

What are the 4 Types of Parenting Styles?

Find out which parenting style works best for kids

High Expectations

Authoritative

- Provides reasons for equitable rules and allows children to make their own decisions within those boundaries
- Lovingly supports children to achieve high expectations and overcome challenges
- Creates a mutually respectful relationship where children learn to judge situations for themselves and are set up for successful decision-making as they grow older

Authoritarian

- Holds children to rigid rules without explanation or flexibility
- Coerces children's behavior by withholding approval, or using sarcasm and ridicule
- Often creates a strained relationship where children may rebel, resent parents, struggle making decisions for themselves, or have lower self-esteem

High Love

Low Love

Permissive

- Have lax and inconsistent expectations and rules
- Overindulge children in an effort to be liked by or considered a friend to them
- Prone to fostering impulsive, aggressive children who have low expectations for themselves

Neglectful

- Absent or willfully uninvolved – provides little to no love, guidance, or nurture
- Indifferent to their child's physical or emotional needs, friends, or activities
- Leaves children with unmet needs, resulting in lower happiness levels and behavior problems

Low Expectations

Minding the Temple of the Soul Tamar Frankiel, Judy Greenfeld, 1997

This new spiritual approach to physical health introduces us to a spiritual tradition that affirms the body and enables us to reconceive our bodies in a more positive light. Using Kabbalistic teachings and other Jewish traditions, it shows us how to be more responsible for our own spiritual and physical health. Each chapter explores the meaning of traditional Jewish prayers, providing a framework for new thinking about body, mind, and soul. Simple exercises and movements help our bodies understand prayer and show how the body's energy centers correspond to the Kabbalistic concept of the ten divine rays of light, the Sefirot. And meditations and visualizations allow us to further enhance our spiritual awareness. Using the structure of the Prayer Wheel, readers can move step by step toward wholeness of body, mind, and spirit.

Modeh Ani: Awakening our body and our soul
Mah Tov: Creating a temple for our soul
Asher Yatzar: Focusing on the gift of our body
Bircat HaTorah: Balancing our mind through the gift of Torah
Elohai Neshamah: Connecting with the soul using the Sefirot
Elu D varim: Walking on a God-centered path

Clearly illustrated with photos and diagrams to guide readers, this active creative approach allows us to tap the power of the Jewish tradition to awaken the body, balance the mind, and connect with the soul.
