 2016-04-11 Death is not only the final moment of life it also casts a huge shadow on human society at large People throughout time have had to cope with death as an existential experience and this also of course in the premodern world The contributors to the present volume examine the material and spiritual conditions of the culture of death studying specific buildings and spaces literary works and art objects theatrical performances and medical tracts from the early Middle Ages to the late eighteenth century Death has always evoked fear terror and awe it has puzzled and troubled people forcing theologians and philosophers to respond and provide answers for questions that seem to evade real explanations The more we learn about the culture of death the more we can comprehend the culture of life As this volume demonstrates the approaches to death varied widely also in the Middle Ages and the early modern age This volume hence adds a significant number of new facets to the critical examination of this ever present phenomenon of death exploring poetic responses to the Black Death types of execution of a female murderess death as the springboard for major political changes and death reflected in morality plays and art

Modern Christianity and Cultural Aspirations David Bebbington, Timothy Larsen, 2003-06-01 Christianity and cultural aspirations are inevitably in tension the combination invites a suspicion that temporal pursuits have slackened a quest for divine approbation Nevertheless as Christians generally believe that worldly success may be a position of influence worth seeking for noble reasons it is truly an area of tension rather than merely temptation This volume explores this lively juxtaposition in the context of modern Britain and America In fifteen original essays a range of well respected scholars examine the cultural aspirations of a broad spectrum of Christians including Baptists Congregationalists Methodists Presbyterians Roman Catholics and Anglicans as they were expressed in arenas as diverse as politics education architecture and sport

The Apse Mosaic in Early Medieval Rome Erik Thunø, 2015-04-20 This book focuses on apse mosaics in Rome and engages topics including time intercession materiality repetition and vision

Studying Christian Spirituality David B. Perrin, 2024-04-23 Studying Christian Spirituality proposes a framework to discover how spirituality can be understood beyond the conventional boundaries that religions have established Its nine chapters discuss a wide variety of issues and questions which include definitions of spirituality the impact of models of God human spiritual development the importance of context historical criticism anthropology interpretation of texts and art and examples of spiritual practice David B Perrin clearly explains the traditional relationships between Christian spirituality and theology and history He also proposes greater connections with the human sciences such as philosophy psychology phenomenology and sociology and reshapes the classical approaches to Christian spirituality its texts practices and experience This interdisciplinary volume is an essential reference for scholars and students at all levels who desire to develop a deeper understanding of Christian spirituality s research methods and its relevance to the world today Exploring Colossians: Living the New Reality Roy R. Jeal, 2024-11-22 In this comprehensive socio-rhetorical interpretation of Colossians Roy R Jeal explores the letter s portrayal of the grand vision that extends from the realm of God before the creation of the cosmos to the new reality and new culture of the life of fullness in Christ The commentary analyzes the pictures the text evokes in the human visual imagination identifies the persuasive modes of discourse in the letter and evaluates the range of textures that interweave to produce the dynamic rhetorical argument of Colossians Demands to conform to empty deceitful philosophy human tradition and the elements of the world rather than to Christ are irrelevant for believers who have been transferred from darkness to the light of the Son of God s kingdom The rhetoric of the letter moves believers to ideologies of living in the body of Christ where orderly behavior guided by love contrasts with the chaotic self indulgent divisive uncertainties of Mediterranean existence Teaching and Christian Imagination David I. Smith, Susan M. Felch, 2016 This book offers an energizing Christian vision for the art of teaching The authors experienced teachers themselves encourage teacher readers to reanimate their work by imagining it differently David Smith and Susan Felch along with Barbara Carvill Kurt Schaefer Timothy Steele and John Witvliet creatively use three metaphors journeys and pilgrimages gardens and wilderness buildings and walls to illuminate a fresh vision of teaching and learning Stretching beyond familiar clich s they infuse these metaphors with rich biblical echoes and theological resonances that will inform and inspire Christian teachers everywhere The Library as Place in California Stacy Shotsberger Russo, 2008-03-28 From the educational space of UC Berkeley to a one room library in Silverado Canyon this tour of thirty two California libraries explores the sense of space and unique atmosphere a structure can provide Dividing California into eight distinct regions including the northern California coast the San Francisco Bay area Los Angeles County and San Diego County the work looks at a sampling of libraries from each area discussing the surroundings facilities and physical presentation of each building Chosen libraries reflect the communities they serve as well as their particular missions Entries include contact information for the selected library a website address and information regarding its size circulation and the extent of its collection Photographs of the libraries are also included Viral Leonard Sweet, 2012-03-13 The gospel is nothing without relationship And no one gets it like the Google Generation God came to earth to invite us personally into a relationship And while Christians at times downplay relationships the social media generation is completely sold on the idea

In Viral Leonard Sweet says Christians need to learn about connecting with others from the experts those who can't seem to stop texting IM'ing tweeting and updating their Facebook statuses What would happen he asks if Christians devoted less attention to strategies and statistics and paid more attention to pursuing relationships The current generation is driven by a God-given desire to know others and to be known by others Most of them in seeking to connect in meaningful ways have found a place of belonging that is outside the organized church Why not bring the two together Those who are sold out to relationships can teach Christians how to be better friends to people who need God At the same time members of the social media generation can learn how to follow their desire for belonging straight into the arms of God It's time for relationship to be restored to the heart of the gospel And when that happens can revival be far behind End of Chapter Interactives Included
